 OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.
Affairs Along the Susquehanna—Cleaning up and around the Borough Picked up by the Intelligence's Reporter.
 Bunting and Stables.
 Two weeks ago Mr. Ed. Forney wrote to a gentleman in Philadelphia asking for the prices of several different boats. He received no word until last evening, when the gentleman himself put in an appearance. He reports that second class boats are very scarce in Philadelphia this season, in fact he did not know of one being for sale. He is a member of the Malta boat club of Philadelphia, and as he had considerable experience he told Mr. Forney to write to a certain well-known boat builder, using his name as reference. Mr.
 Forney has written, and until an answer is received he will appear only on Saturday afternoon and evening.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR'S FIRST VETO.
 He Returns the Anti-Chinese Bill to the Senate Without His Approval—
 Other Telegraphic News.
 WASHINGTON, March 4.—The president has sent to the Senate a message vetoing the Chinese bill.
 Immediately after the receipt of the message in the Senate, at 1:15 o'clock, the president pro tem. suspended the operation of business to lay the communication before the Senate and directed it to be read.
 The reading of the message, which was proceeded with by the senator, was listened to with marked interest and attention by the entire Senate. The vital objection of the president is to the twenty years' suspension of immigration, which he construed as virtually prohibiting, and therefore violative of the spirit, if not of the letter of the constitution, upon which the treaty was based, and as a breach of national faith.
 The message calls attention to the proposition made by the United States commissioners on this point, and the counter propositions on the part of China to show that the understanding of the latter country in the agreement which was ultimately made was that the immigration would be limited or restricted to a reasonable period.
 He points out other features of the act, which in his opinion can be modified to advantage. The system of personal registration and passports is specifically mentioned as undemocratic and hostile to our institutions, and he alluded to the omission of the act to make any provision for the transit to China of Chinese subjects now residing in foreign countries, which subject, the president adds, his attention has been called by the Chinese minister.
 The message refers to the alleged benefits to the industries derived by the Pacific coast from the presence of the Chinese heretofore, expresses apprehension of the injurious effect upon American commerce with China of legislation of the character of that proposed, unless carefully guarded, and without naming any specific period of suspension suggests that the length of term should be experimental.
 The message and the bill, on motion of Farley, were temporarily laid upon the table and ordered printed.

Again is there trouble at the Shawnee rolling mill, the works having been shut down since Saturday. Scarcity of coal is the cause claimed by the managers, but the employees tell an entirely different story. That there has been disturbances between the bosses and the men, arising from the numbers of complaints entered before our different squires. They claim that their employers are weekly keeping off a certain amount of money and that on pay day their wages are always "short" from a certain dollar. When they complain about it they are told there is some mistake, and if they insist upon their "short" allowance being raised to full value, they generally get it. On Saturday last things took a serious turn, as quite a number of men were shot. They demanded the money due them and threatened violence if it was not paid.
 The answer they received was that Officer Stuck would be placed on duty, and any person attempting to get his money without permission, would be arrested. The men advised the horses not to send for the officer as he would get hurt. He was not sent for. When the mill is to be again put in motion is not known, but it had better be soon, as some of the men are looking for new places to work. What is really the cause of the mill "shutting down" is not definitely known.

Visitors from Littleton.
 Nine of the young ladies of the Littleton seminary were in Columbia yesterday.
 They arrived in the morning, and after visiting Chickies rock, returned again to town and had dinner. After which they visited other places of interest in and around Columbia. They returned to Littleton in the 3:40 train. They expressed themselves as being highly delighted with what they saw, and call Columbia a "lovely little village." What is Littleton or our borough is a village.
