MOST DETERMINED SUICIDE.

John T. Parrish Poisons Himself at the Black Horse Hotel on Account of Domestic Difficulties. Yesterday afternoon John T. Parrish, house painter, aged about 65 years, poisoned himself by taking ten grains of morphia, and died from the effects of the drug about one o'clock this morning.

The suicide was a most determined one. From evidence taken before the coroner's jury and from other sources we learn that Parrish went to the drug store of B. S. Muhlenberg yesterday forenoon and asked Mr. Martin, the salesman, for 20 cents worth of morphia. He was asked if he had a prescription, and on answering in the negative was asked what he wanted with it. He said he wanted to try an experiment. Mr. Martin refused to sell him the drug, when he said he would get it somewhere else. While at Muhlenberg's store he complained of his wife from whom he had been separated, and was told that if he could not get along with her he had better go to the West where he came from recently. He left the store, but returned again in the afternoon and again asked for the morphia. He was again refused and left the store. At a later he called at the drug store of J. H. Kauffman, and tried to purchase ten grains of morphia. He was asked if he had a physician's prescription, and when he said he had not he was refused the drug. Having found that he could not get the poison by direct means, he resorted to indirection, and, calling at Frey's drug store, he represented that he had been sent for the morphia by a Lebanon physician, who wished to use it in his practice. He obtained the drug and took it to the Black Horse hotel, entering the house from the rear. As he came up not. the yard, Mr. John B. Slough, the pro-[Signed. ] prietor, noticed that he was crying, and asked him what was the matter with him. He answered that he was in great trouble, and did not want to live any longer. Taking a tumbler of water from the barroom he walked up into his own room. His emotion and his general appearance and his remark that he was tired of life, induced Mr. Slough to think that perhaps there might be something wrong with him, and in a very few minutes he followed him to his room. On the floor he found the label of the paper in which the morphia had been wrapped, and Parrish told him he had taken a dose. Mr. Slough insisted on his coming down stairs, and then hastened across the street to Frey's to ascertain whether Parish had purchased morphia there. Mr Frey recognized the tabel, and the description given of Parrish answered to that of the man to whom the morphia was sold. Physicians were sent for, and pending their arrival Parrish was walked rapidly up and down the yard to prevent stupefaction from setting in. Dr. Recd was first physican to arrive the and at once gave it as his opinion that the man could not live, having taken 10 grains of the poison, equal to 80 miniraum doses. By 6 o'clock he was unconscious. At a later hour Dr. King and other physicians visited him, but he was beyond the reach of all surgery, and died at one o'clock this morning as above stated.

THE JURY'S FINDING. Shaller Accused of Conspiring with Lemo to Commit Arson. On Wednesday afternoon the jury, impaneled to inquire into the cause of the fire at Marcks's tobacco shed, met to consider their finding in the case, and made the fol lowing report : Lancaster City, State of Pennsylvania, ss. To Alderman J. K. Barr, of the city of Lancaster, and state of Pennsylvania, holding an inquisition to inquire into the cause of the attempt at the firing of the barn or tobacco shed of Francis Marcks and Martin Zimmerman, situated in the Seventh ward, city of Lancaster, state of Pennsylvania:

We, the undersigned jurors, summoned to inquire into the cause of the said at-tempted firing of the said barn, or shed, do return that, after visiting the building above referred to, and after hearing the testimony, from time to time presented, relating thereto, do find that, on the night of the 27th of May last, at about eleven o'clock, Alexander Lemon did, wilfully and maliciously set fire to a certain lot of kindling, prepared by the bands of him-self and Michael Shaller, of this city, for the purpose and with the intent of committing arson, in the burning of the barn or tobacco shed.

And we further do find that Michael Shaller, aforesaid, did wilfully counsel with the said Alexander Lemon, as to the that he be sent to the house of refuge. It burning of the said barn or tobacco shed, and did further aid and abet the said Alex. Lemon, in the attempt to commit the said act of arson, by supplying him with matches for that purpose; and that he, the said Michael Shaller, did also consent to the said burning of said burn or tobacco shed, contrary to the acts of assembly of March 1860 and April 1869, in such cases made refuge. and provided ; and further the jurers say

Rogers, of Philadelphia, who said he would yield to no one in his admira-tion for Judge Ludlow, but that unless there was a spontaneous expression from the other counties in favor of Ludlow's nomination he felt that it would be unfair for Philadelphia to contend for Ludlow after the generous manner in which the highest honor of the convention had been given to one of her sons. Mortimer F. Elliott, of Mercer, was nominated by Mr. Peck seconded by Capt. Taggart, of Warrea. James R. Ludlow. of Philadelphia, was named by John H. Fow, who made an

and believe that the party deserves suc-Elliott for Congressman.

After Clark's nomination for supreme judge and Africa's selection by acclamation great excitement ensued over congressman-at-large. Stenger, sitting in the convention, wanted it, and had J. Mc-Dowell Sharpe substituted to nominate him. Malcolm Hay and Hensel were nomi-nated and declined, and Hensel made a speech, urging that the nomination should go to the great northern section of the state; that was unrepresented on the ticket.

Ever since he has been here he has been urging the nomination of Mortimer F. Elliot, a leading lawyer of Tioga and ad-joining counties. On a ballot Elliot re-ceived 1391 to 631 votes for Strenger.

A Lot of Congressional Aspirauts. When Mr. Hay took his seat the names

Johnson, of Armstrong; Presley M. Guthrie, of Allegheny; F. Elliott, of Tioga, and John Gilpin, of Armstrong, were offered. The names of Coulter, of Westmoreland, and Coffroth, of Somerset, by Col. Maish, of York, seconded by Mr. Duff, of Allegheny; George H. Irwin, of Dauphin, named by Mr. Rewalt, of Dauphin, seconded by Mr. James, of Northampton; Major Wm. Gordon, of Northampton; Major Wm. Gordon, of the ground that in his opinion was for the good of the party that the nomination should go to one of the northern counties. The nomination were then closed and a ballot taken. As the ballot proceeded the name of Guthries was withdrawn and the vote as announced rcsulted :

Gilpin..... Stenger Brestin Elliott. The nomination of Elliott was then made unanimous and he was escorted to the stage and addressed the convention.

Mr. Eillott Speaks. Mr. Elliott's remarks were well received. He thought the Democracy should be progressive; that what was good fifty years ago, was not what was needed today, and he felt certain that the northern counties would show great Democratic accessions in the fall. Mr. Stenger, of Franklin, also spoke on the assured success of the ticket. A delegate from Schuylkill offered :

resolution authorizing the nominees of the convention and the president thereof to appoint the chairman of the state committee. An amendment retaining Mr. Bogert was offered. After some debate the amendment was withdrawn and the resolution #### was unanimously adopted. The Convention Adjourns,

After some unimportant routine business the state committee was authorized to fill any vacancy occurring on the state ticket and the convention adjourned.

The Auditors.

Dr. Wm. Scarcely anything new was shown and not nearly as much as this paper has often shown. The doctor was asked if he had an arrangement by which he divided his fees with the coroner. He stated that he had not, but he had made presents to coroners which he thought he had a right to do if he saw fit. Other physicians will be examined later.

The ticket named would have his carnest and persistent support. Looking upon the tense pain from his broken knuckles convention and its work he also would say every time he struck his opponent, that the political skies were clearing for the Democracy and that the 200th anni- shape until the end of the thirty-first versary of the commonwealth's founding round. In this round, after fighting would celebrate the recovery of the state evenly all over the ring, Campbell wound from the hands of the spoilsmen and a victory for reform. [Cheers and applause.]

A Stampede to Clark for Judge,

the names of Bechtel and Elliott were withdrawn and their supporters broke away and went to Clark. Fow, of Philadelphia, capped the climax by withdrawing the name of Judge Ludlow and voting for the Indiana candidate. Senator Gordon, of Philadelphia, in a few well chosen sentences, moved that the nomination of Clark be made by acclamation, and as the chair announced that all other candidates had been withdrawn this course was adopted.

Africa Has a Walk Over. Assortment Nominations for secretary of internal affairs being in order, Mr. Ellis, of Schuyl kill, nominated J. Simpson Africa, of Huntingdon county. A motion to make this nomination by acelamation was also carried, and the convention proceeded to nominate candidates for congressman-at large.

Hay Declines the Congressional Nomination Calico Mr. Wolf of Lycoming placed in nomination the name of Mortimer F. Elliott, and Mr. Hipple, of Clinton, that of Mal-colm Hay. Mr. Hipple said he did not know whether Mr. Hay would accept the WHITE SHIRTS! nomination or not, but he wanted the Democracy to say to him that he must take the place. Mr. Stranahan of Mercer seconded the nomination as did Mr. Hensel of Lancaster, who spoke earnestly in its favor as being in the interests of harmony. Meantime Mr. Elliott's name had been withdrawn. The convention applauded Life Saving Dress.
