A PLEASANT TIME.

Cumberland Valley Editorial Excursion. EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: Being temporarily out of harness, I beg the aid of your columns for the purpose of bringing tendering the thanks of the Cumberland Valley Editorial Association to the railroad companies and other parties for the interest they manifested in helping to make the second annual excursion of the association the success it proved to be.

TO GENERAL BOYD, superintendent Cumberland Valley railroad, Col. George B. Westling, of the Mont Alto railroad and park, Mr. A. L. Gardner, train master Western Maryland railroad, and the officers and employees of the Baltimore & Ohio & Shenandoah Valley railroad companies, as well as those of the other companies, the association makes its most profound acknowledgements for their many courtesies. Nothing it asked for was not granted, and everything was done to contribute to the comfort and pleasure of the association and its guests.

To the citizens of Martinsburg and Charlestown, W. Va., we feel under obligations which can hardly ever be repaid. The trip did much to cement the friendship fast growing up between those who twenty years ago were arrayed in deadly warfare. The Angel of Peace has spread his white wings, and God grant that the ties and associations formed on our rec trip may never be severed. To Hon. Charles J. Faulkner and his son, Charles J. Jr., and other citizens of Martinsburg, and to Mr. J. Ed. Duke, Mr. George W. Haines, the Gallahers, father and sons, of Charlestown, I feel myself incapable of expressing sufficient gratitude. Friends, come to Pennsylvania, and let us return the compliments by showing just how Cumberland Valley gratitude means and what hospitality is.

Finally, I desire to thank Messrs. D. K. Wagner, R. H. Thomas and Alfred H. Adams, the executive committee, for the efficient manner in which they discharged their onerous and thankless duties. With such a committee, any association is bound to be successful in anything it undertakes to do.

AL. RED SANDERSON, President.

HARRISBURG, May 15, 1882.

Household Market. The markets were largely attended by purchasers today and the general complaint was that prices of marketing are too high. With wheat selling at 2 cents per pound, chickens at 14¢ per pair, new potatoes 40 cents per bushel, and other things at correspondingly high figures, poor people, working for low wages have a hard time to make both ends meet. We quote as follows:

- Butter 1/2 lb. 12¢
Eggs 1/2 doz. 12¢
Cup cheese 3¢
Graft cheese 3¢
Dutch cheese 1/2 lb. 12¢
