The following statement of William J Cough-lin, of Somerville, dass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs tollowed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half coliar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicine. I was so far gone at one time a repo t wen: around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM POR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better

MEDICAL. REIGART'S OLD WINE STORE.

Brandy as a Medicine. The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice, it is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive discuses which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable discussed Dyanensia. a specific remedy, which is ease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Sold by our enterprising young friend, il E. SLAYMAKEE. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as har as our experience extends and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandles, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Frandy to cure any such case of ascs. In proof of the curative powers of

in cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we A hard-working farmer had been afhicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—ue appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's koot Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which hepehose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Franciske Paymoran.
