WANAMAKER & BROWN, OAK HALL.

UPSET SALE.

WANAMAKER & BROWN.

Began Yesterday, June 1.

Scotch people and old-time folks all know what is the meaning of "upset sale." It is a term used when things are to be sold out to close estates, partnerships or corporations.

We propose a sale of this nature. The prosperous season so far this year, the largest we ever had, encourages us to Ring All the Bells!

and call the people in to close out, before the 4th of July, all of the Men's and Boys' Clothing.

We Want to Sell Out to make purchases for fall.

We Want to Sell Out to keep plenty work going.

We Want to Sell Out to make some changes.

We Want to Sell Out to start again with a new stock.

We Want to Sell Out to do a larger business than ever:

Nothing stops us in executing right plans, and if the prices must be cut down to gather the people,

Down go the Prices.

The people have treated us generously for many years, and we are satisfied, even though we do sacrifice our profits for a month.

IN A NUT-SHELL, THIS IS IT.

The practical point of all this is a radical reduction in prices from June 1. They are cut, some ten, some twenty, some thirty per cent., and some, on goods prepared specially for this sale, not at all. Compared with April 1, the average deduction is twenty-five per cent. From the great list which might be made we only quote three items to-day, namely:

3,000 pairs of Men's Cassimere Pantaloons, made and making, strong, neat, durable, lately worth $3.50.

600 Men's Suits, real standard Sawyer's Cassimere, made and making, late price $15.00 now $12.50.

750 Men's Suits, eight styles, every garment freshly made, some of them sold freely at $12.00 now $9.25.

These are only specimens of the reductions. Our great desire is to get the people to examine to the goods and see the reality of the reductions.

THOUSANDS OF MEN OUT OF WORK. Thirty Iron Mills Closed in Pittsburgh-

Twenty Thousand Workmen Become Consumers Instead of Producers-The Strikers Orderly, but Prepared for the Struggle.

Pittsburgh Dispatch to the Times. The great strike of the iron workers was inaugurated yesterday. Twenty thousand men and boys who yesterday added to the wealth of the community by good, honest wealth of the community by good, honest work are to-day idle consumers. Yesterday this vast aimy of producers earned fully $80,000. To-day they squandered part of it. A strange stillness prevails throughout the city. Clouds of impenetrable smoke no longer hang over the town. The strike brushed them away as if by magic, leaving a clear sky and bright sunlight rarely witnessed in Pittsburgh. All the thirty odd iron mills in the two cities are idle with one single exception, the Union iron works of Carnegie Brothers & Co. Thousands of workmen, arrayed in their best clothes, were all day long parading the streets, talking, laugh. long parading the streets, talking, laughing and spending their money. The strikers are quiet and orderly. They have the sympathy of the public and will commit no breach of the peace, unless goaded the defendant to bail pending the disposition of the peace, unless goaded the description of the motion or send him to prison, and the description of the motion or send him to prison, and the description of the motion or send him to prison, and the description of the motion or send him to prison, and the description of the motion or send him to prison, and the description of the motion or send him to prison, and the description of the motion or send him to prison, and the description of the motion o until it gains the victory. The Strike Probably a Short One. Very few persons think the strike will last long. The manufacturers cannot very well afford a prolonged period of idleness. It would bring disaster to their business and result in driving trade to other localities are was the case with pails a few recommendation. and result in driving trade to other locali-ties, as was the case with nails a few years ago. Wheeling secured the bulk of the nail trade while Pittsburgh manufacturers were resisting a demand of their employes for a trifling advance. The strikers are a well-organized, compact body of men, thoroughly prepared for the struggle. Manufacturers, on the other hand all Manufacturers, on the other hand, al-though sustained by the cohesive power of millions of capital, are far less cohesive than their opponents and they already show signs of weakness. The Union Iron works of Pittsburgh, Union iron works of works of l'ittsburgh, Union iron works of Cleveland, Forest City iron works of the same place, and the Whitaker iron works of Wheeling have all signed the new scales granting the advance. The Norton iron works of Ashland, Ky., and the Lawrence iron works of Fonton, Ohio, are also running at the strikers' prices, but they haven't signed the scales.

each expresses a determination to fight

The Steef Works Still Running. The steel works here are all running, several of them having signed the scales, sure the new scales should be demanded and President Jarrett will go there shortly to investigate. The Cincinnati boilers are disposed to break the engagement they made some months ago with the employers, to continue work at the old rates till the troubles are settled at Pittsburgh. The Amalgamated association has a clean record. President Jarrett will meet with METZGER & HAUGHMAN'S the Cincinnati lédges on Saturday night to show the boilers their mistake, urge them to keep faith with the employers, and so the mills in Cincinnati district may be expected to resume next week.

Closely following upon the heels of the strike of the iron-workers comes the movement of the railroads centering here to offset the reduction of their business by erts was an adept in the art of corruption, discharging large numbers of their employees. The Pennsylvania railroad comployees. The Pennsylvania railroad com-pany has turned 1,500 of their men adrift pany has turned 1,500 of their men adrift and the Panhandle company has notified several hundred of their people that their services are no longer required. The total dismissals by these two corporations to date number over 1,700, with more to fol-low. The alleged cause for this wholesale decapitation is the falling off in freight and passenger traffic.

CHAMBERS CONVICTED.

He Pays a Fine of $1,000 for Sending the Mantrop Interview to the "Heraid."

Senator McPherson's criminal suit for libel against Julius Chambers, the Phila-delphia correspondent of the New York Herald, came on for trial yesterday before Judge Biddle. Mr. Chambers was defended by John Townshend, of New York, whose work on libel and slander is regarded as an-authority, and by Rufus E. Shapley. The commonwealth was represented by Assistant District Attorney Warwick and James II. Heverin. The elegant and Munchausen-like James B.
Mantrop, the publication of whose assertions regarding Senator McPherson's alleged connection with the Peruvian guano claims company was the cause of comon hand if required to testify. Senator McPherson testified that he had never got in "on the ground floor" in the never got in "on the ground floor" in the Peruvian conpany, as the interview in the Herald alleged, and had never been in any way connected with it. Mr Chambers testified that in April last he had received a letter from his home office enclosing a note from Mantrop to Perry Bolmont, offering to make a disclosure of the details of the guano claims. Mr. Chambers, by the letter received, was directed to interview Mantrop. He did so, and sent the report to New York, not knowing whether it was to be printed or not. An whether it was to be printed or not. An offer to show that when Mr. Chambers tions was to have it used at the investiga-tion in Washington was overruled.

Mr. Shapley in his argument said that he had refused to take advantage of tech-nicalities and allowed the case to come to trial to give Senator McPherson an oppor-tunity to sail for Europe on Saturday, as the senator desired. He contended that it was not sufficient for the jury to believe-that injustice had been done to Senator that injustice had been done to Senator McPherson, but they must be satisfied that Mr. Chambers had been guilty of the crime of wilfully and maliciously publishing a false and defamatory libel. He held also that the Peruvian company had never been proved a fraud, and that consequently the substance complained of was not li-bellous. He did not think that criminal courts existed to afford supersensitive sena tors opportunities for revenge.

The judge in his charge to the jury said: "It is admitted that the article was published in the New York Herald and that it is false. From this admission, therefore, you have a right to infer that it was malicious, because malice is not merely illwill against a person, but it is in law any out cause or excuse. Any malicious publication injurious to the reputation of another is a libel. But it is contended that the sense attributed to this article is not pre-eminently the judges to decide the question as to whether the meaning of this publication and it is established that it was published without negligence and without malice a criminal prosecution cannot be maintained for such publication.

Sentiment against them. Speculation as be adequate to the offense." After consultant running from two to ten yards, at 10 cents a yard, fendant sent to jail. Mr. Shapley then withdrew the motion for a new trial. The judge in entering judgment said that he acquiesced in the wisdom of not sending the defendant to prison. The case, he said, was one that did not call for very severe punishment. Mr. Chambers, he said, had not made an uncalled-for publication, but had acted under the orders of of his principal. Mr. Chambers had been misled. In any matter, however, the judge said, touching the reputation of such an official as a United States senator, the most thorough examination should be made before publishing it. He imposed a fine of one thousand dollars on the defendant. The money was immediately paid.

SENATOR ROBERTS INDICTED.

The Torpedo Statesman Charged With Corrupt Employment of Money.

Patrick C. Boyle, editor of the Oil Echo, published at Richburg, New York, who ing. Boyle has been notified of the action taken and will be called on to substantiate suits he has started against Boyle and several other identified with the publication of the Oil Echo. That paper contained a number of articles defamatory of the senator's character. One declared that the Roberts fortune had been built upon a bribery and perjury in the highest courts

Pennsylvania. The paper also declared that all opinions favorable to the Roberts torpedo were bought and paid for. The following is an extract from one of the Echo editorials : "There are individuals operating here in this field who, when they were in Butler, Venango, Clarion and Armstrong counties, Pennsylvania, were repeatedly dragged to Pittsburgh to dance attendance on a venal court and at last forced to contribute thousands of dollars of their honestly earned money to feed the monop-oly which had fastened itself upon them by means of perjury and unjust decisions bought and paid for out of the stealings." In consequence of these aspersions of his character Senator Roberts proceeded against Boyle and his newspaper associates in the circuit court of the United States for the Northern district of New York, in a suit for damages amounting to $50,000. He also made information against the same parties in McKean county for libel and true bills have been found against them. Roberts' friends claim that the suit against him was projected for a double purpose-to lessen his chances for attaining the nomination for Congress in the Crawford district and to induce him to abandon the proceedings which he has instituted against the publishers of the Oil Echo. The senator has indicated that no pressure can be brought to bear on him causing a withdrawal of the suit for damages. Boyle stated that among the counsel engaged to represent him in the case against Roberts is General Benjamin F. Butler, and that the number of his witnesses at the anticipated trial would
