The Cisterns of Old Carthage.

The Land of the Dead, by T. W. Reid. Stumbling over the broken blocks of masonry, among which the lizards, sole inhabitants of the city, were running swiftly, I walked a short distance past the site of Dido's palace, and came to the place where the only extensive remains of the greatness of Carthage are to be found.

These are the cisterns which once furnished a portion of the water supply of the city. Just as Professor Owen can reconstruct an extinct animal if only a single bone of its skeleton has been preserved, so it is an easy matter for those who have seen these wonderful cisterns to form an approximate idea of the grandeur of the city to which they belonged.

They are vast subterranean structures, with heavy vaulted roofs, intended to shut out from the cool water in the mighty tanks the heat of the African sun. But time has made many a breach in these great arches, and the light of day in consequence streams in upon corridors and chambers which 1500 years ago were justly shrouded in midnight gloom.

Some of the cisterns are circular in shape and look like nothing so much as enormous wells; the majority, however, are of oblong form. In every case the masonry is of the most substantial description, showing how well the Phoenicians did their work. Even more remarkable, however, than the quality of the masonry is that of the lining of cement upon the walls of the cisterns.

It is as perfect to-day as on the day—probably more than 2,000 years—when it was spread upon these walls. The very marks of the trowels used in spreading it are quite distinct, and here and there may be seen the coarse imprint of some workman's thumb—a sight to ponder over at one's leisure. I had a strange "eerie" feeling upon me as I tread the long covered corridors that runs the length of the whole series of cisterns, and thought of the time when above where I now walked the tumultuous life of a great city had rolled in its majestic fulness of power.

Most of the cisterns were half filled with rubbish that had fallen when the arches of the roof gave way but presently I came to some which seemed to be comparatively little injured, and at last to one that—so far as I could tell—was as perfect as on the day when the Phoenicians worked the cool water for the first time allowed to flow into it. It was a beautiful, dimly-lighted chamber, with walls and roof of fine white and clear, and it contained pure crystal water to the depth of five or six feet. So bright and refreshing was the water, so delightful the contrast which this cool, shady apartment presented to the burning heat and glare outside that I looked about to see if there were any means by which I could descend and bathe in this vast tank. None, however, were visible, and after a while I had to leave the arched corridor and return to the blaze of the sunshine.

AN OLD LADY writes:—There is a person living who ever saw a case of acute biliousness, nervousness, or headache, or any disease of the stomach, liver, or kidneys, that Hop Bitters will not cure? Hop Bitters will cure it.

AN OLD LADY writes:—I am 63 years old and was feeble and nervous all the time, when I bought a bottle of Parker's Kidney Pills. I have used little more than one bottle and feel as well as at 30. See other column.

AN OLD LADY writes:—I have been over a year subject to serious disorder of the kidneys, and often unable to attend to business. I procured your Parker's Kidney Pills and was relieved before half a bottle was used. I intend to continue, as I feel confident that they will entirely cure me. Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

MEDICAL.

The Home Journal.

A Remarkable Discovery.

A REAL SKIN CURE. THERE IS ONLY ONE AND THAT WITH SIMPLE NAME.

Beware of impostors, pirates, or any old articles which now suddenly claim to be best. They have been tried and found wanting, while this has been proved a remarkable success.

NO POMPOUS NAME. This curative needs no pompous or incongruous title of Greek or Latin to sustain it, but its simple English name appeals to the common sense of the people.

Dr. C. W. Benson has long been well known as a successful physician and surgeon and his life's study has been the diseases of the nervous system and of the skin; since he has been persuaded to put his New Remedy and its merits before the public, he has been assiduously manifesting their appreciation of its frankness by selecting and using Dr. Benson's SKIN CURE in preference to all other professed remedies.

Dr. C. W. Benson's Oculary and Chamomile Pills are valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all cases of hard brain workers whose overtasked nervous centres need repair and sedation. Nervous tremor, weakness and paralysis are being daily cured by these pills. They correct costiveness, but are not purgative. Price, 50c. or six boxes for $2.50, postage free, to any address. For sale by all druggists. Depot, Baltimore, Md., where the doctor can be addressed. Letters of inquiry freely answered.

C. N. CHRISTENTON, New York, is wholesale agent for Dr. C. W. Benson's remedies.

IF YOU ARE A MAN OF BUSINESS. I am weakened by the strain of my duties, and sit at my desk with aching head and aching nerves. If you are a man of letters, toiling over your pen, or a man of business, toiling over your pen, or a man of letters, toiling over your pen, or a man of business, toiling over your pen.

Whoever you are, whenever you feel that your system needs cleansing, toning and invigorating, without intoxicating, take HOP BITTERS. Thousands die annually from some form of BILIOUSNESS that might have been prevented by a timely use of HOP BITTERS.

Hop Bitters Never Fail. Have Dyspepsia, Indigestion, or Urinary Complaint, Disease of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver, or Nerves, you will be cured if you use HOP BITTERS.

IF YOU ARE AN ABSOLUTE AND IRRESISTIBLE CURER OF DRUNKENNESS, USE OF OPTIC, TOBACCO AND SMOKE. Hop Bitters will cure it.

READ THIS. THE KIDNEY PILLS OF DR. C. W. BENSON. It gives me much pleasure to say that after using your PILLS I HAVE BEEN ENTIRELY CURED OF A SEVERE PAIN IN MY BACK AND SIDE, OF LONG STANDING, AND THAT I FEEL AS WELL AS AT 30.
