Picked Up by the Intelligencer's Reporter. Mr. George Breneman, of Philadelphia, is in town. An addition to Carter's upholstering establishment is being made. Miss Mame Guthrie, of Lancaster, is showed us a peculiar arm, which for v spending a few days with Miss Eva Nolen riety he occasionally winds around like on Walnut street. The Misses Mame Keen and Mattie Fil-lenbaum, of Lancaster, were the guests yesterday of Mr. J. G. Snavely.

A fight occurred again at the Five Points on Saturday night. Frank Wittig was one of those engaged in it. He goes it strong. A man was nearly killed on Lawrence street, Saturday night, while engaged in a drunken brawl.

The body of a man named Griffith, from Harrisburg, was interred in the Mt. Bethel cometery yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Nelson Hatch, on complaint of her husband, was arrested this morning for drunken and disorderly conduct, and placed in the lockup. Officer Struck had his hands full in getting her there, but she had to go. A number of Lancaster young men went down the river to-day to pay a visit to from under. He was taken to the hospital John Burrows and "Hod" Zahm on their and died. He was the cause (or rather Joseph Aulbach fell down the stairs in the Columbia engine house, yesterday, and dislocated his arm. A picnic will be held on Chiques rock to-morrow by Columbians. Gowen's team, loaded with sand, sunk into a hole that was left on Locust street, in front of Allison's book store, on Saturbroken water pipe. One wheel was broken.

Cookman's chapel books are very handsome since the completion of their improvements. The Sunday school yesterday was attended by Rev. Mr. Humpries, Presiding Elder McConnell and Mr. Felt, The Methodists have decided to hold their Sunday-school at 9 a. m. hereafter. John Kerrigan, 12 years of age, was shot in the leg yesterday, by two peobles from a toy pistol, in the hands of Henry Smith on Poplar street. The wounds are painful but not dangerous.

Messrs. Alfred and Harry Bruner returned from ilackettstown, N. J., on A stray boat was caught in the river, below the bridge, yesterday, by a Columbian.

John E. C. Cochran, Misses Flora and Alice Cochran, Miss Anne Keller, of Laucaster, Mr. and Mrs. Varrick of New York, Mr. Chas. Maurer, of Philadelphia, with others, are spending the day at Wild

"Converted" is what the thief must have become that stole John Kelley's watch last week and hung it on his door knob at his residence, on Saturday night. Let the good work go on.

The car movement here for June is castward—loaded, 42,510; cmpty, 1,769 total, 44.279. Westward—loaded, 116,59; empty, 29,430; total, 41,089. Grand total: 85,356. Increase over May, 1882, 663; over June, 1881, 6,246.

The advertising car of S. H. Barrett & Co.'s circus and menagerie came to Columbia yesterday, and to day billed this place and the neighborhood for the show of the 19th of July. All Columbia will no doubt attend it.

The victim of the accident at Red Bridge, on Saturday morning, Mr. Milton Mann, was buried to-day at Mt. Bethel which he received by the sudden running cemetery at 2 p. m.

Large Cylinder,

There has just been completed at Perrottet's iron works, on Bridge street, an engine cylinder for the Su-quehanna rolling mill, which is 25 inches in diameter and weighs 5,000 pounds. It is one of the largest ever made in this country. These works also have on hand orders for sugar machinery from Cuba.

Yeakl s's Drug Sioce Robbed. That handsome little drug store on Locust street, owned by John Yeakle, was entered and robbed of goods to the amount of $50 or $60, not withstanding the vigilance of Officer Dissinger. It appears the thief entered from the cellar grate in the pavement and then through the door into the store. W. J. Galbraith, Dr. Yeakle's clerk, who lives in the house failed to hear any noise. The thief returned in the same manner as he came, taking with him pertumeries, toilet articles and liquors to the amount named. Early this morning a man offered Officer Dysinger a drink of "good stuff." This is thought to have been the thief. Gall, wasn't it?

A Child's Death. A sixteen months old son of Mr. Wit. Daily, deceased, met with a mysterious death on Saturday evening, in the yard attached to Mr. Sam Campbell's livery stable, on Fourth street. The little one was heard to scream, and when Mr. Campbell rushed out to see the cause, the child was found lying beside a large stone dying. He was removed to the house on Walnut street of its grandfather, Mr. James Daily, P. R. R. dispatcher here. where it died in about three quarters of an honr. Whether it was kicked by a colt that was tied in the stable yard or whether it was killed by falling against the stones besides which it was found, may never be known. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public deeply sympathize with the afflicted family, especially as the child's father was killed about a year ago on the railroad.

Injured on the Railroad. Joseph Keneur, a "tourist" from Germany, while traveling on a P. R. R. freight train last night, had his leg caught between the bull-noses of two cars at Shoch's station and broken. He was brought to this place about midnight and his injuries attended to. Mr. Fred. Adams, a P. R. R. brakeman.

had his hand crushed while coupling cars in the yards here last evening. "Capital Punishment," The announcement that Rev. C. Gerhard, of the Reformed church, would preach on the subject of capital punishment, drew together a large congregation yesterday morning. He preached from the text "Whose sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed." Spoke of the decrease of crime : the horror in which it is held to-day; of organized societies' aid in surpressing it, but held to the theory that capital punishment was right, and proved its establishment and enforce ment in the strict letter of the law. The Days When the Pennsylvania Owned by the State.

In this railroad centre, where so many hundreds live, who are employed upon the road in some capacity or the other-dispatcher down to track-walker, engineer, to brakeman-a person who can look back over a long period of years of labor on the road is regarded with more than usual interest. Here be lifted his sleeve an showed us a peculiar arm, which for vi clock key. The bone from the elbow the shoulder is entirely gone. He can no raise it to his face, but can grasp and hol anything in the hand. From that date h has been tending switches and "calling. At present he works tifteen switches, the two extreme ones being about half a mi apart.

Again returning to the first subject, he told us, in his plain way, of score of railroad accidents, narrow escapes, etc More people are killed now than years ago but there are less explosions. "You ca see people are getting more careless," h said, "in fact reckless, and the compan more cautious. I once knew a man name C. Weatherford, of Lancaster, a brakeman who was hit by a bridge, fell between the cars, which passed over his leg and arm and before another followed he jumped ou blamed) for two mishaps, the result of open switches. "The 'last local' at night was coming in. I had the 'main straight was coming in. I had the 'main straight' as all the cars were lying on 'blind 2 and blind 2,' and the engine on 'main.' When the 'fast' came in on 'main 2,' she 'tore up' the planking for some distance and I walked around Columbia and tished for Washed around Columbia and tished for 14 days,' was about the way he told it. On Saturday Dr. Diller Luther, of the state board of charities, visited our alms house, hospital and insane asplum, and expressed himself as being highly pleased with the same.

Joseph Kuener, an 15 years old, German was brought to the hospital. He was suftegether of two cars, of a freight train on which he was riding, at Bainbridge. He came to this country in 1878 and has an uncle in Sheboygan, Michigan.

OBITUARY.

Sadden Death of Daniel Bard. Daniel Bard, a prominent citizen of U1per Leacock township, died very suddenly of heart disease on Saturday evening, aged about 69 years. Mr. Bard had not been in good health for some time past, but nothing more that usual appeared to be the matter with him on Saturday. In the evening while sitting on a chair he made some casual remarks to his wife which were answered by her. Suddenly he was seized with a fit, and was seen to be falling. His wife caught him, replaced him in his chair, and ran to the window and called for help. A neighbor living opposite ran to his assistance, but before arriving Mr. Bard was dead. Deceased was farmer in comfortable circumstances. He was highly respected by all who knew him; was a Lutheran by faith and a mem ber of Rev. Berg's congregation at Mcchanicsville. He leaves a wife and one daughter, the wife of John A. Charles, of this city. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Interment at Mechanicsburg.

Police Cases. The mayor this morning, had ten cases to dispose of. Two drunken and disorderly persons were discharged on payment of $1 fine and costs. Two others were discharged on payment of costs alone. One other was committed to the county jail for ten days, and one sick vagrant was sent to the hospital for 30 days. Three vagrants were discharged, as were also two strangers who were arrested at the city hotel under suspicious circumstances. Alderman McConomy seut Louisa Fisher, an old offender, to jail for 60 days for drunken and disorderly conduct. Alderman Spurrier sent Jacob Witch to jail for ten days for similar offence.

RAILEOAD ACCIDENT.

Foot Crushed and Leg Broken. George Peck, a dead-head, while riding on the bumper of a freight car, between Schock's Mills and Collins Station, accidentally got his foot between the deadwood and had one of heels terribly crushed and his leg broken. The accident took place on Saturday afternoon between 3 and o'clock. The injured man was carried to Columbia, Dr. Craig dressing his wound. This morning he was taken to the county hospital. It is feared an amputation o the foot may be necessary.

Prison Inspectors. To-day the board of prison inspectors held their monthly meeting at which a number of bills were approved. The commutation of Jacob Weaver, (which was recently taken off for attempting to escape) was allowed. This prisoner's sentence has expired and he recently refused to leave the prison when he had another good opportunity with others, and for that reason his commutation is restored.

The question of raising the underkeeper's salary was postponed.

SHUFELDT'S RECALL.

A Mischievous Letter Said to Have Been the WASHINGTON, July 3.—It is understood here in official circles that the recall of Commodore R. W. Shufeldt from his special mission to China in connection with the making of a treaty with Corea was due to his open latter to ex-Senator Sargent containing severe strictures on the highest Chinese authorities, and also a serious imputation against the empress' character, and which letter is supposed to have been written to affect legislation on the Chinese bill which was then pending in Congress. Commodore Shufeldt's friends assert, however, that he was detached merely because his mission was completed. The feeling among naval officers generally is that Commodore Shufeldt's conduct was highly reprehensible under the circum-
