WEONG HITCHED.

What an Esteemed Contemporary Don't Know About Local Politics. The following view of the defeat of Kauffman, from the columns of our esteemed Stalwart contemporary, the Scranton Republican, would sound sweetly in the ears of our local Re-formers if it didn't happen that Mr. Kauffman has been in the Senate but four years instead of eight and that his late unsuccessful canvass was not a break for third term but rather a contest in a clearly defined issue in which Independence got a very black eye from the Republican's Stalwart friends: "Mr. Kauffman has represented his dis trict with credit in the state Senate for eight years, and it is possible that his third-term ambition had as much to do with his defeat as anything else, although the letter of Senator Mitchell doubtless helped to provoke a portion of the popular antagonism which led to the success of his opponent. The people don't take very kindly to those who show a disposition to hold office all their lives, and Mr. Kauffman could well afford to make room for some one else at the close of his second term in the Senate without having to be dred. Of course the cry is raised that Kauffman was beaten by the "machine,"

Because over 5,000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superfor to all other plasters or medicines for external use. but this will hardly hold good in a dis trict where he was nominated four years ago on the same issue by a majority of more than a thousand, and where the people express their preferences at the primaries. It is a pleasure to know that so energetic and promising a young mem-ber as John H. Landis, the author of the bill regulating primary elections, has been renominated for the House of Representatives. He was an ardent supporter of Mr. Grow in the senatorial fight, and was regarded as one of the most carnest, useful and upright members of the last House. The result in Lancaster shows a creditable share of discrimination on the part of the people and a tendency to re-buke dictation, whether it masquerades under the garb of independence or struts in the gaudy panoply of the ma-

Whittier on the Forest Trees. The following letter from Mr. John G Whittier indicates his interest in the subject of forestry : OAE KNOLL, DANVERS, Mass., 4 Mo., 25, 1882. John D. Peaslee:

Mr Dear Friend: I thank thee for the invitation to attend the meeting of the conestry convention in the city of Cincinnati. For many years I have felt a deep interest in the conservation of our for sts and the planting of trees. The wealth, beauty, fertility and healthfulness of the country largely depend upon it. My indignation is yearly aroused by the needless sacrifice of some noble oak or clm, and especially of the white pine, the grandest tree in our woods, which I would not exchange for Oriental palms. My thanks will be due to the public school which is to plant a group of trees in my honor. I could ask no better me morial. I have always admired the good taste of the Sakokis Indians, around Sebago lake, who, when their chief died, dug around a beech tree, swaying it down, and placed his body in the rent. and then let the noble tree fall back into its original place—a green and beautiful monument for the son of the forest. It would give me great pleasure to attend the convention, but my health is not equal to such an effort.

I am, very truly, thy friend, JOHN G. WHITTIER.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 31, 1879. GENTLEMEN—Having been afflicted for a number of years with indigestion and general debility, by the advice of my doctor I used Hop Bitters, and must say they afforded me almost instant relief. I am glad to be able to testify in their behalf.

Thus, G. Knox.

MEDICAL. DENSON'S POROUS PLASTERS.

Back Ache

POSITIVELY CURED BY

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

FIRST.

Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubetacient, stimulating, sedative and counter-irritant effects. SECOND.

Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profes-THIRD. Because they are the only plasters that re lieve pain at once. FOURTH. Because they will positively cure disease which other remedies will not even relieve. FIFTH.

SIXTII. Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.
