THIRD EDITION. SHURDAY EVENING, JUNE 3, 1882. LABOR'S BIG FIGHT. THE UPSURGING OF THE IRON WORKERS. No Change in the Situation at Chicago but Prospect of a Split in the Question of Resigning. CHICAGO, June 3.—The situation at Ironville is practically unchanged this morning. The men will hold a secret meeting this afternoon to take action upon a telegram alleged to have been received from President Jarrett, advising the men to use their own judgment as to whether they stay cut any longer or not. There is a strong feeling here that it is advisable to continue work until the 15th or while the committee at Pittsburgh is conferring with the manufacturers.

PHILADELPHIA, June 3.—Information received here to day is to the effect that no disturbance has occurred in the Clearfield coal regions. It is reported, however, that the men propose to take a secret ballot on the question of a strike. LOWE AGAINST WHEELER. Discussing the Alabama Contested Election in the House. WASHINGTON, June 3.—Immediately after the reading of the journal the House took up the consideration of the Alabama contested election case of Lowe vs. Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler being accorded the floor to close the argument in his own behalf. He reviewed the facts in the case and deduced therefrom the conclusion that he had been fairly and honestly elected as a member of the forty-seventh Congress. He then yielded to Mr. Springer, of Illinois, who contended that if Lowe were to be seated it would be upon issue ballots, and gave notice that he would offer a resolution recommending the case and instructing the committee to ascertain the number of tissue ballots cast for either party, and to report who was elected after rejecting all such ballots. It was a serious matter for honorable gentleman voting to seat a man upon tissue ballots which could be read as well on one side as the other.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Owing to the fact that the court in banc yesterday afternoon adjourned until Monday, no opinion can be delivered on Mr. Reed's last motion in the Guitau case until that day. It is believed that the decision will be very short and no doubt to be contained that the motion will be positively denied. MARKET. NEW YORK MARKET.
