

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 26, 1882.

WHAT THE BURDOCK WAS GOOD FOR. 'Good for nothing,' the farmer said. As he made a sweep at the burdock's head...

'Good for a horse,' cried the little boy. As he hopped up out of the dusty road. The boy who gave it was yet in sight. There it was cool and dark green. The best kind of a leafy screen. The boy was happy. 'For,' said he. The burdock was plainly meant for me.'

'Good for a frog,' the spider thought. And to find with care he wrought. Till he fastened it on an evergreen. And spun his cables fine between. 'Twas a beautiful bridge—a triumph of skill: The flies came round as if they will: The spider lurked in his corner dim. The more that came, the better for him.

'Good for play,' said a child, perplexed. So she gathered the bars that all depicted. And her city playmate was quite surprised. To see what a beautiful basket or tray. They ranged their treasures about with pride. And played all day by the burdock's side.

Nothing is lost in this world of ours: Honey comes from the idle flowers; The wood which we pass in utter scorn May save a life by another morn. Wonders await us at every turn. No man for rockiness or gloom. No man for rockiness or gloom. No man for rockiness or gloom.

NEWS NOTES.

There was exhibited at Cincinnati yesterday a sample of spring wheat grown on an ordinary farm near Annapolis, Md., on Nov. 29, 1881, harvested April 7, 1882, and threshed April 21. It averaged twenty bushels to the acre, and is of good quality.

Frank E. Wiles, manager of a traveling museum, on exhibition at Norfolk, Va., formerly a noted circus man, is alleged to have absconded yesterday with all the available assets of the establishment.

A heavy frost in the neighborhood of Norfolk, Va., on Monday night, destroyed quantities of the early ripening, and the gardeners are already regretting.

Dr. John P. Lipscomb, a merchant of Danville, Va., was shot and killed yesterday morning by Sterling Edmunds, of Halifax county, his father-in-law, during an altercation between them about Lipscomb's treatment of his wife. Both men drew revolvers and Lipscomb fired first.

The railroad accident reported from Colorado occurred to what is known as the Jenkins excursion party, which left New York on the 17th inst., and not to either of the Raymond parties now en route to the Pacific coast. The latter parties have been heard from and the members of both are safe and well.

The Forestry convention met at Cincinnati yesterday, with a large and influential attendance. George B. Loring, of Washington, was chosen president. A constitution was adopted, providing that the name shall be the American Forestry Congress, and the object to encourage the protection and planting of forest and ornamental trees and to promote forest culture. Among the vice presidents chosen was Thomas Meahan, of Pennsylvania.

In the Senate yesterday the House bill was taken up, and all the Senate committee amendments up to the last two sections (14 and 15) were agreed to. The committee's amendment striking out Section 14 was rejected—yeas 26, nays 32. The amendment striking out the 15th section, which defines the words "Chinese laborers" to mean both skilled and unskilled mechanics and miners, was agreed to, yeas 28. The question being on the passage of the bill as amended, Mr. Hoar spoke at length in opposition to the measure, and was replied to by Mr. Morgan.
