The sewer leading to the river from Front street, at alley J, has caved in. The public road, at the new work, of the Pennsylvania railroad company, in the eastern part of the town, is damaged and filled with earth and stones from the drainage of these works, during every heavy rain. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a balf-dollar. I expend ed over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a triend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. RIOT ATALEXANDRIA.

Sixty-seven Europeans Reported Killed and Various dispatches from Alexandria re port events of a tragic character occurring there. The engineer of the British manof-war "Superb" has been murdered, and disturbances prevail which began simultancously at three different places. The object of the rioters in a great measure appears to have been pillage, in which Levantines as well as Arabs participated. A regiment of cavalry and a regiment of infantry have been ordered to reinforce the graviler. the garrison.

The Times correspondent at Cairo lays the responsibility for the riots upon Arabi Pacha. Dervisch Pacha had summoned him to resign and there seemed to be no alternative but submission or defiance, but since the riots broke out Dervisch Pacha has had to appeal to Arabi Pacha as commanding the only available force to restore order.

At a meeting of the military leaders it was decided to petition the khedive to abdicate. It was declared that if he did not he would be massacred. It is rumored that the cavalry and artillery will not join any conspiracy against the khedi ve.
