

LANCASTER INTELLIGENCER.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 12, 1882.

The Amusement World.

What is going to be the Amusement World for the season? Sarah Bernhardt's husband is a Greek. M. B. Leavitt goes to Europe on May 30.

Low Simmons is said to be managing a base ball club. F. M. Gardner, of Austin, Tex., will put a minstrel company out.

Haverly's Mastodon minstrels are in Cincinnati. Nat Goodwin is said to have made $25,000 this season.

Maggie Mitchell will close the season shortly with $40,000 ahead. C. H. Smith's "Uncle Tom" party are doing well at Haverly's in Philadelphia.

Chas. Schilling, "the Black Limerick," is managing Tony Denier's company. Corp's circus is said to be much smaller than ever and it has but one ring.

Buffalo Bill publishes his receipts for the season as $104,381.75. Dan Sully, the Irish comedian, was recently married to Miss Agnes V. Leavitt.

Harry Cordova, well known here as a circus press agent, is with Nathan & Co.'s show this season. Carnegies' minstrels appear in Coatesville to-night and close the season in Chester to-morrow night.

Gus Williams found that nobody "Wanted a Carpenter," so he went back to "Our German Senator." Edwin E. Price has bought the Lee Avenue Baptist church, in Brooklyn, and he will turn it into a theatre.

Jay Hill's "Uncle Tom" company took $9,000 in one week at the California theatre, San Francisco. Willis Cobb, who has been managing the Big Four combination, has joined Barrett & Co.'s circus.

Nothing has been announced in regard to the company that Carnegross will have next season. On account of sickness E. N. Slocum was not here with Carnegross and the latter had to officiate as interactor.

George H. Adams will put a monster pantomime troupe on the stage next season. He will be clown and his brother James (Pico) pantaloon.

Besides two minstrel companies, Mr. M. B. Leavitt will have a number of strong attractions on the road this coming season. Frank D. Hildreth, the popular agent, who for years managed Tony Denier's pantomime troupe, is now ahead of W. W. Cole's circus.

Mable Cramer, who has been playing in "The Celebrated Case," has returned to New York from St. Louis on account of sickness. Dolbe Silton of the well known family of performers of that name with the Forepaugh show, was struck on the head by the end of a heavy iron wagon in Pittsburgh and was severely injured.

Merphy, Morton, Griffin & Rice, the song and dance men who were with George Thatcher this season, will be members of the San Francisco minstrels the coming season. One of the most successful seasons that Lancaster has ever known will shortly be brought to a close. A large number of combinations have already been booked for next season.

The Troubadours end their season the week of May 14, in Portland. For next season the company will be reorganized and made larger by the addition of several people, so as to have about ten performers, in place of five.

James Benton, an English trio of dancers, singers and comedians, who will make their first appearance in this country. The troupe will be strong in the important matter of quartet-singing, as it is to have two sets, widely differing in style.

W. S. Belknap, basso; and George Gale, and eccentric singing, are the well-known "Clippers Quartet" - Robert McIntyre, F. Ward, P. A. Howard and Geo. Campbell. Eddie Fox will lead the orchestra.

THE HOME JOURNAL. A Remarkable Discovery. A REAL SKIN CURE. THERE IS ONLY ONE AND THAT WITH SIMPLE NAME.

Beware of impostors, pirates, or any old articles which may suddenly claim to be best. They have been tried and found wanting, while this has been proved a remarkable success. NO POMPOUS NAME.

RELIEF FOR ALL OVERWORKED BRAINS CAUSE AND CURE. Dr. C. W. Benson's Colony and Chloromite Pills are valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of the public, that now endeavor to keep their heads above water by advertising themselves as "Brain Cure." Some are genuine and reliable, except Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure. Each package and bottle bears his likeness. Buy and use external remedy, two bottles in one package. Price $1.00, get at your druggist.

THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE, Philadelphia, will be occupied next season by a minstrel company, which will include the following people among its members: Sam Price, Billy Chase, Billy Arlington, Billy Contralt, Johnson & Powers, D. R. Hawkins and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Chanfrau are resting at Long Branch after their long and somewhat arduous season. Mr. Taylor has persuaded them to play a summer engagement in the British Provinces, and they start out in a couple of weeks, to be gone about a month.

Viola Clifton, the well known character actress, who was one of the finest looking women on the stage, is lying very ill at the Mount Brook hotel, Philadelphia. It was feared that one of her legs would have to be amputated, but that will not be necessary. She is without means, but a benefit will be given her at the Philadelphia theatre shortly. She is the wife of Billy Lester, of Lester & Allen, comedians.

At the beginning of this season G. H. Adams, the king of clowns, concluded to start a pantomime company of his own. The result is that he has cleared $20,000 already this season. Mr. Adams will bring his company to this city on Saturday of next week and as it will be the last pantomime show of the season they will have a big house. They jump from Altoona to this city. The season will close in Brooklyn the beginning of June and Mr. Adams will summer with his family at New Brunswick, N. J.

George Thatcher and Primrose and West will form a partnership in the minstrel business next season. The troupe will include Hughley Dougherty, George Edwards, G. H. Primrose, Geo. Thatcher and eight others on the ends. Engagements have been made with the Rock Shipyard, Frank McNish, Charley Queen, Barney Fagan, Howe and Bell, Diamond Bros., Frank Howard, Will Raymond, W. F. Holmes, J. J. Kelly, Eugene Martin, Carl Watzman, and two others, forming a double quartet. They will have no regular opera house but will travel.

The Chicago correspondent of the Dramatic Times says "Poor John S. Sullivan was taken from the Mercy hospital here, Monday, and the remains were sent on to Boston, where the funeral took place, Wednesday. The sisters of Mercy conducted the service here, and though the town was full of theatrical people at the time, the only attendants were James H. Meade, R. M. Hooley, Charles B. Clayton, and Robert McVado and Frank Clynes. Not a flower was sent in, and the expenses were paid by the act. fund. When Harry Crisp died here hosts of friends came forward and sent in money and flowers. Crisp was quite well-to-do. At Sullivan's funeral only five friends attended. No money nor flowers were sent in. Sullivan was penniless. Such is the consistency of the profession."

Barlow and Wilson will have the strongest minstrel company the coming year that they ever had. Primrose and West will leave them but their places have been supplied by good men. Among the noted performers who are to make up this troupe are M. G. Barlow and Geo. Wilson, Luke Schenck and Geo. Coes, Happy Cal Wagner, Naomi the juggler, John Fenton and John Williams, clog-dancers; Stoneback and Lewis, pedestal-dancers; Gallagher and West, acrobatic song and dance; Williams and Morton, character-dancers; John Cramer, the song-and-dance man; and John Fletcher, A. Marsh, and
