NEWS FROM THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

Intelligence in Brief from Various Counties of Pennsylvania The Reading board of trade is agitating the subject of abolishing toll bridges on the roads approaching the city.

A sixteen year old girl has died in Harrisburg of smallpox and was buried by two faithful heathers.

faithful brothers. Scarlet fever is prevailing in Chester county with alarming fatality among

In Chester county the acreage put in tobacco this year will be more than double

Over one hundred workmen have been discharged from the iron works at Steelton, Dauphin county, the reason for which has not yet been made apparent.

Reuben Wallace, of Perry county, plowed up two large black snakes the other day.

One of the reptiles made war and it required two to kill him. A passenger car, filled with people, tached to a train, caught fire near West Chester; the train was stopped, the pas-sengers rushed out and the car burned to its wheels.

Reading recently purchased a steam road roller, and on Saturday it was removed to permanent quarters amidst throngs of people and vociferous yells of approval of Reading's "Jumbo." The managers of the Schuylkill canal have set workmen to cutting down the trees on the towpath side of that waterway. The reason assigned is that the trees shade the water and make it difficult to steer the crafts.

Mrs. Dora Kohn, thirty-five years old, committed suicide by hanging in the cellar of her residence, 643 Auburn street, Twenty-fifth ward, Philadelphia, at 11 o'clock last night. She had been suffering from melancholy.

Joaquin Bishop who is the only platinum worker in the United States has broken ground and will erect a building at Sugartown, Chester county, to accommodate his business, which has increased so much within the last two years that he finds his present shop too small.

It is rumored that Broch and Rauch, the two escaped prisoners from the Lebanon jail and who are supposed to be concerned in the attempted robbery at Orwigsburg recently, have been several times seen in the streets at Lebanon late at night.

Dr. Dewees, of Fleetwood, Berks county, son of George Dewees, whose body was recently disinterred for examination into the manner of his death, proposes to pro-secute all the parties who have aided in circulating the report that he was con-cerned in the cause of his father's death. A committee composed of members from each of the fire companies at Norristown are hearing reports to take action towards the establishing of an electric system of fire alarms, for the better protection of the lives and property of the In Reading a handsome young servant woman, upon seeing John Teger, who had been paying her attentions, walk off with another woman, took a dose of laudanum with suicidal intentions, and lay down along side of a fence, where she was found unconscious. Proper remedies saved her from death. The Reading Evening News has comu year and useful existence. It is an able and enterprising journal and has won its advanced place among the newspapers of Berks county by a strict conformity to business principles and faithful adherence to the best interests of the community from which it draws support. When the special train containing the Knights of Birmingham, of Philadelphia, visiting Reading, reached Phonixville, blood was seen to be trickling from the roof, and further search revealed the dead body of a man lying on top of the car, his head terribly cut from contact with a bridge. None of the excursionists could identify the body.

Surveyors are at work determining the boundary line between Lehigh and Northampton counties. The work is very tedious and unpleasant, having to pass over hills, through dales, wood sprouts and innumerable rocks. At the hotel of Mrs. Wierbach, in Colesville, near the famous zinc mines, the surveyors rested for a night, some sleeping in Lehigh and the others in Northampton county, the dividing line passing through the bar-

In Westmoreland county, the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Stamp was broken into by three men, masked and disguised so that they could not be recognized. The old lady and her two daughters were bound and gagged. After searching the house the elder daughter was taken and a rope placed around her neck and hauled up to a rafter. About $200 in money was all that was secured. An effort is being made to discover the perpetrators, but thus far it is unsuccessful.

While a boy named Gauntz was crossing a field lying east of Rockville near Harrisburg, he discovered the feet of a man sticking from beneath a quanity of brush. A closer examination revealed the fact that the man was dead. The lad at once went for assistance and the dead man's condition was fully examined. The body was found to be considerably decomposed, and it was with difficulty that it could be handled. A bullet hole was found through the head, the ball having entered one of the eyes. Near the body a revolver, partly loaded, was found, and it is supposed that the man committed suicide. The man was unknown.

Three Supposed Swindlers. In Reading, three richly dressed strangers visited the various banks. At the Farmers' bank they procured a draft for fifty dollars, made payable to a party in New York. Subsequently they came to the bank and had the draft made payable in Philadelphia. At the Second National bank they procured a draft for $26. How many other drafts they procured is not known. They were shadowed at the various banks and sufficient was seen to warrant the police officers arresting two of them at the railread station when they were about leaving. The third man was were about leaving. The third man was not apprehended. The prisoners refuse to give their names or any reference. They were given separate hearings and their stories widely differed. They were committed for a further hearing until the drafts are heard from. There is a suspicion that the drafts may have been raised.

Blasting Accident. A terrible accident occurred about halfpast 12 o'clock yesterday at the extensive limestone quarries of Leinback & Brother at Cedar Hill, about five miles north of Reading, along the river in Bern township, by which two men, named John To bias, superintendent of the quarries, and an assistant, named Henry Binkley, were instantly killed. They were blasting and had made two blasts; a third was being menand when a premature explosion. prepared, when a premature explosion took place, scattering the rock in all directions, striking the two men on the head. Their skulls were mashed to a jelly and the brains and blood were scattered in all parts of the quarry. There were a number of other employes working a short distance from the unfortunate men, who immediately rushed to their assistance, but when picked up life was extinct. Tobias was 37 years of age and leaves a wife and five children. He had been superintendent of these quarries for titute circumstances. He had been employed but one mouth, having come to Ceder Hill from Union Station, where he had been following a similar occuration. leaves a wife and two children in very deshad been following a similar occupation.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 31, 1879. GENTLEMEN—Having been afflicted for a number of years with indigestion and general deblity, by the advice of my doctor I used Hop Bitters, and must say they afforded me almost instant relief. I am glad to be able to testify in their behalf.

MEDICAL.

ANDREW'S AMERICAN QUEEN. CLEOPATRA

OR THE-Queen of Sheba's Beauty.

WAS BUT SKIN DEEP.

The renowned Queen of Sheba, with all her royal pomp, magnificent apparel and brilliant retinue, would never have appeared within the presence of the grandest of the monarchs of the past, had she not also possessed that which is the crowning glory of the female person—a skin unchallenged for its Oriental softness and its transcendental purity. Cleopatra, holding emperors at bay, and ruling empires by her word, had quickly lost her charm and power by one attack of blotches, or of pimples or of horrid tan and freckles.

WOMAN RULES THE WORLD by her beauty, not less than by her purity of character, lovilness of disposition and unselfish devotion. Indeed, in the estimation of perhaps too many men, beauty in a body takes precedence over every other consideration. Beauty thus forms an important part of woman's "working capital," without which too many (it not bankrupts in what relates to influence within the circle where they move), are powerless for great good. Hence we see not only the propriety but the duty of every lady preserving with zealous care that which to her is essential to success and influence and usefulness in life. And, since "beauty is but skin deep," the utmost care and vigilence are required to guard it against the many ills that flesh is heir to. Among the great and annoying enemies of beauty, great and annoying enemies of beauty, OF EITHER SEX, of either sex, as well as of comfort, happiness and health, are those pestiferous and horrid skin diseases —tetters, humors, eczema (salt rheum), rough and scaly eruptions, ulcers, pimples and all diseases of the hair and scalp. For the cure of all these, Dr.C. W. Benson, of Baltimore, after years of patient study and investigation devoted to diseases of the skin, at last brought forth his celebrated SKIN CURE, which has already by its marvelous cures, established itself as the great remedy for all diseases of the skin, whatever be their names or character. Its success has been immense and unparalleled. All druggists have it. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package, Internal and external treatment. Price, $1.00.
