PROF. ANDREW'S AMERICAN CREAM.

CLEOPATRA

OR THE-

Queen of Sheba's Beauty.

WAS BUT SKIN DEEP.

The renowned Queen of Sheba, with all her royal pomp, magnificent apparel and brilliant retinue, would never have appeared within the presence of the grandest of the monarchs of the past, had she not also possessed that which is the crowning glory of the female person-a skin unchallenged for its Oriental softness and its transcendental purity.

Beauty thus forms an important part of woman's "working capital," without which too many of her beauties are what relates to influence within the circle where they move, are powerless for great good.

WOMAN RULES THE WORLD by her beauty, not less than by her purity of character, loveliness of disposition and unselfishness of soul.

OF EITHER SEX, as well as of complexion and health, are those pestiferous and horrid skin diseases - Itch, humors, eczema (salt rheum), rough and scaly eruptions, alcers, pimples, eruptions of the hair and scalp.

JOHN WANAMAKER'S.

PHILADELPHIA.

SATURDAY:

Long dolmans, beautiful and fine, will now be sold at extra cost; only twelve left.

1301 Chestnut.

We are draping India and Persian shawls to make dolmans without cutting the shawls. Samples may be seen.

Milliners' gros-grain, a heavy-looking silk with cotton cord, made for bonnet work, $1.25; has the appearance of a silk of double the value, and is even better for its use.

Milliners' silks, satins and velvets, cut bias or across. The stock is voluminous; scarcely anything wanting that is likely to be called for.

Remnants of all sorts of silks are sold at this counter.

Lupin's 60-cent albatross at 37 1/2 cents is fast going; black is gone. Rarely do such staple goods get much below value in the midst of their season.

The all-wool flannel, of which we have 18,000 yards, will make many a handsome sea-side and mountain dress. Nobody will suspect it of being a 25-cent flannel.

Sateens have kept going faster and faster; sort after sort disappears; and yet sorts abound. We have had quantity beyond belief almost, but very little of any one pattern.

Marcus Ward's ruled azure, billet, square and octavo sizes; 30 cents a box of one quire and envelopes.

Decorated papers of more than a hundred designs, 20 cents to $2 a box.

Here's a hemstitch collar which we used to sell at 68 cents - a stupid price by the way; there never was a collar worth 68 that couldn't be sold for 65.

Last summer we found the maker of it in Berlin; and our price is 45. It is a standing collar with embroidered block turn-over corners.

Beautiful Swiss of a dozen patterns has come at a time when there's almost nothing new in the outside market.

Half-a-year ago we sent sketches of thirteen patterns to the makers at St. Gall; and so we get the goods. In a few months other merchants will have them.

How shall we commend them to you? There's a limit to effects in white on this almost transparent white fabric. Patterns that may be beautiful in a sketch, or in goods having the aid of colors, may turn out not at all satisfactory in Swiss.

The Swiss is fine also; 65 cents a yard.

Blouse suits of little gray-looking checks in soft wool at $4. A hundred of this one suit have gone already. Take the mending-piece out of the trousers pocket and look at the cloth. Ravel out a bit of it. You only need to pull apart the yarn to see what sort of wool it is made of. We'd like to hold a dozen sorts up in the papers for you to look at.

Extra trousers, $1.50; a very good thought.

Trunks, satchels and valises of every sort and grade; 50 cents to $50.

JOHN WANAMAKER.
