A CHINESE MAZEPPA. A WILD RIDE ON A TEXAS STEER. Bough Sports or Western Cow Boys-Swift Death of a Chinamen's Persecutor. On Wednesday of last week there oc-curred a thrilling tragedy at Brookyille, in Arizona. On that day, within four miles of the above named town, there were three cowboys. Their jingling spurs, their long horned and brightly mounted saddles, on which were coiled, like long, lithe, limber snakes, rawhide riatas, the predominance of bright color displayed in saddle blanket and clothing, the gleam of the highly-polished pistol and knife, and the rude active health and vivacity of horses and riders, made them a picture pleasant to look upon, when such an inspection could be made with safety. They were known to their associates as Jake McCray, Billy of their lives. Officers are in pursuit, but Folansbee and Tom Dilworth; but whether as yet they have not been arrested. these names were conferred on them at Escaping Massacre to Die of Thirst on at the hantismal font was a matter of considerable doubt and conjecture. They had Manchester Courier, March 21. been carousing in town and were on their way back to their rendezvous, Suddenly a Chinaman appeared, laden with baskets, and with a dog trot slowly approached ago of the attack of the North Queensland and with a dog trot slowly approached them, and his little pig-like eyes showed that he had an instinctive fear of the horsemen. This was an opportunity for Watson and her Chinamen against overcruel sport which the cowboys could not let pass, and Jake McCray said to his compolice that the survivors had been drowned let pass, and Jake McCray said to his companions: "Boys lets have a China Mazeppa. I'll lasso the Chinamen and yous ketch a steer, an' we'll tie John on an' run him through the streets of the town." To this cool proposition Billy and Tommy joyfally aspected. In a few received while making, in a leaky little punt, for the mainland. The finale of the said tragedy is told by the last mail delivery. Mrs. Watson and her child had escaped murder and outrage from the savages, but were fated to a lingering death on a distant sented. In a few seconds McCray's riata desert islandwas describing circles in the air, and Ah Sin, dropping his burden, fled for dear three skeletons on No. 5 island of the life; but after a few bounds the unerring riata encircled the limbs of the Mongol, and he was jerked and thrown ten feet in the air by the bounding horse of the cowboy. In the meantime Billy Folansbee and Tom Dilworth had pursued a huge Texan steer, and Bill had thrown his riata

The trembfing Chinaman made piteous appeals to his captors, and even fished out four twentydollar pieces from some recesses in his clothing and offered them as a bribe for liberty. The money was appropriated, but the longed for freedom was denied him. They laid the prisoner, breast down, upon the steer and pulled his hands well down on the shoulders and tied them together. Then his legs were pulled apart and secured firmly on either side of the animal's loins, and the Chinaman was tied drawn-out wails would issue from the unhappy Mongol; and when the animal settled down to an ordinary run, the cry would sink down low, and thus, like the music of an Æolian harp, would the moans rise and fall. The wild, frenzied bovine approached a gully fully eighteen feet in width, and, with a fierce snort and bound, the steer gathered himself in the supreme effort and cleared it by a scratch the right, and a narrower place, also successfully jumped across the dry chasm. But Bill Folansbee and Tom Dillworth,

The fasten-ings were then removed from the steer. The pencilings in the diary speak with pathetic force for themselves : "October 9.—Brought the tank ashore as far as possible with this morning's tide; made With blood in his eye, and shaking his great breadth of horn defiantly at his tormentors, he charged successively first at one horseman, then at another, while Ah Sin was yelling alternately, "Police!" and "Murder!" in broken English and Chimese at the ton of his voice. HOT WORK,

Hard Fighting with Quick Results

Last fall a party left New York city in high sufrits for a pleasure tour through some of the vestern states. They had thrown aside cares and responsibilities of business for a few weeks, and were determined to enjoy themselves and have a good time generally. "Begone dull care," was their motto, and they intended to act up to it. Everything went as pleasant as could be wished for a time, until one day, while camping out in Wisconsin, a spark from the camp-fire set the tent in a blaze, and the confingration was so sudden and unexpected, that the whole party came pretty near being cremated a la mode, but after great exertion the fire was finally put out, with the loss of a considerable portion of their property. After all was over, one of the party, who was perhaps the most active in his exertions, discovered that his hands and wrists were severely burned, which he had not before discovered in the excitement of the noment. The pain was intense and he suffer od severely. One of the company had been troubled with rhoumatism, and by the recomtroubled with rheumatism, and by the recommendation of a friend hat purchased a bottle before coming West, some of the contents of which were still left. It was specify found and applied to the burned wrists and hands, and the relief was instantaneous, for in a few minutes it soothed the pain effectually. That bottle contained Dr Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and now it is their stand-by as a household remedy. It has no equal for alleviating pain.
