ROBERT A. EVANS, Mayor
J. L. HARTMAN, J. I. HARTMAN.

Mr. Hartman, from the committee on buildings and grounds, reported verbally that the Manor street public school building is rapidly approaching completion and that it is now being roofed and it is time the necessary school furniture was being ordered for it.
The Case of Mr. Gates.
Dr. Herr, from the committee to whom was referred the case of Mr. Gates, reported that he had no personal feeling against Mr. Gates, principal of the Rockland street secondary school, at the late meeting of the board, made a report of which the following is the substance:
"On motion of Mr. Warfel, the election of principal of the Rockland street secondary school was postponed, and the verbal charge of drunkenness, made by Mr. Smeych against Mr. Gates, and any other charges that may be made, were referred to the visiting committee of the southeast division for investigation, with instructions to report at the next regular meeting of the board."
Pursuant to this motion, your committee met at the office of its chairman, Dr. L. Herr, at 9 o'clock a. m., June 23, 1882.
Mr. Smeych, who had been notified that the verbal charge made by him before the board must be submitted in writing, on approaching before your committee, proceeded to explain his position. He stated that he had no personal feeling against Mr. Gates; that they had always been very good friends; that he had not made and could not now make any direct charge of drunkenness against him, and that his statement before the board was based on information received from Mr. Geo. E. Zelliers, who, on account of his duties elsewhere, could not be present.
On an adjourned meeting of your committee, held at the residence of Mr. McConomy, at 8:30 p. m., June 23, 1882, the letter which is herewith submitted, and made part of this report, was received from Mr. Zelliers:

I hereby declare that I do not now and did not at any time charge R. S. Gates with drunkenness in the school room, and that he understood that I have no evidence to that effect to present to or to produce before the committee.
GEORGE E. ZELLIER.
This letter effectually disposes of the charge of drunkenness, from which your committee takes great pleasure in pronouncing Mr. Gates completely exonerated.
Then followed other charges made against Mr. Gates by Mr. Smeych—to the effect that Mr. Gates violated the rules of the board by not having the Scriptures read at the opening of the schools; by being irregularly opening the schools; and by paying too much attention to his first class to the detriment of the second; also, that his methods of teaching are not good, he has not sufficient energy and industry and his school is conducted in a slovenly manner, and that the conduct of the pupils is not properly looked after during recess. The committee find:
"First, That while the pupils transferred from Mr. Gates' school to the high school are as proficient as those transferred from other schools, their proficiency is attained by special drill, and that the special effort thus made to bring them to transfer up to the proper standard is at the expense of the other pupils in that department of the school taught by Mr. Gates himself. On his own admission, it appears that he has given for several days left without any lessons, except that the class was in a general way told to spend the time in studying arithmetic."
"Second, That while the general character of the teaching in the school, so far as the principal is concerned, might be much worse, it might also be a great deal better, and might be calculated to have a better influence on the pupils."
"Third, That the discipline in Mr. Gates' school appears to be as good as in others, but that it is maintained through fear rather than through respect for the teacher. There appears to be a good deal of corporal punishment administered in the school which is not, as required by the rules, reported to the visiting committee."
"Fourth, That while taking into consideration the fact that the Rockland street school is more unfavorably situated than any other school in the city, there yet seems to be an undue number of applications for removal from that school to others of the same grade, and that a majority of complaints arise from dissatisfaction with Mr. Gates himself."
"Fifth, That Mr. Gates is rather lax in the matter of observing the rules laid down by the board for the government of the schools, it was shown, for instance, first, that he is frequently not in his place in the morning at the stated time—namely, fifteen minutes before nine o'clock; that he is generally there at the opening of school, but that school is sometimes not opened until five minutes after nine; second, that the Scriptures are not read every morning as required by the rules; third, that the pupils are not called in the proper time at recess, which is frequently continued to 2:30 and sometimes to 3:30 p. m.; thereby keeping the pupils on the playground at a time when they ought to be at their studies or reciting in their classrooms."
"It may be proper to say here, in justice to Mr. Gates, that he attributes his want of punctuality to the erratic character of his watch, forgetting that the town clock is the standard of time adopted by the board; and that the Scriptures are not read, as required, on account of being pressed for time."
"He explains the extension of the time for recess by the fact that during that time he is always busy engaged with his class, which is kept in for the purpose of reading and looking at the papers over papers. He pursues this course because he deems it beneficial to the whole school, inasmuch as the lower classes will all in turn become the class and will then be recipients of the special instruction given during the period of recess."
"Sixth, That notwithstanding the drawbacks indicated in this report, Mr. Gates has been working harder and showing an improvement in general results during the last year."
"The report having been read, Mr. G. W. Zecher stated that the investigation had been made in violation of the rules of the board; that there having been no charges in writing made against Mr. Gates there was nothing for the committee to consider; and that the matter having been referred to the committee while the years and nays were being called, and after Mr. Gates had received a majority of the votes of the members present, was clearly out of order. He believed Mr. Gates was legally elected to the position, and without intending any disrespect to the committee, he moved to lay the report on the table.
Mr. Johnston seconded the motion. "The years and nays were demanded and resulted as follows:
Yeas—Messrs. Breneman, Eberman, Jackson, Johnston, Marshall, Rhoads, Ringwalt, Richards, Sanson, Schwebel, Westhaeffer and G. W. Zecher—13.
Nays—Messrs. Byrne, Cochran, Erisman, Evans, Haas, Hartman, Herr, Levergood, McConomy, Morton, Oblander, Reimensnyder, Slaymaker, Smith, A. J. Snyder, E. G. Snyder, Warfel, Wilson, Zecher and G. W. Zecher, president.
So the motion to lay the report on the table was lost.
Several members who voted to lay it on the table, on a subsequent occasion to say, in casting their vote that they intended no disrespect to the committee, but thought the proceedings unwarranted by the rules of the board; and several others who voted against laying it on the table, stated that they desired the report of the committee a vindication of Mr. Gates from an unfounded complaint.
A motion to receive and file the report of the committee was then passed without an objection.
Mr. Wilson moved to proceed to the election of a principal for the Rockland street secondary school.
Mr. Slaymaker moved to amend, to postpone the election for one month, and in the meantime advertise for a teacher. Mr. Slaymaker's amendment was rejected and Mr. Wilson's motion agreed to.
The roll being called the vote was as follows:
Messrs. Breneman, Grossius, Carpenter, Erisman, Herr, Jackson, Johnston, Levergood, Marshall, McConomy, Oblander, Reimensnyder, Rhoads, Ringwalt, Richards, Sanson, Schwebel, A. J. Snyder, E. G. Snyder, Westhaeffer, Wilson, G. W. Zecher, and Baker, president—24 voted for Mr. R. S. Gates.
Messrs. Cochran, Evans, Haas, Hartman, Slaymaker, and G. Zecher—5 voted for A. B. Stany.
Messrs. Morton and Warfel—2 voted for H. F. Vills.
Mr. Byrne voted for W. E. Barton. Mr. Smeych declined to vote.
Mr. Gates was declared elected.
On motion the board proceeded to vote for a teacher for Miss Blanche Lichty's school, the election having been postponed at last meeting, because of Miss Lichty's illness, which prevented her from being present for examination by the city superintendent when the other applicants were examined. Having subsequently passed a very creditable examination, Miss Lichty was unanimously re-elected.
Samuel R. Slaymaker, J. H. Gerhart, Geo. M. Durwalt, C. Reese Eby, C. H.

Obreiter and N. J. Blackwood were nominated for the free scholarships to which the board is entitled in Franklin and Marshall college.
There being some diversity of opinion as to how many scholarships the board is entitled to and how many are now filled the question was, on motion of Dr. Levergood, referred to the judiciary committee to report at next meeting of the board; and also report the grade of the several applicants.
On motion of Mr. Warfel the committee on furniture and supplies were directed to contract for the necessary furniture for the Manor street schools.
Mr. Hartman presented the following matters, which were taken up seriatim and adopted:
To paint the new high school building and fences; to paint the old high school building and place an iron fence around the ground in place of the old wooden fence; to furnish 150 feet of hose and a reel for the Lemon street school houses; to purchase a lawn mower for the janitor of the high school.

On motion of Mr. Grossius the property committee was authorized to make a contract for coal for the public schools for the ensuing year.
The consideration of the amendments to rules 100 and 101, and the proposed alterations in the curriculum of the high schools, were postponed until next meeting.
Adjourned.

Report of City Superintendent.
LANCASTER, July 5, 1882.
To the Board of School Directors of the City of Lancaster:

"GENTLEMEN: Your city superintendent submits the following report of the public schools for the month of June. No report having been made in May, the statistics for that month are given along with those for June:
In May the enrollment was 2,933, the average attendance was 2,473, the average percentage was 83.
The following directors are reported as having visited the schools: J. W. Jackson 33, L. Richards 2, J. B. Warfel 1, H. E. Slaymaker 6, J. W. Byrne 9, Wm. McConomy 5, J. J. Hartman 2, Dr. M. L. Herr 1, P. McConomy 1. Total 65. The whole number of visits reported as having been made by the city superintendent was 59.
In June the enrollment was 3,831, the average attendance was 2,293, the percentage was 85.
The following directors are reported as having visited the schools: J. W. Jackson 41, Dr. M. L. Herr 2, Wm. McConomy 5, J. W. Byrne 12, D. Smeych 1, H. E. Slaymaker 1, H. R. Breneman 1, H. Richards 3, A. T. 77. The city superintendent is reported as having made 44 visits, the whole number of reports being 57.
The examinations for promotion into the high school resulted in the promotion of fifty-one boys as follows: R. S. Gates 12, W. H. Levergood 12, C. V. Lichty 15, C. Matz 4, Miss E. Powers 6, and two conditional; and forty-eight girls as follows: Miss A. C. Brubaker 11, Miss G. Bundie 12, Miss C. B. Huber 11, Miss G. Carpenter 4, Miss E. Powers 5, and C. Matz 2, and one conditional.
With a view of raising the standard of qualification for admission to the high school, the questions were made more searching than heretofore, which accounts to some extent for the lower average attained. As far as lay in my power, I examined the classes myself, not from any want of confidence in the teachers, but at their request, and for the purpose of obtaining a more thorough knowledge of the work of the different teachers and grades.
The examinations of the primary grades resulted in the following promotions:

The Teachers' Second Day.
At the second day's session of the teachers' association it was decided that the teachers should visit the principal meeting points in the region, including the Puttville shafts. Miss Hattie L. Bruckhart of Jiffy, Lancaster county, read a paper on "Primary Teachers," and Miss Speakman, of West Chester, discussed the promise of model schools. In the afternoon session Professor Thomas read a paper on the ideal normal course. In the evening a large audience assembled at the academy to witness the class exercises by Indian boys and girls from their training school at Carlisle. Before the Indian pupils appeared Miss Boyce and Miss Barford gave recitations.
Rev. Dr. N. C. Shauffer was nominated for president of the association; J. P. McCracken, of this city, for secretary and R. K. Buehler a member of the enrolling committee.

Other's Misfortunes.
A French wit has said: "We are all strong enough to bear the misfortunes of others." A kindred sentiment is found in Antonio's words in 'The Merchant of Venice,' when he speaks of the misfortunes of others: "Why see others afflicted to the Molech of disease, grief, or poverty, broken down in health, weak, wretched, succumbing to the pest, when we know that Hunt's Remedy is just the specific that will make a perfect cure? That man who will look back, sore joints, distressed digestion, nervous system, and see others afflicted, let him not be satisfied, but tell him the good news of this wonderful medicine." J. B. Wickert.
