Word has been received here that Mr. John Snyder's train of the P. R. R., freight, ran into another train in the Philadelphia yards and wrecked it. Both passenger tracks were blocked. The cause of the wreck is attributed to the reduced number of brakemen now on a train. The speed of Mr. Snyder's train could not be checked by the two brakemen. roof of the P. R. R., depot, here.

One Man Killed and Another Injured. Yesterday afternoon about 1:15, another fearful railroad accident happened in the west yard of the Pennsylvania railroad here. The victims of it are John Hencricks, aged 19 years, and James Mack, aged 17. The disaster occurred by the telescoping of two freight cars. The young men, who are employed on the road as repairmen, were returning to work from dinner and had jumped on one of a train of cars which was being shifted. The train This is your last chance to buy the richest were standing on a side track, and the young men, who saw that there was danger in remaining on the bumper where they were, were in the act of getting off the train when the accident happened. Mack was caught across the stomach, and died an apparently painless death, in about half an hour after being struck. Hendricks was removed to his home, and his injuries consisting of a badly squeezed leg, and wounds of a dangerous internal na ture, attended to by Drs. Craig and Lineaweaver. Hopes are entertained that he may recover. Father Russell of St. Peter's Catholic church, attended James Mack, in his last moments. The property has a front of 21 feet and 5 inches and a depth of 114 feet, 6 inches to a 12 foot alley in the rear. Mr. Raub will give the bank possession on the 1st of August, when the building now used as a residence and clothing and shoe store will be at once demolished, preparatory to the crection of a fine new banking house. Injured in a Cotton Mill

Kate Doersom, aged 17 years, who lives at 106 Dorwart street, met with a rather serious accident this forenoon at the cotton mill of Peters & Shirk, on Piue street, where she is employed. She was cleaning the gearing in the spinning room and had her hand caught in a spinning frame. Two fingers were torn off and the hand was otherwise so badly injured that it may have to be amputated. She was taken to the office of Dr. Thomas Cox, where her injuries were attended to, and was afterwards removed to her home.

Early Closing.

During the months of July and August, all the principal dry goods stores in Lancaster will close at 6 p. m., except on Sat-urday. This will be good news for the overworked clerks and sales women, and will be appreciated by citizens generally, who can make their purchases much more pleasantly in day time, as they could in the close room under the scorching heat of the gas light. No doubt other trades.

When enfectled by long suffering proceeding from torpid liver, billiousness, indigestion constipation, or sick headache, take Burdock Blood Bitters, which give rest to the weary and reinvitogrates all the organs of the bedy en will follow the example about to be set by the dry goods men.

Robbed of a Watch. This morning about 3 o'clock a man who was very drunk was found by Officers

West King street near Centre Square. When awakened he did not seem to know for awhile where he was, but when his senses became collected he said he had been robbed of a silver watch. He could not tell where he had been, but said he would know all about it in the morning. As he had sobered up considerably and had had committed no offence the officers did not arrest him.
