COLUMBIA NEWS.

REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Events Along the Susquehanna-Hems of interest in and Around the Borough

Picked Up by the Intelligencers Reporter. A reduction of wages has taken place at the Susquehanna rolling mill. Mr. Sainuel McClure, of Wilkesbarre, is visiting friends on Cherry street.

The front of L. W. May's new store will be one of the handsomest in the town when finished. Excavations are now being made for laying the siding, to connect the stone works, with the Pennsylvania railroad.

Considerable painting is being done on Walnut street. Several residences are brightened by having the exterior painted. Miss Mattie Givens, who has been at-tending a course of instruction at the academy of design, in Philadelphia, has returned to her home in this place. Mrs. J. B. Dobbins, of Reading, is the guest of the family of Mr. Cyrus Bruner, on South 3d street. An interesting session of the classes of the Reformed church was held last evening in the Reformed church, corner of Cherry and 3d streets. These meetings are open to the public. Mr. John E. Brown, aged 73 years, an old resident of Columbia, died at his residence on Walnut street, yesterday after noon, at 3 o'clock. Some time ago Mr. Brown was stricken with paralysis, and death has finally ended his sufferings.

A horse belonging to a gentleman from and his bead was badly cut. The animal was stopped on South Third street. The carriage was broken and the harness torn in several places.

Mr. A. M. Reece will occupy the building adjoining Fondersmith's dry goods store, on Locust street, as a first-class restaurant. Columbia has long felt the need of such a place, and Mr. Reece will no doubt soon establish a good business, especially as he is so well and favorably known, having been the last two years engaged in the sewing machine business

Both Legs Off, Mr. Lewis Albaugh, the brakeman who soon as he can use them, and will furnish money to him to engage in the eigar and tobacco business.

Swimming for a Boat. Cooper's Island seems destined to be come prominent this summer by the number of accidents occurring there. Theedore Wills, Richard Smith and Charles Denmore went out near the island this morning to fish. The boat was pulled on to a rock and the sport had only been in progress about an hour, when one of the party turning his head, saw the boat already several yards off from the rock him with the luxuries of home life. and floating away, the current having tation Wills stripped, plunged into remarkable teats of railway building, a disthe boat. He had almost reached it when he was seized with the cramp, and it was only by the most painful efforts that he finally succeeded in gaining the boat. The boat drifted almost down to the bridge before he was sufficiently recovered to row it back to his companions, who had remained horror stricken spectators of their companion's peril without the power to assist him.

High School Alumni The alumni of the Columbia high school met last evening in Cookman's chapel. The exercises opened at 8:15 and closed at 10:10. They were of a very interesting character. The following is the programme of the evening : Opening address, Miss Lillie Welsh; music, "Voices of Freedom," by a male quartet; reading of minutes of last meeting, by the secretary, Miss Mazio Nolen; election of members active and honorary; report of treasurer; report of committee on nominations; election of officers; new business; music, instrumental, by Miss Dehuft and Messrs. Musser and Saurber. Report of special committee, 1st Miss Lillie Stevenson; chairman, 2d, Miss Jennie Bachman, chair man; history of class of '73, by Miss Lillie Welsh; history of class of 75, by Miss Miss Mazie Nolen; music, vocal solo, "Not a sparrow falleth" by Mrs. Ed. Eckman; address, by Prof. Amce; music, Octette, The Moonlight Dance; history of class of 275. of '75, Mr. Upp; history of class of '76, by Miss Beckie Saurber; music, organ solo, by Miss Carrie Ames; recitation, "The Maiden Martyr," Miss Annie Saurber; music, vacal, Auld Lang Syne, Octette. A vote of thanks for use of the chapel and to those persons not members of the alumni who assisted in the exercises was given and the meeting closed

The Commencement Exercises. The morning exercises of the graduating class of the high school were held in the high school to-day, commencing at 10 a. m., by prayer by the Rev. Evans, of the E. E. Lutheran church, followed by music by the school. The Saturday essay was delivered by Mr. Max Hanauer, and was ereditable to the young graduate. Miss Lillian Steinheiser laid down some truths on "Borrowing." habitual borrowers were present their cheeks must have tingled. Music by the school followed Miss Steinheiser's essay. "The Class History," an amusing essay, was delivered by Miss Caroline Wills. Miss Catharine Patterson dilated on the subject, "How shall we attain true success." Miss Patterson is the first colored graduate of the Columbia high school. Music by the school fol-lowed the last essay. Miss Emily Meyers Oberlin exposed the peculiarities of "Xantippe," wife of Socrates. The essayist believed that the wife of the great ancient finds many counterparts in the present day. The men also of the present day did not escape a comparison to the careles Socrates, in regard to providing for their families. The recitation of "The Leper," by Miss Amy Crownshield, was very creditable to the lady. It was followed by music. An amusing "Class Prophecy" was given by Miss Adelaide Gyger. An interesting essay entitled "A Loaf of Bread," by Miss Janet Fobes, followed by music, closed the exercises of the morning at 11:30 o'elock.

The Incendiary Charges.

Last evening Alexander Lemon, who set fire to Marck's tobacco shed, was to have had a hearing before Alderman A. F. Donnelly. By advice of his counsel, B. F. Eshleman, esq., he waived a hearing and in default of $2,000 was committed to answer at court.

Alderman Barr's jury of inquisitors will meet to-morrow at 7:30 p. m. to inquire into the circumstances of the same fire. On Tuesday evening next Alderman Donnelly will hear the complaint preferred against Detective Michael Schaller.

Descrivedly Popular. It is only a few days since the news flashed over the wires announcing the laying of the last rail on the Denver extension of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, and the reception it has met at the hands of press and people seems a fair criterion of the immense popularity justly enjoyed by this giant corporation. This wondrous popularity of the Great Burlington Route has been fairly earned and acquired, and in the record of railway progress and improvement during the past fifteen years, it stands at the head. ANOTHER EFFORT.

Guiteau's Counsel Applies for a Kehearing WASHINGTON, June 2.-Chas H. Reed, counsel for Guiteau, to-day presented a petition to the district court in general erm, asking for a rehearing of the case of his client. The application is upon purely technical grounds and embodies liberal citations from the official record of the trial. Judge Cartter said a decision would be rendered upon the petition as soon as the judges could consult upon it, probably to-morrow morning. Judge Hagner was not present to-day. Under the rules of practise of the court, motions for rehearing are submitted to all the judges who were present at the argument.
