At the wedding of Shon Maclean 'Twas wet and windy weather! Yet, thro' the wind and the rain Came twenty Pipers together !

Earach and Dougal Dhu, Sandy of Isla, too, Each with the bonnet o'blue, Tartan and blackcock feather: And every Piper was ton, Twenty Pipers together !

The knot was tied, the blessing said, Shon was married, the feast was spread. At the head of the table sat, huge and hoar, Strong Sandy of Isla, age tourscore, Whisker'd, gray as a Haskeir scal, And clad in crimson from head to heel. Beneath and round him in their degree Gathered the men of minstrelsic, With keepers, gillies, and lads and lasses, Mingling voices, and jingling glasses. At soup and haggis, at roast and boil'd, Awhile the happy gathering toil'd,-While Shon and Jean at the table ends Shook hands with a hundred of their friends Then came a hush. Thro' the open door A wee bright form flash'd on the floor,-The Duke himself, in the kilt and plaid, With slim soft knees. like the knees of maid. And he took a glass, and he cried out plain. "I drink to the health of Shon Maclean !

To Shon the Piper and Jean his wife, A clean fireside and a merry life !" Then out he slipt and each man sprang To his feet, and with 'hooch' the chamber rang! "Clear the tables ! shrick'd out one-A leap, a scramble-and it was done ! And then the Pipers all in a row Turned their pipes and began to blow, While all to dance stood tain; Sandy of Isla and Earach More, Dougal Dhu from Kilflannan shore, Played up the company on the floor At the wedding of Shon Maclean.

At the wedding of Shon Maclean, Twenty Piperstogether Stood up, while all their train Ceased to clatter and blether, Full of the mountain dew, Firs! in their pipes they blew. Mighty of bone and thew, Red-check'd, with lungs of leather ; And every Piper was fou, Twenty Pipers together!

Who led the dance? In pomp and pride The Duke himself led out the bride ! Great was the joy of each beholder. For the wee Duke only reach'd her shoulder; And they danced, and turned, when the reel began, Like a giantess and a fairle man ! But like an earthquake was the din When Shon himself led the Duchess in ! And she took her place before him there Like a white mouse dancing with a bear So trim and tiny, so slim and sweet, Her blue eyes watching Shon's great feet, With a smile that could not be resisted, She jigged and jumped, and twirl'd and twisted!

Sandy of Isla led off the reel, The Duke began it with toe and heel, Then all joined in amain; Twenty Pipers ranged in a row, Their cheeks like crimson, began to blow, At the wedding of Shon Maclean,

They blew with lungs of leather. And blitnesome was the strain Those Pipers played together ! Moist with the mountain dew, Mighty of bone and thew, Each with the bonnet o'blue, Tartan and blackcock feather ; And every Piper was fou, Twenty Pipers together !

At the wedding of Shon Maclean

AN EXPLANATION FOR "THE VER-

too Short to Answer Tne Heister Brown-Dickey "Gusli,"

Lancaster Examiner, April 11, We have said that life is too short to stop to fight over old and almost forgotten questions and issues, and side issues at that, and intended to divert attention from the contest now going on within the lines of the Republican party. But the young man who is now gushing slush through the INTELLIGENCER, thinks he has found something to make up for the loss of his "pig with a little black spot near the tail," and thinks the editor of the Examiner should deny the charge of venality in connection with the repeal of what was known in 1861 as the tonnage tax, and a bill for the relief of the Sunbury & Erie railroad. If any one is verdant enough to believe that some one would pay six thousand dollars for voting against the one measure, and for the other, when there were already a large majority committed to the passage of the latter bill, a denial would scarcely con vince him of its utter falsity. And we only depart thus much from our usual course of paying little notice to personal libels, because our neighbor exhibits such a sincere desire to protect our good name from reproach.

Easily Proven.—It is easily proven that ma-larial fevers, constipation, torpidity of the liver and kidneys, general debility, nervous-ness, and neuralgic ailments yield readily to this great disease conqueror, Hop Bitters. It repairs the ravages of disease by converting the food into rich blood, and it gives new life and vigor to the aged and infirm always. spi-2wd&w

Visible Improvement. Mr. Noah Bates, Elinira, N. Y., writes:
"About four years ago I had an attack of bittous tever, and never fully recovered. My digestive organs were weakened, and I would gestive organs were weakened, and I would be completely prostrated for days. After using two bottles of your Burdock Blood Bitters the improvement was so visible that I was aston-ished. I can now, though 61 years of age, do a fair and reasonable day's work." Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

After Eight Long Years. C. C. Jacobs, 78 Folsom street, Buffalo, writes that for eight long years he had tried every known remedy to cure him ot piles, also had been treated by physicians without success, when he was ultimately cured by THOMAS ECLECTRIC OIL. For sale at H. B Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

ANDREW'S AMERICAN QUEEN.

Queen of Sheba's Beauty. WAS BUT SKIN DEEP.

The renowned Queen of Sheba, with all her royal pomp, magnificent apparel and brilliant retinue, would never have appeared within the presence of the grandest of the monarchs of the past, had she not also possessed that which is the crowning glory, of the temale person—a skin unchallenged for its Oriental softness and its transcendental purity. Cleopatra, holding emperors at bay, and ruling empires by her word, had quickly lost her charm and power by one attack of blotches, or of pimples or of horrid tan and freekles.

by her beauty, not less than by her purity of character, lovilness of disposition and unselfish devotion. Indeed, in the estimation of perhaps too many men, beauty in a body takes precedence over every other consideration. Beauty thus forms an important part of woman's "working capital," without which too many (it not bankrupts in what relates to influence within the circle where they move), are powerless for great good. Hence we see not only the propriety but the duty of every lady preserving with zoalous care that which to her is essential to success and influence and usefulness in life. And, since "beauty is but skin deep," the utmost care and vigilence are required to guard it against the many ills that flesh is heir to. Among the great and annoying enemies of beauty, WOMAN RULES-THE WORLD

OF EITHER SEX, as well as of comfort, happiness and health, are those pestiferous and horrid skin diseases—tetters, humors, eczema (sali rheum), rough and scaly eruptions, ulcers, pimples and all diseases of the hair and scalp. For the cure of all these, Dr. C. W. Benson, of Baltimore, after years of patient study and investigation devoted to diseases of the skin, at last brought forth his celebrated SKIN CURE, which has already by its marvelous cures, established itself as the great remedy for all diseases of the skin, whatever be their names or character. Its success has been immense and unparalleled. All druggists have it. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package, Internal and external treatment. Price, $1.00.

EVERYONE PRAISES.
