Two families named Whitten and Williams, were participants, and one of the Whittens is now under arrest, while the police are still looking for James Williams.

A Tornado-Torn Town. A fearful tornado passed over Cairo, Ill., on Saturday, from a westerly direction.
Although of but a few seconds' duration, it blew down the colored Methodist church and four other buildings, unroofed ten or fifteeen buildings, and blew over five load-ed freight cars on the Wabash railroad. It also did considerable damage to the city gas works by overturning the gasometer. also campletely destroying telegraph and telephone communications. No lives were lost, but two or three persons were slightly hurt. The tornado was accompanied by a heavy hail storm, which did considerable damage to windows and skylights.

Litigation Over the Garfield Funeral Flowers, The magnificent floral tributes presented by Queen Victoria and the Emperor of Brazil upon the occasion of President Garfield's funeral were brought to Chicago from Cleveland to be embalmed, the lady who secured the work being allowed in return the privilege of exhibiting them and selling photographs of them. The Garfield monument committee cut off the time of exhibition, compelling the lady to borrow money to complete the work. One of the leaders getting tired of waiting for payment got out a writ of replevin and the flowers were stowed away in the dusty rooms of a police justice where they are Among the testimony taken before the Assembly committee investigating the alleged abuses at the Elmira reformatory, were the following incidents: One Mo-Guire was insane and the case was reported to Mr. Beach, the deputy superintendeut, several times, but the man was kept at work till he was a raving maniac. Frank McGlynn began spitting blood and the doctor refused to give him medicine, saying it was to excite sympathy. He got worse and was sent to the hospital. Soon after he was again put to work, and, refusing to labor, was put in the "soli-tary" and strung up by the wrists and kept that way several hours. He was kept at work several months and then taken away by his sister. He died on his way home.

SENATOR FAIR'S DINNER.

The President and Members of the Cabinet Help Him Eat it. Senator Fair, of Nevada, gave a banquet in his rooms at the Arlington hotel Saturday evening to the president, members of the cabinet and a few personal friends. The table was a large oval, holding a cenof simlax and a winding border of flowers. Gilt candelabra, with branches of crimson wax lights, were placed at the ends of the table and crystal baskets of fruits beside them. The individual cards and menus were printed in silver on delicately-embossed boards with guilt edges. Gilt and wicker baskets filled with the choicest roses and red with satin ribbon, were laid before each lady's plate and boutonnieries of rosebuds and lilies of the valley were Street to No. 41 GRANT STREET, immediately in Rear of Court House, Long's New Banding.

THE CESNOLA STATUES.

Refuting the Charges of Fraud. A pamphlet was issued recently written by Clarence Cook and published by Gas ton L. Feuardent, in which it was asserted that General Di Cesnola had been guilty of fraud in relation to two statues in the collection at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. Other charges were made, but the main accusation, and the one on which great stress was laid, was that the well-known statue called "Aphrodite and Eros," and the figure holding a horned head, numbered 39 in the collection, were a fraudulent patchwork of un At Beartown, Vt., an altereation oc- related parts. The trustees of the museum in order to test the truth of these charges, invited the most thorough examination of the two statues referred to. Launt Thomp son, John Rogers, Charles Caverley, and other well-known sculptors, have made rigorous examination, and declare the charges wholly without foundation.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted in the often heard expression, "O! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth the living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BIT-TERS, which is a true tonio-a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

> 501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore, During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About tour ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered tearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried BKOWN'S IRON BITTERS and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly recovering.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.
