THE CONVICTS STILL AT LARGE.

Burkholder's Unsuccessful Search After Them. Nine of the ten convicts who escaped from the Lancaster county prison on Wednesday, are still at large. Yesterday at 11 o'clock Prison Keeper Burkholder and Offi cer Gill drove down to the lower end of the county in search of them, it appearing that at least five of them had been seen in that section. They drove first to Pequea valley, making careful inquiries as they went along. Hearing that a party of three suspicious looking characters had been seen at Rawlinsville they drove over to that place, where they learned that the supposed convicts had slept in an open school house a few miles off on Wednesday night, and on Thursday had visited Rawlinsville and made some purchases at the store. From descriptions given of them it is believed they were John Frankford, John Lippincott and Geo McAlpir On Thursday morning they stopped at John Markins, and asked to be directed to the residence of Charles Dostman's (who was ascertained to be a brother-in-law of John Frankford.) It was also ascertained that the three men had staid all Thursday at Charlie's and left for McCall's ferry at 10 on Thursday night at which time they went to McCall's, stole a boat (probably) and crossed the river, as the boat was found abandoned on the opposite side of the river. Burkholder and Gill called at Charlie's and found the family in great trepedation. This morning they heard that other suspicious persons were seen between New Providence and Union and drove over in that direction. They learned that two men dressed somewhat like prisoners had slept in Jos. Martin's barn Thursday night and were seen by Mr. Martin in the morning. They are believed to have been the Buzzards. They also learned that a horse, harness and new wagon belonging to Wm. Breneman, who lives on the road leading from Rawlinsville to Hickory Grove, was stolen last night from the stable—probably for the purpose of carrying the disabled Buzzards out of harm's way, but they could get no trace of the thieves, Mr. Burkholder and Gill, being pretty well used up, then returned to this city, arriving about noon

Disorderly Conduct. People residing in the vicinity of the junction of East King, Middle and John streets, complain that a gang of drunken rowdies assemble in that neighborhood almost every night, insult respectable passers-by and greatly disturb and annoy the neighborhood. Last night guns and pistols were discharged, stones and brickbats were thrown, threats were made and much obscene and profane language was uttered. The police should make a raid on the gang and put a stop to their orgies.

He says: "In the fall of 18761 was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said 1 had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expend-ed over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead, I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. SATURDAY:

It is a singularly good time to buy ladies' summer dress. Perhaps we never had so many things below value as now neither so good, nor so many nor so much below. To judge by these incidents, one would think we were in the midst of a financial panic. The most seasonable and fashionable dress-goods at half to three-quarters! And yet there is no panic.

at 80 cents a yard; and a very good silk it is. The maker can't make it for the money; and so we can't sell it for the money, except now and then. Next-outer circle, southeast from centre.

Melange dress-goods are mottled colors. French melanges are of fine wool, and of so nearly plain color that they have a one-color effect: but when looked at color effect; but when lookedat supporting the tieket at his second convention that the regular Republican convention closely they betray a good many shall be reconvened within the next fifteen colors sometimes, coarsely mottled, not mixed.

Nothing is more sought for this season than French me-

And yet we have a whole stock of them at two-thirds value; as many as fifty color-effects; five qualities, and five prices, 40, 45, 50, 65 and 75 cents; 42 inches wide. These have stopped the sale of all the other fine melances we have.

this morning were Charles Cramp, representing the great ship builders of Philadelphia; Mr. Joseph Patterson; President Cumming, of the Girard bank; Henry M. Phillips; State Senator A. Wilson Norris; Hamilton Disston; Jas. Dobson; E. C. Knight, and Col. A. Louden Snowden, of the mint.

Chairman Cooper called during the morning; also William Henry Rawle, esq., candidate for supreme judge.

Third circle, southeast from centre. The finest embroideries for dresses we ever heard of are these in black grenadine, byzan- party. The success of the ticket, he tine and cashmere, lately come from Paris. We have others less fine, of course.

Next-outer circle, southwest from centre Black plaid organdies, 371/2 cents; variety of plaids. Everybody knows how they look. Plain all-silk grenadines at $1.25 that we have sold large quantities of for three years at $2. That's better than saying they are worth $2. They are as good as ever.

want to kill the party we will all go to destruction together" was the significant warning of the senator. He assured his visitors that he was working simply for the good of his party; that he had nothing more to seek for himself than he had already realized, and that henceforth he had no other desire than to serve the best interests of his state and country.

Next-outer circle, southwest from centre.

Cardinal dots and figures on navy-blue nun's veiling and serge make one of the prettiest and richest garnitures to be seen now. It is combined with plain navy-blue. A little below value; writ of habeas corpus.

President Arthur remained at his Lexbut perhaps not enough to mention.

Third circle, southeast from centre. Had we better mention 35cent flannel at 25 cents again? Do you care about saving 10 cents a yard? Half the colors are gone out of 18,000 yards.

Outer circle, northeast from centre. Silk-and-wool pongees for dresses and dusters; two qualities differing in appearance also;

371/2 and 45 cents.

Third circle, Thirteenth-street entrance. Sateens continue splendid beyond telling. Wonderful! and they are more wonderful to see, hundreds of them together, than you can believe, without seeing. 50 cents a yard, most of them; some higher.

Other French printed cottons are apt to get slighted. They are only less bright; and cost of work, but the factory will be rebuilt

GEO. CONLY DROWNED

A POPULAR BASSO'S FATE,

I'wo Members of Kellogg's Troupo Meet a Sad Death. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 27 .- A special dispatch from Battleboro, Vt., to the Union says : George A. Conly, the wellknown basso, and Herman Rietzel, the pianist of the Clara Louise Kellogg concert company, were drowned in Lake Spofferd, at Chesterfield, N.H., yesterday. Lake Spofferd is about nine miles from Battleboro and quite a favorite summer resort. The concert company was booked for Rutland, Vt., for Thursday evening, but failed to make railroad connections and was obliged to remain at Brattleboro over night. The company was to have sung American black gros-grain silk at Burlington on Friday evening, at Brattleboro this evening. The parties drowned were fishing. Their bodies had not been recovered at the last accounts, and a large force was dragging the lake.
