Lancaster Intelligencer.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 11, 1882.

Our Esteemed Contemporaries.

Their Estimable Relation With Each Other and With the "Intelligencer."

Examiner.

As the gusher of the INTELLIGENCER was scarcely out of his swadling clothes in 1861, he may be excused for saying that the editor of the Examiner, as a state senator, "betrayed his constituents and violated his instructions," meaning that we were instructed to vote against the repeal of the tonnage tax and then voted for its repeal. This, of course, is not true, as the records show, and the memory of those old enough to remember the circumstances all know.

Editor Hiestand As a State Senator.

New Era, April 8, 1882

The editor of the Express knew the exposures he was about to make involved charges (as was stated at the time), "of such a character no innocent would lie under them;" that "if they could not be sustained the parties implicated in them could prosecute us for libel and make us pay dearly for such outrageous defamation;" hence the precaution was taken not only to have the facts written up by a lawyer, but passed upon by lawyers, in order that there should be no legal risk taken in printing such column "leaders" as that of October 1, 1861, from which the following extract is a fair sample:

"To the shame and reproach of Lancaster county it must be said that her two Senators [Jno. A. Hiestand and Wm. Hamilton]....and her four representatives....were in this corrupt combination to plunder the state and pocket the reward of their iniquity. They knew their constituents desired them to oppose the repeal of the tonnage tax. The convention of their party, which nominated them, passed resolutions instructing them to oppose it. Yet not one of them raised a voice against this outrage upon the rights of the taxpayers of the commonwealth, but all actually connived at it, and two of them voted for it, while the others voted for the Sunbury and Erie bill, with the full knowledge that its passage was identified with the bill for the repeal of the tonnage tax, and that both measures were intended to inure to the benefit of the same corporation, at the expense of the public. That a large sum of money was paid for bribing the Legislature is well known; the sum paid to each senator for the support of these measures was $5,000, and for each member of the House of Representatives $1,000—except those who violated the instructions of their constituents, whose consciences were mollified by an additional thousand."

It is creditable to the management of the Express who enlisted their services, as well as to the legal talent of the gentlemen [Hon. I. E. Hiester, Hon. O. J. Dickey and W. H. Brown, esq.,] who wrote and approved such journalistic columbiards as legitimate for public information, that the challenge, repeatedly given, to test the truth of the allegations before a court and jury was never accepted. True, a suit was brought under pressure of friends who said the parties implicated must vindicate themselves or get off the ticket, but the suit was withdrawn and the costs paid by one of the attorneys for the prosecutors soon after their defeat.

Admits He Wasn't Libelled.

Examiner.

Mr. Warfel's editor has at last come out from under covor, and admits that Messrs. Brown and Heister rendered valuable aid, as "legal risks" were to be taken, in printing column leaders. Well that is at least a kind of a confession. And for ability and shrewdness in dodging the law of libel—appearing to make charges and not making them, has seldom been equaled and had Messrs. Brown and Heister continued editing, they would have acquired great fame.

Won't Run a Ticket This Year.

New Era.

When our contemporary assumes that "W. F. Beyer, esq., will of course, be the New Era candidate" for county solicitor, it speaks entirely upon the responsibility of its own fertile imagination. The New Era has no candidate for any of the county offices to be filled this fall and does not propose to be the organ of any personal contest where a principle is not involved. It has already indicated its policy on the gubernatorial, judicial, congressional and legislative questions, and will pursue such a course as it may deem expedient to secure the nomination of candidates for prison inspectors who will be in accord with the reformatory measures of prison management heretofore advocated by us and so auspiciously inaugurated by Mr. Burkholder; but so far as the other county officers are concerned we intend that the candidates shall have a fair fight in an open field.

EASILY PROVEN.—It is easily proven that malarial fevers, constipation, torpidity of the liver and kidneys, general debility, nervousness, and neuralgic ailments yield readily to this great disease conqueror, Hop Bitters. It repairs the ravages of disease by converting the food into rich blood, and it gives new life and vigor to the aged and infirm always.

Visible Improvement.

Mr. Noah Bates, Elmira, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I had an attack of bilious fever, and never fully recovered. My digestive organs were weakened, and I would be completely prostrated for days. After using two bottles of your Burdock Blood Bitters the improvement was so visible that I was astonished. I am now, though 61 years of age, do a fair and reasonable day's work." Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

After Eight Long Years.

C. C. Jacobs, 78 Folsom street, Buffalo, writes that for eight long years he had tried every known remedy to cure him of piles, also had been treated by physicians without success, when he was ultimately cured by THOMAS ECLECTRIC OIL. For sale at H. B Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

MEDICAL.

REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy

or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY.

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case on ases. In proof of the curative powers of

in cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try in his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the case of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.

Reigart's Old Brandy,
