A Narrow Escape About 11 o'clock this morning a middle aged woman made a narrow escape from being crushed by the cars on the Quarryville railroad, near the Lemon street crossing. She was walking on the track, and ugh the bell was rung and she was loudly called to, to get off the track, she eemed to be oblivious to her danger, and kept her eyes fixed on the cars on the Penn sylvania railroad track, the two roads at this point running parallel with each other and like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all very close together. When the cars were cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the almost upon her she saw her danger, and, paralyzed with fright, fell fainting to the ground and rolled into a deep gutter along side the track, where she lay until the train passed. She was picked up, unhurt but trembling with fright and so nervous that she had to be assisted to her home.

KESCUED FROM DEATH. The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I save un hone but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to fee better. My hope, once dead, began to revive and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I writethis hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Dirensed Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. have taken two bottles and can posttively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sick ness. The Work of the Congressional Faisifiers. New York Herald. Mr. Benjamin Butterworth falsified the Congressional Record a few days ago by striking out of it something he had said in debate which he found it expedient to suppress, and also took the unwarrantable liberty of striking out at the same time some remarks of Mr. Samuel S. Cox without Mr. Cox's permission or sanction. Yesterday the attention of the House was called by Mr. Abram S. Hewitt to another variety of falsification committed upon the Congressional Record. The offender in this instance is the notorious Mr. George M. Robeson, who has inserted into the printed pages of his recent speech on the Naval Appropriation bill a virulent attack upon Mr. Hewitt which never was

It does not admit of argument that there missions and insertions are lawless, cowardly and outrageous. The management of the Record is subject to the regulation of the joint committee on printing, which consists, on the part of the Senate, of Messrs. MEDICAL. [From Frank Leslie's Hustrated Newspape:]

A LADY SAID.

Those Horrid Pimples! No. I Cannot Go. Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives. Then she would have instead of a distigured and marred countenance, one that would be handsome, or at least good looking, for any one with a clear, pure skin, no matter what the cut of her features are, has a certain amount of good looks which attract everybody

As it is now, she imagines every one sees

horrid pimples." and other blemishes with which she is afflicted, and this is true of either sex. To improve this appearance great risks are taken; arsenic, mercury, or high-sound titled named articles containing these death-dealing drugs, are taken in hopes of getting rid of all these troubles. In many cases, death is the result. No al-leviation of the burning, heating, itching and inflammation is given. All troubled with Eczeum (sait rheum), Tetters, Humors, Inflammation, Rough Scaly Eruptions of any kind, Diseases of the Hair and Scalp, Scrofula, Ulcers, Pimples or Tender Itchings on any part of the body, should know that there is hope for them in a sure, perfect, and elegant remedy, known as " Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure." It makes the skin white, soft and smooth, removes tan and freckles, and is the best tollet dressing in the world. It is elegant ly pu! up, two bottles in one puckage, consisting of both internal and external treatment. Our readers should be sure to get this and not some old remedy resuscitated Son the success of Dr. Benson's and now advertised as "The Great : kin Cure." There is only one,-it bears the Doctor's picture and is for sale by all druggists. $1 per package.
