The Leiderkrans. The Easter concert and sociable of the Lancaster Leiderkranz, and the final one of the winter series, was held in Schiller hall last evening. The concert began at an early hour and it was very fine. A large audience heard it and all were highly pleased, notably worthy of mention being the vocal solos of Messrs. Drachbar and Mellinger, and Mr. Vanhart's cornet solo, an elegant performance that called out great applause. After the concert the sociable came off. There was a very large crowd present during the whole evening, and the floor was full all the time. Dancing was kept up until a late hour. The progamme of the concert was as follows :

"Montrose Quickstep.".....H. E. Cogswell. Stocy's Orchestra. Chorus, "Das treus deutsche Herz,"..J. Otto. Tenor Solo, "O Loving Heart True." n,"... Mr. H. Drachbar.

On handing to Prison Keeper Burkholder the 8,041 pennies contributed to the New Era prison bell fund, the editor of that paper compliments him on this mark Brown's Iron Bitters. of public appreciation of "your integrity of purpose to administer the affairs of the institution under your charge with an eye single to the welfare of the inmates and the best interests of the taxpayers; and that they will sustain you in this honest endeavor against any and all obstacles that your enemies may attempt to interpose recent indications of a spirit of co opera. tion between the board of inspectors and yourself, and sincerely trust that you will all mutually strive to maintain that unity of official action, without which prison re- Druggists.

form cannot be attained or prison discip-line successfully administered." In acknowledging the subscription fund, Mr. Burkholder thanks the donors; says he has appropriated the balance over the cost of the bell, $26.91, to the prison li brary; and as to the subscription itself, he says: "I assure you it shall be no fault of mine if the board and keeper do not act ed the words of commendation and sympathy which accompanied the contributions. They have come to me as would a flood of sunshine through the storm clouds and will ever remain as a beacon light on the line of duty. I estimate their value far above the price of rubies, and while memory lasts their authors will be revered and respected by me."

THE APPARATUS TESTED.

An Accident to Hose Cart No. 1. A number of insurance men from New York city, Hartford, Conn., and other places held a meeting at the Stevens house to day and transacted considerable business, all of which is of a private nature. While they were here Chief En-gineer Howell showed them how our new tire department worked. At 1:30 p. m. he struck an alarm from box 16 at Water and West King streets. In about one minute the first apparatus (No. 1) was on the ground, and it was but a very few moments until the whole department was there. They made excellent time and the trial was very satisfactory.

As the hose cart of engine No. 1 was passing over the railroad track of the Reading road at the place where the alarm was struck it upset. John Weitzel, the driver, escaped unhurt by jumping off, by Dr. William (an Indian remedy), cailed Dr. but George Currie, the foreman of the company, who was riding on the cart was thrown heavily to the ground, and besides having his hands and face cut, was badly bruised. The dash board and shalts were broken from the cart and several lamps were broken. The cart was taken to the shop for repairs. The horse also fell and was injured somewhat about his legs; he is also laid up.

SLIGHT FIRE.

Another Incendiary Attempt at Night. This morning shortly after 2 o'clock a two-story frame building, some forty feet in length and fifteen in width, belonging to Mrs. Chamberlin and situated on the lot at the corner of Mulberry and Grant streets was set on fire. It was discovered before the flames had made much headway, and the alarm was sounded from box 21 located at West King and Charlotte. The alarm was promptly responded to by the firemen, who were on the ground in an almost incredible short space of time and extinguished the flames before much damage was done. The building is an old structure and unoccupied. It was formerly used as a stone-cutting room, by Mr. as good repair as it was before the incen-diary attempted to burn it.

Missing Mare Found. About two weeks ago as George Kinsmore, horse dealer, from Baltimore, was unloading a car load of horses at the Lancaster stock yards late at night one of hem, a valuable mare, broke loose and ran tff; as the night was dark it was impossible to recover the mare, and Mr. Kinsmore was obliged to go on and take charge of the others. He left behind an adver-tisement for insertion in the daily papers, giving a description of the lost mare, but the person with whom it was left mislaid it. Mr. Kinsmore, hearing nothing of the mare, came on to Lancaster to-day, and was rewarded by discovering that his mare had been picked up by Wilson Brubaker, dairyman, residing on the New Holland turnpike, a short distance from this city.

SHIPHERD MECOMING VERY CAUTIONS

The Democratic Investigators Pressing the Peruvian Contractor Hard-He Returns Evasive Mepiles-Defend-ant as Well as Witness.

Washington, April 11.—Representative Bloant continued the cross examination of Shipherd to day and Shipherd's statement early in the investigation that he appeared before the committee in a dual capacity. as witness and defendant, was finally realized. Witness was at once put upon the defensive and the palpable drift of the morning's examination was to bring out and define exactly how far the witness had gone in a direct attempt to influence the fficial action of Minister Hurlbut. Witness was asked if Senator Blair as counsel was conferred with in relation to the letter of Hurlbut in which Shipherd tendered him $250,000 of stock and replied that Blair did not see the letter to Hurlbut. Witness, however, told him of it after it was sent. The counsel generally disapproved of the letter, telling Ship berd it might get him into trouble. To Blount's questions in relation to the letter sent to Arizola through Hurlbut he witness. Mr. Belmont then took up the cross examination and his questions followed each other in rapid succession and very soon developed the probability that the committee had extracted from the witness about all the information he proposed to

Mr. Belmout asked witness if his clients suffered any injury from the Peruvian government. Witness desired to answer the question at length in his own way, but Belmont insisted, declined and committee then went into secret session for ten minutes, at the conclusion of which witness proceeded to explain in his own way that justice had not yet been denied them, but not knowing what course the Peruvian government might pursue, he could not answer yes or no.

After some further inquiry Shipherd asked to be excused for the day, and committee adjourned until to-morrow.

THE STAR ROUTE CASES. The Government Vigorously Pushing Thom Despite the Obstructive Measures of the Defeuse.

Washington, D. C., April 11 .- The Star Route cases were resumed this morn-Star Route cases were resumed this morning, the question under consideration being the special plea of abatement made it though the defense.
