The Shawnee furnace goes into blast this afternoon after undergoing repairs for about 4 weeks. The furnace has been thoroughly repaired and improved and is now one of the best equipped furnaces in this section of the state.

A drunken man attempted to board the mail train west this morning. He was "slung" around and hung between the two platforms of the coaches when he was caught by the brakeman and held until the train had stopped. He was apparently sobered by the realization of his narrow escape from death, and after the occurrence walked away down the street.

Mr. Joseph Fonuwalt, of Williamsport, but formerly of Columbia, has returned to his native home and will soon be married to one of Ironville's young ladies. The annual oral examination of the high school is being conducted to-day;

the other schools will be examined after the higher grade examinations. On Saturday afternoon the town was in an uproar, owing to the number of fights occurring in many parts of the town, and especially in the Third ward. Here affairs PATIENCE.

One of Officer Stuck's sons was arrested by Officer Fisher for some breach of the peace; this made Stuck mad, and he immediately procured a warrant for Officer Fisher's arrest, which was soon accomplished and Fisher taken to 'Squire Frank's for a hearing. When the party were in the yard surrounding the 'squire's office, a crowd—Shawnee boys mostly—attacked Fisher and scratched him a great deal, the mob in the meantime threatening serious injury to Mr John Wagner, who went Fisher's bail, and compelled him to leave by the rear en

A POLICEMAN SUSPENDED. oes on a Rampage and Scares His Family and Neighbors.

On Saturday evening Mayor MacGonigle suspended from the police force, for sixty days, Constable McDevitt, of the Fourth ward, for drunken and disorderly conduct. It was known a few days before that great consternation was created in the McDevitt household, and among their neighbors by Constable McDevitt's conduct, but it was thought best not to give further publicity to the affair until the matter had been investigated. Several witnesses were ex amined whose testimony was substantially James W. Sellers testified .- That on Wednesday evening, April 26th, he heard screaming and cries of murder. A lady living next door north was standing on her door step, and as witness came out of the gate she said to him "some one should go into McDivitt's, he is killing her," (meaning his wife.) Mrs. McDevitt came out of her house and ran down to Mrs. Boas'. The girl (McDevitt's daughter) pretty well grown, ran out at the back of the lot, and the boy hid himself in the outhouse. Mr. Rote, the undertaker said in Mr. Sellers presence that McDevitt was under the inluence of liquor an hour before the occurrence above referred to. Mr. Wm. Norris said he heard Mrs. Mc-Devitt screaming ; the other children were also screaming. Mrs. McDevitt ran out of the front part of the house and the children back. The whole neighborhood was in an uproar. The street was full of excited people. Mrs. NcDevitt ran to Mrs. Boas' for protection.

Mrs. Boas stated that she went to Mc-

Devitt's house and found the family at supper; they had fried potatoes; the fuss started at the table. Mrs. Bo went home and soon after heard Mrs. McDevitt too intimate with his wife. Mrs. Boas called to McDovist, saying: "My God, what are you doing?" He was then coming down stairs with a revolver in his hands. He said, as he came down: "This will be the last of this," or "I will make an end of this." Mrs. Boas ran home. A few minutes atterwards Mrs. McDevitt came running into Mrs. Boas' for protection. She did not say anything, but cried and went on fearfully. She was in a fearful condition. McDevitt came over to Mrs. Beas' for his wife, and she was afraid to go home with him but at last she went with him. She complained that her wrist and arm hurt her very much. Mrs. Boas did not know whether or not McDevitt struck her. The street was full of people, who were greatly excited by the occurrence. On the strength of these statements the mayor suspended Mr. McDevitt as above stated. It is said there are other serious complaints against Officer McDe-

OBITUARY.

Death of Mrs. Edw. H. Brown. Mrs. Susan A. Brown, wife of Edw. H. rown, cashier of the Farmer's national ank of Lancaster, died on Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, of Bright's disease of the kidneys, after an illness of only about two veeks. Mrs. Brown was a daughter of Christian Widmyer; she was born and spent her whole life in this community and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. She was a member of St. John's Lutheran church, and for many years a teacher in the Sunday school. one of the most active members of the Dorcas society, and for many years a member of the board of managers of the Children's Home. She delighted in works of benevolence and charity and being possessed of ample means sho dispensed them with a free hand, but with excellent judgment to the suffering poor and needy. Of a bouyant, cheerful dis-position, she was the life of the family circle and of the social gathering. She leaves two children a son, Dr. C.H. Prown, and a daughter Mrs. Clara T. Williamson. BLAIR ON THE STAND, The New Hampshire Senator's Connection with Shipnerd's Notorious Scheme and His sympathy With Peru.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Senator Blair testified before the foreign affairs committee that his sole connection with the Peru vian company was as counsel, and he knew of no member of 'either house of Congress, except himself, who was in any way related in it. His own sympathy with Peru and desire to prevent its dismemberment were the motives of his own course in interesting himself in the objects and purposes of the Peruvian company. In reference to his letter to Shipherd, in which he says: "You should act as though American ships were on the way," witness believed that our government ought to consider the kidtestified before the foreign affairs commitgovernment ought to consider the kidnapping of Calderon a breach of good Cattle Market.

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—Cattle market active: sales, 2,400 head; prime at 85,408%c: good at 774c. sales, 2,40 ships of war would be sent to the Forth American waters, as English ships had already been. He understood that Con.

Grant, without any pecuniary interest whatever in the Peruvian company, was strongly in favor of rendering such sympathy and aid to Peru as would assist in giving her a chance before permitting her dismemberment. As for himself, witness was more interested in the true policy of our country than in the Shipherd company, or any other company. He could not believe in a foreign policy of debasement and whatever others had thought of the Shipherd company their were those who behaved in its possibilities to play no unimportant part in the settlement of the South American situation.

May I-A somewhat exciting scene occurred in William street two sisters fought over the grave of their mother. All of the family were Catholics except one of the sisters, who married a Protestant, and adopted his religion. Upon the death of Mrs. Farrington, the mother, the Protestant daughter agreed to pay partof the funeral expenses if her mother was buried in William's street cemetery, which is a Protestant institution. This was acquiesced in by all the family, but while the funeral procession was proceeding to the cemetery the Catholic daughter, her husband and two brothers attempted to stop the hearse and forbade burial in a Protestant cemetery. The undertaker called the assistance of officers and proceeded to the grave. While the coffin was being lowered the Catholic daughter gave ashrick, and rushing at her sister heaped upon her the most violent invectives, and finally attempted to strike her with a club. #### MONDAY:

Pongees to-day or to-morrow. The steamer British Prince has on board, at the time of writing, two hundred pieces of buff pongees for us; and they have come none too soon. None are to be got at a reasonable price in the wholesale market, and few at any price; but we shall sell these as low as if they were plenty. When they are gone, all are

One o'clock quotations of grain and prove-tons, furnished by S. K. Yundt, Broker, 154 East King street. We have embroideries upon buff pongees, white pongees, and white surahs, embroideries of excellent quality and styles; a different pattern for every dress. Most of the embroideries are of self colors; some are of bright

French fine-wool and silk-andwool dress-goods, including the very numerous melanges, have been so conspicuous a feature of our trade for several seasons past, that nothing need be said of them to habitues of the store. We often hear, however, of such remarks as "I didn't know that you kept such a variety of fine goods" from ladies who come but rarely; and so we print sometimes what is old news to our friends for the benefit of

Last year was a wonderful year for all sorts of little tricks of the weaver of these goods. Goods figured in the weaving, as they were last year, are scarcely to be seen now, except in the lower grades, or in American goods, This year is rather the colorman's year. He puts on broad and almost solid masses of the heaviest color; and he does not disdaid the most delicate touches and almost invisible mixtures between. Even what one might take for a plain cloth is apt to reveal bits of illumination if you look close-

The flannel, of which we announced 18000 yards of 13 colors a few days ago at 25 cents, is going fast enough; but, when when we get a quantity of goods to sell below value, we want everybody to know the fact. Outer circle, northeast from centre.

An unfashionable cloth at 50 cents a yard, twice as wide as that flannel, is a better bargain than the flannel, much; dark colors, obscure stripes, bourette. Third circle, southeast from centre.

Scotch ginghams are at their best now. There are so many of them that they will remain at their best a good while. There are five grades, 20, 25, 30, 37% and 40 cents. The 37%-cent grade is the finest; that at 40 cluding livestock, in Upper Uwchlan, and he will send you by return mail 6 boxes cents is quite a different article from any called Scotch gingham heretofore; more like a grena-

> Fourth circle, Thirteent's street entrance. Plumetis embroideries; new and beautiful. The writer is reduced to the necessity of the world. Will most surely quicken the quoting his French dictionary; "A species of embroidery, made pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain elleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation. It cures by hand, with slightly twisted cotton, which represents in relief Rheumatism and ALL ACHES, and IS THE GREAT RELIEVER OF PAIN. "Brown's flowers, leaves, coats of arms, letters, etc." White and dark family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a cream; plain batiste to match. tumbler of hot water [sweetened if preferred], taken at bed time will BREAK UP A COLD. 25 ets Not to be found elsewhere probably; certainly not the patterns;
