ast evening at 7:45. Rev. J. R. Carvell, of Mechanicsburg, was elected president; Rev. M. Foose, also of Mechanicsburg, being secretary pro tem. The room is very handsomely decorated. The pastor of the church, Rev. H. Esterline delivered the address of welcome. It was replied to by Rev. J. N. Carvell. The following committees were appointed : Permanent organization, on resolutions and on enrol. ment. All Columbia ministers, Sanday school superintendents and Sunday School workers were elected advisory members of this convention. The convention will occupy several days of this week, and up-wards of 150 delegates will be present.

welcome to attend. Killed by the Cars at Chickies

The services are of the most interesting

This morning at 2 o'clock a man was thrown from a freight train at Chickies and instantly killed. The particulars of the sad affair, together with what is known of the victim of the accident, as gathered from a companion of his are as follows: The man's name is Authory Orloff, but he goes under that of Wilson, the former being his Danish name. He is a native of Denmark, and came to this country about 12 years ago. Of late he has been working at Steelten, near Harrisburg. Last night he and Richard McManimar, the rel2tor of these facts, were in Harrisburg, and jumped on a freight train to take a trip. As it was passing Chickies station, the car gave a lurch, and Orloff or Wilson lost his scating on the bumper and fell between the wheels of the ear. Both legs and arms were revered from the body, and the back of the head crushed. The remains were brought to Columbia and taken in charge by Mr. A Musser, undertaker. Squire Frank, deputy coroner, held an inquest to-day, and a verdiet in accordance with the above facts was rendered. Deceased, who is about 35 years of age, will be buried at the expence of the county. The only known relative he has in this country is a cousin named Nelson, who is weigh loss at the Nanticoke coal been achieved at Chicago had not been borne out by the present administration.

In all that the movement meant that had pleased Garfield in the president's chair pleased Garfield in the president's chair the speaker had sympathized. He trusted that the Republicans present were assem. bled to see what they could do to manumit the Republican party, to protest against the methods by which it had been managed, and to say to the people of this country by the voice of a body actuated by a desire for the good of the republic that the party shall rid itself of its barnacles and of all the murky, corrupt atmosphere by which she had been surrounded. [Ap-plause]; to show that the Republican party was a progressive party, composed of free thinking men, and one that cannot be run as a railroad train and controlled by engineers in the paid political employment of any man. Through the press the speaker's views had come to be pretty well known. The press is a glorious thing in its influences for the right. He saw many young men of the profession before him, and he would say to them, "For God's sake never accept an office if it was to be accepted as a price of principles." [Ap-olause.] In conclusion Senator Mitchell said he wanted to be counted in earnest, active sympathy with this movement, which comised so much for the people, qualifying it by the remark that he who has the duties of a United States senator to perform, has as much to do as any one man

The temporary organization was completed by the appointment of Thomas W. Phillips and Phillip Garrett as vice presidents and Frank W. Leach, Fred. Bache, H. S. Ames and Alan H. Dickson as secrea want of intellectual breadth which dis-appointed those who had calculated on his called. When the name of Charles S. Wolfe was called by the secretary it elicited such cordial and protracted applause that Senator Mitchell requested Mr. Wolfe to come forward. Mr. Wolfe, in response, from obligation to support the nominees arose in his place, and after bowing to the chair and to the convention said : " Mr. president and gentlemen of the conven-tion, I am here."
