General Intelligence Promptly and Briefly in Shreveport, La., 'Squire and Post-master Hooper asked a tramp painter named Clark to take a drink, first, however, testing the whisky himself. Clark said that this was an insult. Both men drew their pistols, Clark shooting Hooper through the head, killing him. He fled from the town. Commodore Kittson, the millionaire tumberman of Minnesota, has purchased the pacing wonder Little Brown Jug, with a record of 2:113 for $4,000, and the celebrated trotter Silverton, with a record of 2:201, for $21,000.

The Minneapolis jury in the recent lynching case found that McManus came to his death by strangulation by means unknown to the jury. Mina Spear, his little victim, is improving and there are strong hopes of her recovery.

The Geiser manufacturing company's large iron works at Waynesboro, Franklin county, were entirely destroyed by fire Saturday evening, caused by the explosion of a boiler.

A fire occurred in the new market buildings at Aberdeen, Scotland, destroying a block of small shops. Loss, £40,000.
Stuart Harley, aged 19, son of the principal of the academy at Centreville, Md. shot himself and his life is despaired of. A wagon containing six persons was struck by a switch engine at East Des seventy-six, who has frequently during the trip expressed her fears at being on the sea and her doubts of ever reaching the shore, dropped dead.

The Erie car works have lost two cargoes of iron en route from their furnace at Point St. Ignace, Michigan, to their works at Erie, by the sinking of vessels. Michael Mooney and wife, of Meadville, while riding about Susquehanna, seeing the sights, were struck by a locomotive, their horse instantly killed, the wagon demolished, Mrs. Mooney knocked insensi-ble, and Mr. Mooney so injured that it is thought he will die. In Lehighton, two brothers named Bennett and a boy named Stocker were poisoned by eating wild parsnips. One of the Bennett boys died in great agony and DIUMA the other is not expected to recover Stocker will probably recover. Fisher, the negro who ravished a girl thirteen years old, was lynched at Galion, O., yesterday afternoon by a mob of two hundred men. He did not resist and while hanging shuddered but once before choking to death.

In Painesville, O., William Hadeler, formerly a prominent business man, was tound locked in his store dying with an empty vial, which had held morphia, beside him. He leaves a widow and two Princess Marie, wife of Prince William of Wurtemberg, and sister of the duchess of Albany, is dead. She was recently delivered of a still-born child. The court martial in the case of the persons concerned in the conspiracy against Arabi Bey finished its sitting on Saturday. Forty-three of the accused were sentenced to be exiled, and the rest, being civilians, were sentenced to be hanged by the civil authorities.

While Forepaugh's show was exhibiting at Lock Haven on Friday, two thieves, traveling in the wake of the circus, in the guise of soap peddlers, robbed a store of 850. Their plan is to go together to the store and while one engages the attention of the merchant with a proposal to make a purchase the other commits the rob-

On Thursday three cattle thieves were killed near Grand Junction, Ute reservation, by Sheriff Bowman, of Gunnison county, Deputy Sheriff J. Frank Rink, of Utah, and a large posse. On Friday the sheriff's posse came upon another gang of thieves. During the engagement Bowman and Rink were both killed. A large party of citizens are now in pursuit of the

A man about thirty three years old was found dead on the top of a special passenger train east upon its arrival at Phoenixville about two o'clock the other morning. On the man's arm was the name W. Keeser or Keever. About thirteen dollars, but no papers, were found on his person. The body was given to the deputy coroner at Phonixville.

George Andrews, 40 years old, a clerk, committed suicide in his room in New York, by shooting himself in the head. Andrews was a book-keeper for many years for Alden Sampson & Sons, dealers in oileloth at Nos. 58 and 60 Reade street. He had recently been discharged from his position on account of troubles, caused by his passion for drink, and in a state of de-spondency shot himself. He leaves a wife and two children.

During the tornado in Terrell county, Ga., Miss Talbot was in bed in one of the rooms of the McCarthy dwelling when the storm struck it. She was aware that the house was blown away and that she was being whirled through the air, and was conscious when she struck the earth, but remembers nothing more until she heard her sister's calls. It was just sixty yards from where the bed stood to the hole where she was found. The hole was made by the uprooting of a large oak, which was blown twenty yards away.

The London Times says that with Ralph Waldo Emerson's death a great break has occurred. The present generation has lost the strongest and almost the sole tie which binds it to the Boston or Concord of Hawthorne, Margaret Fuller, Alcott, Channing and Theodore Parker. The Standard says: "More genial, more deli-cate than Carlyle, Emerson, nevertheless had much in common with him. His loss will be keenly felt on both sides the Atlantic." The Telegraph says that Emerson, alike in his eloquent prose and thoughtful poetry, has been the most genuine American among all that brilliant New-England company to which he belonged.

Queen of Sheba's Beauty. WAS BUT SKIN DEEP.

The renowned Queen of Sheba, with all her royal pomp, magnificent apparel and brilliant retinue, would never have appeared within the presence of the grandest of the monarchs of the past, had she not also possessed that which is the crowning glory of the female person—a skin unchallenged for its Oriental softness and its transcendental purity. Cleopatra, holding emperors at bay, and ruling empires by her word, had quickly lost her charm and power by one attack of blotches, or of pimples or of horrid tan and freekles.

WOMAN RULES THE WORLD by her beauty, not less than by her purity of character, loviness of disposition and unsel-fish devotion. Indeed, in the estimation of fish devotion. Indeed, in the estimation of perhaps too many men, beauty in a body takes precedence over every other consideration. Beauty thus forms an important part of woman's "working capital," without which too many (it not bankrupts in what relates to influence within the circle where they move), are powerless for great good. Hence we see not only the propriety but the duty of every lady preserving with zealous care that which to her is essential to success and influence and usefulness in lite. And, since "beauty is but skin deep," the utmost care and vigilence are required to guard it against the many ills that flesh is heir to. Among the great and annoying enemics of beauty,
