May parties are in order. The squires will have their hands full for the next week or so, in settling the suits of Saturday. The car movement at Columbia, for the month of April, 1882, over the P. R. R. is as follows : Eastward, loaded, 37,834 empty, 3,562—total, 41,396. Westward, loaded, 13,409; empty. 26,122—total, 39,521; making a grand total of 80,927; April being one day less than March, shows an increase over that month of 3,017, and an increase of 11,970 over that of April, 1881. During last night a masked man at tempted to enter the residence of Mr. John Fendrich, on Chesnut street, but was unable to gain an entrance, although he tried several of the doors with nippers. At the residence of Mr. S. H. Purple, he was successful and soon effected an entrance into the hall, and then made a tour of the different rooms, first entering Miss Annie's who awakened by his presence, lay still until he had left that and went to another daughter's room, where he searched through her room for jewelry, but was unable to find any. He next began to ransack the pockets of the dresses hanging in the room, but by this time Miss Annie had given the alarm and the approaching foctsteps of Mr. Purple warned the bold robber to flee, which he did, making good his escape. A grand concert, consisting of recitations, dialogues and music, will be held in the First African Baptist church on this and to morrow evenings.

It has been discovered that a juryman who served in several cases tried last week had never been naturalized, and the fact will be made cause for an application of a new trial in at least one of the causes on which he sat-that of Dunlap vs. Potts. Alarm box 45, located at the corner of Market and Frederick streets, which was maliciously broken two weeks ago, has been repaired, a new case having been furnished by the Gamewell company. All he boxes are now in good order.

The street committee, which meets on every alternate Monday evening at Alderman Barr's office, has agreed to ask proposals for brick, sand and stone for city use : and instructed the street commissioner to warn all persons taking up bricks or stones to replace them properly, and to threaten everybody throwing garbage or paper on the streets with the penalties of the law

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Millersville state normal school yesterday the following persons were elected trustees: John M. Stehman, Jonas B. Martin, Chas. A. Heinitsh and C. B. Herr. The following names were directed to be sent to the state superintendent for him to make two nominations from them for trustees on behalf of the state: John S. Mann, Levi S. Reist, Dr. A. T. Huebner, John Johnson, colored hod carrier, load ed up with more primary election whisky than he could carry, raised Cain at home, and Alderman A. F. Donnelly sent him to iail for five days.

Before a well attended meeting of the Plant club last evening, Dr. S. T. Davis read an interesting and valuable paper on "Botany and Medicine," showing their relation and interdependence, and the wonders of the study of 200,000 known varieties of plants, many of which enter so largely into the uses of the physician. He paid special attention to the cinchonia tree of South America and favored its introduction into this country by governmental aid.

Bartholomew's trained horses will be exhibited in this city during the week beginning June 12. These animals—15 in number-were exhibited in Reading last week. Ten performances were given to over 10,000 persons and the business was something wonderful in the history of amusements in that city. Manager Mishler has the horses and he talks of taking them to

The Fair. The attendance at the opera house was very good last night and the selling and chancing of the articles proceeded at a lively rate. The following were the lucky people: Rev. Dr. J. P. McCullagh won a set of embroidered tidies; C. E. Haber-bush, a box of cigars; John Murphy, a music stand; Mrs. John Murphy a small shrine; Miss Kate Trost, a silk umbrella.; Harry McLaughlin a French china salad set : John McHale a gold watch, the chancing for which was confined to workmen on the contract of T. Wallace Reilly, cures itch, bather's itch, salt rheum, tetter,

It was erroneously stated in this paper last evening that the fair would close tomorrow night; it will, however, remain open until Thursday night.

RESCUED FROM DEATH The following statement of William J Coughlin, of Somerville, Jass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs tollowed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summ of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital, While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half coltar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medleine. I was so far gone at one time a repo t went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. Wm. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was meurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to tecl better day I feel in better spirits than I have the past "I write this hoping you will publish it, so that everyone afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take Dr. Wm, Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, and be convinced that consumption can be cured. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold in Lancaster at Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen 1v28-1vdeodTh&w2

FURIOUS FLAMES. MIDDLETOWN RAVAGED BY FIRE.

The Fire Department of Wilmington

Called on to Save the Town-Other Telegraphic News. WILMINGTON, Del., May 2.—A fire broke out this morning at Middletown, Delaware, about twenty miles from this place, which seems to threaten a disastrous conflagration, Telegrams have been received here asking for assistance, and in response the chief engineer and assistant, with about one hundred men of Wilmington fire depart, two engines and three hose carriages, left on a special train at 10:30 a. m. Cox Bro.'s carriage factory and Barr & Co.'s machine shop have already been burned, and the fire is still gaining headway. WILMINGTON, Del., May 2.—A special dispatch to the Gazette from Middletown says: The fire broke out in A. J. Cox's carriage shop at 9 o'clock, and in five minutes the large frame building, 100 feet square and three stories in height was in flames. The wind was blowing strong and the fire spread rapidly to all the other buildings in the square bounded by Maine, Broad and Green streets. Five buildings, including the Episcopal church, have been destroyed, entailing a loss of at least $30,

Another special dispatch to the Every Evening says that there was no means of checking the fire except with buckets and and an ineffective Babcock extinguisher, but that the Wilmington steamers have arrived.

MIDDLETOWN, Del. May 2-The Wilnington firemen reached here at 11 o'clock and soon got the fire under control. The square bounded by Main, Broad, Church and North streets was nearly all burned over, but as the buildings were chiefly of frame work the loss will not exceed $25,000. Queen Anne Episcopal church, built of greenstone, is in ruins. The loss on this building is $10,000, insurance $4,500. The altar desk, which was presented to the original congregation by Orean Association by Orean Association in the original congregation in the origi tion by Queen Anne, was saved. Cox & Bros. lose $3,000, insurance $1,500. The loss onPennington's agricultural store 18$1,000, and on two dwellings belonging to the Joshua Lake estate $2,000. The loss on Johnson's carpenter shop is $800; on Johnson's dwelling $1,500, and on McKee's millinery store $1,500. The other losses are slight and fall on private parties.

The survivors of the Eighth Pennsylvania cavalry held a reunion at Williams-william Marks a member of the board of guardians of the poor, died in Philade'. phia this morning of Brights disease. L. B. Leskiess brush factory and the Washington street Baptist, church, Dover, N. H., were burned this morning. Loss, 875,000.

Mrs. Rogers, who was dangerously shot by her husband in Philadelphia, will recover. Robert Donohugh has been arrested as an accessory in the attempted murder.
