IMPROVEMENTS ON EAST KING STREET

Astrich Bros.' Bazaar-A Brilliant Boope ing-A Tasteful Window. Astrich Bros., No. 13 East King street, who for five or six weeks past have been making extensive alterations and greatly enlarging their store room, have so far completed their improvements that on Saturday they threw open the new store

An entirely new and modern front of fine architecture has been erected and the until it is now 145 feet long by 22 feet esq. The committee reported as follows wide. The front windows are the largest and most beautiful in Laucaster. Each window is filled with three immense plates of heavy French glass, each plate being eleven feet and a half in height by about six feet in width. These immense win-dows are filled with a dazzling display of the most exquisite millinery, laces, ribbons, trimmings, gloves, hosiery and a thousand notions, most artistically and tempt ingly arranged. The windows are shaded by immense blinds with dado borders in garnet and bronze, and the front of the building, not yet quite finished, will be in the same brilliant colors.

Inside, the store is still more attractive. The shelving and counters have been repainted and bronzed from end to end, and are piled high with every variety of useful or ornamental goods to decorate the female form or charm the female heart. Long rows of plate glass cases contain thousands of patterns of ribbons that rival the glorious hues of the rainbow, while laces, gloves, millinery, passamenterie and notions are shown in bewildering profusion. The millinery department is perhaps the finest and largest ever shown in Lancaster. It occupies an immeuse space in the rear of the store. The floor is elegantly carpeted, and the ceiling is pierced by a great skylight that throws a flood of mellow light upon the rich and beautifully-blended colors of the ribbons, feathers, flowers, and other wonders that go to make up modern fashionable head gear.

But it is not alone the immense stock of goods on hand that makes Astrich Brothers' bazaar so peculiarly attractive. They possess the rare faculty of arranging and displaying their wares in such orderly and artistic manner as to make their bazaar resemble an enchanted grotto. Added to these excellencies they are withal accomplished, polite and enterprising business men, and have gathered around them a corps of affable, attentive and accommodating salesladies who thoroughly understand their business, and who neglect no opportunity to make it pleasant to the thousands of customers who daily patronize them.

will be duly announced. A Beautiful Window

One of the most beautiful fronts among East King street is that of Williamson & Globe light company of Philadelphia. The Foster, Nos. 36 and 38. Within a few former company being the lowest bidder days past they have had erected in their two large windows an entirely new device vides that the lamps shall be kept lit for the display of goods. Iustead of the pyramidal shelving in general use they have substituted a light frame work of handless of the property of the substituted a light frame which case extra will be paid. Council work of handsome brass piping, adjusted to the size and shape of the windows. On these golden rods are tastefully arranged innumerable articles of gents' furnishing goods—neck-ties, handkerchiefs, gloves, hosiery, suspenders, hats, caps, and hundreds of other articles "too numerous to mention." The window decorations were made by Mr. W. C. Wall, formerly of Strawbridge & Clothier's great Philadelphia house.

BUSINESS CHANGES.

The City Hotel Livery. Mr. Cyrus H. Colvin, the well known liveryman has leased the City hotel livery stables and will run them in connection with his present stable in rear of Grape hotel. The City hotel livery will be stocked with the best of wagons and horses. Mr. Colvin will leave in a few days for Kentucky, where he will purchase a fine stable of horses for his liveries. Wm. S. Amweg, esq., has removed his morni law office from 26 South Queen street to row. 146 East King street.

ANOTHER SUICIDE.

Deliberate and Terrible Self Destruction. This morning about half-past ten o'clock a most deliberate and terrible suicide took place on the line of the Pennsylvania railroad a short distance west of the Big Conestoga bridge. As the extra freight train drawn by engine 41 was passing that point, a man was seen to lie down upon the track and deliberately place his neck across the rail a short distance in front of the engine. It was impossible to stop the train, and the engine and more than a dozen cars passed over the victim, whose head and one arm were completely dissevered from his body and he was otherwise mangled. The lifeless body was taken to the baggage room in the depot where it was identified as that of George Blymer, of this city, and Coroner Shiffer was notified. He empanelled a jury, viewed the remains and then adjourned until to-morrow to take the testimony of the train hands. Blymer was well known in this city. He was about 50 years of age, a combmaker by trade, but worked in various capacities. He was married, but was separated from his wife for a year or more, and has had considerable domestic trouble, which it is supposed drove him to his rash and tragic

He resided on Church street with his family, consisting of several children, but not his wife.

Attempt to Fire a Stable.

Yesterday morning between 6 and o'clock an attempt was made to fire the stable on the property occupied by Capt. John P. Weise on East Orange street, and owned by Mrs. Mary A. McGrann. It was discovered in good time and was extin-guished by Mr. Weise and family and a number of neighbors who carried water and worked hard. The man who set fire to the building was frightened away by the barking of a dog belonging to Captain Weise. A large hole was burned in the building, but no other damage was done.

Old Reliable Club. The old Reliable club, composed of the elite colored people of Eastern Pennsylva-nia, will give their ninth annual ball at Excelsior hall, this city, to-morrow evening. It is expected to be a brilliant affair. W. S. Still, of Philadelphia, is president of the club; Joseph Lebar, of this city, treasurer, and D. R. Chester, of Philadelphia. phia, floor manager. OUR REGULAR COMRESPONDENCE.

in and Around the Borough Picked up by the Intelligencer's Reporter. Meeting of Council. Council met on Thursday, March 30th, for the purpose of hearing the yearly reports of the committee, etc. Members present : Mesers Filbert, Gniles Hardman. Hershey, Kisler, Pfahler, Musser, president; Smith, Wann, Chief Burgan Smeath and Borough Solicitor A. J. Kauffman, PINANCE.

Receipt from March 26th, 1881, March

The report had been submitted to the borough auditor and found to be correct. The property committee reported the year's rental of buildings in excess of those of last year and that the purchase of a pisno had realized a handsome profit on the investment. In regard to complaint of citizens, of the great number of entertainments in the opera house and the character of the same, the committee submitted the matter to the discretion of council. The road committee report shows the streets to be in pretty good condition. Permits for thirteen new buildings and twelve for repairs, a total of twenty-five were issued.

The market committee reported the income from rents to compare favorably with former years. The rents are nearly all collected, and the market house is in In every good and clean condition.

The paving committee reported several new pavements laid and old ones replaced or repaired; drains repaired, and with the assistance of the supervisor have caused numerous "wash pave and stop cock boxes" to be placed level with pavements. Several pavements at the present time greatly need repairing.

The fire committee reported the department in better condition than ever before. The report contains much interesting matter that is familiar to our readers, Some of the companies need better hose. There was only one fire of consequence during the year, and the total cost of the department for the year was $3,850. The gas and water, sanitary and police committees' reports containing nothing of special public interest, except that the total expense of the latter department were $884.97.

Other Matters. The election of a new chief of fire department will be postponed until next reg- not be surpassed.

The formal spring opening of Astrich

SMITH AND LEX.

THE NEW PHILADELPHIA COUNCILS.

and Wm. Henry Lex of Common-An Encouraging Sign from the Latter, PHIDADELPHIA, April 8.—City councils reorganized this morning. A conference of the Republican members of select council was held at 9 o'clock and at which the name of James R. Gates was withdrawn as a candidate for president of the body and William B. Smith was chosen as the caucus nominee. Select council was called to order shortly after ten o'clock and the election for officers commenced. The first ballot for president resulted in a tie of fourteen votes each for William B. Smith and John K. Cuming. The only nominees on the second ballot the votes stood, Smith 15, Cuming 12, Houseman 1 and Evans 1 and Mr. Smith was declared elected. Joseph H. Paist was re-elected clerk. President Smith made a brief address. In common council was elected a president and the other officers were all re elected. President Lex spoke at length regarding the financial interests of the city, approving the removal of telegraph poles and alluding to the unwholesome water supply.

A notable feature of the election of Mr. Lex, as president of common council is his appointment of S. Davis Page, Democrat, to the chairmanship of the gas com mittee. Mr. Page was active as a member of select council in forcing an investigation of the gas trust, and when his term expired and he stood as a candidate for common council, the greatest efforts were made to deteat him. Mr. Lex recognizing the demands of the Reform element in the city and against the precedent of giving important chairmanships to a majority, has placed Page where he can renew the battle against gas trust.

Afternoon Telegrams Condensed Hanlan beat Boyd by four lengths on the Thames to day. Justice Blatchford was sworn in lay.

The president has called a special meet ing of the cabinet to be held at two o'clock this afternoon. It is supposed the Chinese bill will be finally considered. In the list of twenty four saved from he collision of the Danro and Yruac, the names of no Americans appear. Among the saved are Sir Henry Wrixon Becher and Lady Becher. The spinners at the Sagamore mill, Fall River, Mass., some thirty in number, did not resume work this morning. A great snow storm has been raging at St. John, N. B., since 12 o'clock last night, and there are no indications of a cessation at present. Charles Fischer was stabbed and killed ty a man named Trotter, while the two were riding horseback near Poplin Station, Mo., on the Cairo branch of the Iron Mountain railroad. In New York J. F. Barto to day pleaded guilty of forgery and was remanded for sentence. He "raised" a draft for $2,175 of Elizabethtown borough. Subject to the to $3,500. Nearly all the marble cutters and mar ble-polishers in New York went on strike this morning for an increase of wages. The supreme court of the United States granted this afternoon the prayer of Jas. M. Lyddy for leave to file a petition for writs of habeas corpus and certiorari in the Sergeant Mason court martial case. Daniel Ritter, aged 64, of Lebanon, was found dead yesterday morning with his face much swollen, and the coroner's inquest rendered a verdict that he died from the effects of an apopletic fit. Ritter's from the effects of an apopletic fit. Ritter's life was insured for $3,000 in speculative insurance companies.

The absence of a Republican member created a dead lock in the Easton town council to-day, and an adjournment was taken without organization. An affray occurred between a score drunken negro roughs and the police at Rocheport, Mo , during which the negroes fired a volley into a crowd of men and boys, injuring eight, but none danger-ously. Ten of the ruffians were arrested. There was a $200,000 fire in Stockton, Cal., yesterday; and early this morning fire at the brick yard of Bernard Carr, 27th street and Lehigh avenue, Philadelphia, caused $18,000 loss. Three negroes attacked two white men with razors while they were driving through a wild country in Kentucky. The travelers killed one negro, wounded another, and the third escaped. WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—For the Middle Atlantic states, northeast to southeast winds, with fair weather, rising
