Says Addison : "Realth and cheerfulness antually beget each other." There are vol-umes of truth in this. It is difficult to look at the world through cheery glasses, when dis-ease has set in upon the lotas and back, and when the liver and kilneys are out of order, and when the liver and kilneys are out of order. But cheerfulness returns with Hunt's Rèmedy the great kidney and liver medicine, because it brings health to the afficied. The aching back, the sallow skin, the hollow eye, the dis-tressed teeling, the bent body, the despondent mind, give way before Hunt's Remedy to the biese at health the honding star the chear bioom of health, the bounding step, the cheer-tul spirit, the renewed strength, and to a pro-longed lease of vigorous life.
