TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 9, 1882.

HE WHO DIED AT AZAN. He who died at Azan sends This to comfort all his friends : raithful friends! Rlies, I know, Pale and white and cold as snow; And ye say "Abdallah's dead," Weeping at the feet and head I can see your falling tears, I can hear your sighs and prayers; Yet I smile and whisper this-"I am not the thing you kiss; Cease your tears and let It lie; It was mine, it is not ' I.' " sweet friends! What the women lave For its last bed of the grave is a hut which I am quitting, Is a garment no more fitting, is a cage, from which at last, Like a hawk, my soul hath passed Love the inmate, not the room-The weaver not the garb ; the plume Of the falcon, not the bars Which kept him from the splendid stars.

Loving triends, be wise, and dry Straightway every weeping eye: What ye lift upon the bier Is not worth a wistful tear. 'Tis an empty sea shell—one Out of which the pearl has gone; The shell is broken—it lies there : The pearl, the all, the soul is here. 'Tis an earthen jar whose lid Allah sealed, the while it hid That treasure of his treasury, A mind that loved him; let it lie! Let the shard be earth's once more Since the gold shines in his store!

Allah glorious! Allah good! Now thy world is understood: Now the long, long wonder ends ! Yet ye weep, my erring friends; While the man whom ye call dead, in unspoken bliss instead, Lives and loves you; lost, 'tis true, By such light as shines for you: But in light ye cannot see Of unfilled felicity-In cularging paradisc-Lives a life that never dies. .

Farewell friends! Yet not farewell: Where I am ye too shall dwell. I am gone before your face A moment's time, a little space ; When ye come where I have stepped Ye will wonder why ye wept; Ye will know, by wise love taught, That here is all and there is naught Weep awhile, it ye are fain-Sunshine still must follow rain-Only not at death; for death, Now I know, is that first breath Which our souls draw when we enter Life which is of all life centre

Be ye certain all scems love Viewed from Allah's throne above : Be ye stout of heart and come Brayely onward to your home! La Allah illa Allah! yen! Thou Love divine! Thou Love alway! He that died at Azan gave This to those who made his grave. CAMPAIGN THUNDER.

Republican Ammunition Against Their Prospective Standard Bearer. Assuming that General Beaver will be nominated by the bosses for governor the Philadelphia Chronicle-Herald has this to say about him :

The Republicans have during the past two or three months furnished Democrats with an abundance of the most serviceable ammunition. They have condemned Gen. Beaver out of their own mouths. We have only to call Republicans to testify to his unfitness to fill the place of governor of Pennsylvania.

And what have been some of the principal points in the mass of evidence against him that has been accumulating? That he is not a man of large ability, that his mind has been cramped by a bigoted de-votion to party, that he has but little executive experience, that in a position as manager of a college where such experi-ence was required he woefully failed, that he has a zealous faith in party boss ship, or, as he would call it, leadership, that his whole public career has been bound up with the Camerons, that he has been their obedient dummy on at least three important occasions against the better voice of his party, that he acted a particularly servile part in the third term conspiracy in defiance of the wishes and demands of even his own neighbors, that he has for more than a year since the attempt to foist him on his party as a United States senator broke down, bargained and begged for the great office in which the Stalwarts will labor to place him, that he has never intimated by voice or deed that he was in sympathy with the reforms against professional politicians and spoils-men which the best men of all parties have been crying out for—these form but a faint reflex of the charges which Republicans have advanced against him. A Democratic orator or a Democratic newspaper need not in the course of the coming campaign search any further into the record. In his own party household he has been shown to be a dogged, narrowminded follower of bosses-one of that class of partisans not yet all expired who believe that the worst of Republicaus is infinitely better than the best of Democrats. General Beaver is not a common thief or jobber, but he is one of those intense, bigoted men who are really more dangerous as tools in the hands of expert politicians than the supple fellows who go into public life simply as plunderers.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 31, 1879. GENTLEMEN—Having been afflicted for a number of years with indigestion and general debility, by the advice of my doctor I used Hop Bitters, and must say they afforded me almost instant relief. I am glad to be able to testify in their behalt.

Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:

FIRST. Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter-irritant effects.

SECOND. Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profes-

THIRD. Because they are the only plasters that re-

FOURTH. Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve. FIFTH.

Because over 5,000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are super-ior to all other plasters or medicines for ex-SIXTH, Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.
