ARABI BAY PACHA WINDS FOR A TRUCE.

Surrender of Alexandria—England's War Ships supposed to have inflicted Great Damage.—The London Telegram.

DESCRIPTION OF THE REPRESENTATION.

LONDON, July 12.—The Times correspondent, writing about yesterday's bombardment, says: "The gunboats played an active part in the operations. Creeping close up to the forts and silencing several guns, the inflexible made splendid practice firing at a range varying from two thousand to three thousand yards."

THE SITUATION THIS MORNING.

LONDON, July 12.—Late last evening the Monarch and Penelope went inside the harbor and fired a few shots at the forts. The enemy replied only by field artillery and it seemed that the batteries were deserted.

London, July 12.—1:30 P. M.—A dispatch to the press association says that Admiral Seymour, considering the position of the telegraph ship, Chiltern, insecure, has ordered a man-of-war to cruise around and protect her.

THE SCHUYLKILL WATER.

Reading, Pa., July 12.—The water in the Schuylkill, north of Reading, is assuming its normal condition, while at this place there is no change. Dr. Weidman, the president of the city health board, is collecting the white deposits at various points on the river to make an analysis, which will be done soon.

LOSS OF THE BRITISH.

London, July 12.—Mr. Campbell Bannerman, financial secretary of the war, read in the House of Commons a telegram which says: "The total number of killed is 5 and wounded 27, distributed as follows: Killed—2 on the Alexandria 1, Superb 1, Sultan 2 and Indeflexible 1. Wounded—On the Alexandria 3, Superb 1, Sultan 7, Invincible 6, Indeflexible 2 and Penelope 8. Twelve officers and men landed from the Indeflexible, under cover of the fire of the Condor and Bittern, and destroyed with dynamite the heavy guns of Fort Mex."

REMARKS BY SIR CHARLES DIKE.

London, July 12.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, Sir Charles Dike, under secretary of foreign affairs, replying to Sir Henry D. Wolff, said that as far as he was aware, Admiral Seymour had merely cautioned merchant vessels that they would pass through the Suez canal at their own risk. He added that he was unaware that torpedoes had been laid in the canal.

PEACE PROPOSITIONS.

EFFORTS TO BRING THE FACTIONS.

Beaver, Brocks and "All of Us" offer to Do of the Ticket—Constitutional Officers of the Independents.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—The Republican state central committee met at the rooms of the Young Republican club this morning at half-past eleven in response to the call of the chairman. Nearly one hundred members were present, constituting an almost full representation.

It was suggested that the candidates be invited to be present and a committee was appointed to bring them to the hall where they arrived at 12:30. Several propositions were presented, among them one from the Young Republican club, which requires the withdrawal of both the regular and Independent candidates; another from Chairman Cooper advocating the relegation of the question to the primaries, the ticket receiving a minority of Republican votes to withdraw, and a third calling for an entirely new convention under the rules recently adopted at Harrisburg.

A letter was presented and signed by all the candidates on the ticket, saying they placed themselves in the hands of the committee, and that they would be willing to retire if such a course should be deemed necessary.

The following four propositions to be submitted to the independents were finally agreed upon: First—That both tickets be submitted to a popular vote of the Republican party at the primaries.

Second—That the Republicans at the primaries select a ticket by popular vote, the primaries to be open for candidature of any Republican whatever.

Third—That a new convention under rules adopted by the Continental hotel conference of Stalwarts and Independents be held on the fourth Wednesday of August, the rules to govern said convention to be prepared by ex-Chief Justice Agnew, Hampton L. Carson and Francis B. Reeves.

Fourth, That the new convention be held under the rules adopted by the Republican convention of May 10th, said convention not to be held later than the fourth Wednesday in August.

These propositions to be submitted to the Independents and any one adopted by them will be acceptable to the Regulars.
