Mr. Ed. Spering also made a narrow es cape from going over the dam, yesterday. He was caught by some one near him as he was about to make the plunge. Going over this place now means great danger, because the river is very high, and runs turbulently and swiftly here. A New Engine

The new engine lately placed in position at Supplee's engine works is a handsome one. It is a 30 horse power engine, the stroke is 20 inches, the cylinder a 12 inch ameter, the governor is automatic and there is an automatic stop; by means of which the steam will be closed from the cylinder, in case the power belt breaks. THE GRAND ARMY.

Arranging for the Proposed Gettysburg Excarsion and Encampment.

Last evening the committee of arrangements of Geo. H. Thomas Post, No 84, G. A. R., had a meeting at Moor's hotel, corner of South Queen and Vine streets, for the purpose of completing the detai's for the excursion to Gettysburg, Monday, July 24th. The annual encampment of the Grand Army begins then on Saturday of next week, 22 inst., and the local post will participate in the exercises. It is expected that the gathering will be the largest over held in this department, and thus far there have been 2,000 applicants received at headquarters from former soldiers, and there will be besides a number of excursions from different places. The Pennsylvania reserve association will meet on the 26th inst. On the evening of the 24th the 106th Pennsylvania volunteers will erect a tablet on East cemetery hill, with appropriate cermonies. Zook Post of Norristown will erect a memorial on the 25th in bonor of General Zook in the "Wheatfield," west of "Round Top," which by reason of the terrific fighting and havor that occurred upon it, has been called the "whirlpool" of the battle, and similar services will be held at various points all over the battle field commemo rative of special incidents that marked the great struggle.

The committee on transportation appointed by post 84 is composed of the fol-lowing gentlemen, from whom excursion tickets can be procured on or before July 21 by any of our citizens who may desire to be present during the ceremonies : A.F.
