

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENTS... Events Along the Susquehanna... Interest in and Around the Borough Picked Up by the Intellect.

On next Tuesday evening, a heavy dance ball will be held in the assembly hall.

The bridge over the river is having two of its old piers replaced with new ones.

There will be service in the Presbyterian church to-morrow morning and evening at the usual hours.

The funeral services of Mrs. Knapp, of Wrightsville, will be held in the Presbyterian church of that place at three o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. Benjamin Blatz lies at his home on the usual hours, with which they intend to go on board the cars and look after the comforts of their patrons.

A card to the reader... During the month of July, I will occupy a room in the building southwest of the Centre Square, where I hope to see all the students of the school.

The stock estimates of the Keely store works have been received by the treasurer, Mr. S. S. DeWitt, and are now ready for issue to those who have paid their installments.

There will be service in the Reformed church, corner of Third and Cherry streets, after to-morrow for several Sundays, on account of the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. S. Gerhard, who will leave on Monday for a three weeks vacation.

While playing a little son of Mr. Edward Collins, residing on the Lancaster pike, had one of his fingers off.

The Columbia fire company boys have just received from the city a fine pair of boxing gloves, with which they intend giving Solivira-Wilson sparring exhibitions.

There is a very offensive smell given out by a dead cat at Fourth and Cherry streets. It should be removed immediately.

Columbia is healthy now, so we do not want any diseases to be caused by dead animals lying about her streets.

Countrymen and boys returning home from an evening's jollification in town make night hideous on North Walnut street by their drunken howlings.

Complaint has been made regarding a number of citizens. One or two arrests would put an end to it.

Independent Republican Easy To-night... A bomb has been thrown in the Star-War Republican camp here by the issue of a circular calling a meeting of the Independent Republicans on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Lutheran picnic... The E. E. Lutheran Sunday school picnic, held at the usual place, was very successful.

Trains for Conowingot... Trains will leave the Reading & Columbia railroad station here to-morrow, for Landville, at 8:45 a. m., 1:45 p. m., and 6:30 p. m.

Close to Gettysburg... About 40 members of Gen. Webb Post No. 118 G. A. R. left town for Gettysburg this afternoon on the special headquarters train which came from Philadelphia.

The body found in the river a few days ago, is supposed to be that of a young son of Mr. John B. Geiter, of Shamokin, who was drowned in Conowingot Falls, while running away from a special headquarters train which came from Philadelphia.

Personal Paragraphs... Mr. H. M. North and family have gone to Bedford Springs.

Mr. Hambricht, of Boyer, now of Philadelphia, but a native of this place, is visiting friends here.

Miss Florence Wolfe, of Frederick, Md., was a guest of Mrs. Robert Ryan, on Walnut street, during the week-end.

There are plenty of fishing parties on the river now, but few boating excursions. The boats for hire are too much like tubs to afford any pleasure in rowing.

DEWY STORE ROBBERY... McClellan's Dewy Store Robbed by Thieves... Last night a thief or thieves entered the drug store of Dr. S. B. McClellan, corner of Prince and Orange streets, and stole therefrom about $3 from the till, a case of five surgical instruments, a microscope, a cigar, a shaving set, hair brushes, a set of postage stamps, two or three ounces of morphia, and other articles. An entrance was effected by breaking open an outside cellar door on the Orange street side of the building, and entering the store by the inside cellar stairway.

The thief approached the store familiar with the premises, as he went directly to the drawers and cases containing the articles stolen. The money drawer was carried into the cellar, where it was left after being emptied. The thief escaped by the same route by which he entered. The value of the articles stolen was $50 or more.

Harvest Home Picnic... A harvest home picnic, given under the auspices of the What Glen association, is being held at What Glen this afternoon. Particular care has been taken to make the party a select one—no one being admitted to the ground without an invitation and tickets not being transferable.

Thank God for Me... James Smith, of Marietta, had the end of one of his thumbs mashed by being caught between the tow line of a canal boat, and the side of the boat. Drs. Mowery and Norris amputated the injured member.

Passed Through... A special train passed through this city on the way to Gettysburg at 3:30 this afternoon. It had on board several Philadelphia points of G. A. R.

The Ironides had ball club of this city went to Harrisburg to-day to measure bats with the Harrisburg nine. We will report the result.

Excursion to Atlantic City.

Atlantic City has always been a place of popular attraction to the people of Lancaster, and the announcement of an excursion to that popular seashore resort on Thursday, August 24, under the management of H. B. Hall and Clark, will secure for it a liberal and desirable patronage.

The fare for the round trip will be only $3.00, tickets good for two days. It comes at a timely season, the rate is low, the arrangements and accommodations are excellent, and the prospect of a most enjoyable and profitable excursion is held out.

The excursion will be held on the Atlantic City Railroad, and will leave Lancaster at 8:00 a. m. on Thursday, August 24, and return on Saturday, August 26, at 8:00 a. m.

Ladies, if you are suffering from weakly...

nevousness, leucorrhoea or in fact any disease of the female system, or any other ailment, you will find relief in the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People... The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to say for the attention of our readers.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People... I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People... With the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People... I was so far gone at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital.

WARLIKE NEWS... Another Engagement Announced... General Alton's Meeting on Arab's Return.

London, July 22.—A dispatch from Alexandria to the Daily Telegraph, dated 9:30 this morning, says: "Major General Alton is just moving out with two regiments of infantry and a mounted squadron in the direction of Arabi Pasha's headquarters. This movement will probably lead to an engagement."

London, July 22, 3:30 p. m.—A dispatch from Alexandria says, reconnoiterers are making to-day in the direction of Tamiya and Milaha. Several dead bodies have been found in the Masara canal.

More Troops on the Way... London, July 22.—The troop ship Eurymachus left Portsmouth to-day. She took sixteen hundred and ninety-eight men. Her captain received sealed orders for the Mediterranean. Her destination will be Alexandria and not Malta.

Preparing for a Meeting... PORT SAID, July 22.—At a meeting of the foreign consuls held yesterday it was agreed to call on the admirals and the captain of the men-of-war to the harbor, to ask what steps are to be taken for the security of the Europeans on shore in the event of an outbreak.

The Arabs at Ismailia are murdering the Copts. Every European has now left Cairo.

ALEXANDRIA, July 22.—Some correspondents having reported that a village a few miles out from Alexandria, a party of military proceeded thither last evening. They found the houses filled with plunder and brought forty prisoners here for trial.

The Alexandria Massacre Revisited... LONDON, July 22.—The correspondents of the Times at Alexandria writes that he is convinced that the report of the number of persons massacred at the time of the bombardment, was grossly exaggerated.

London, July 22.—A dispatch from Alexandria, dated at 4:25 this afternoon, says to-day two hundred and fifty rifles under an aide-de-camp of Gen. Alton, pushed beyond Milaha, six miles hence, to blow up the railway. They met some of Arabi Pasha's cavalry and several were exchanged. The Egyptians died after losing two dead and several wounded.

The rifles having finished their work withdrew. British troops now occupy Aboukir and will occupy Ramleh to-morrow. Arabi Pasha has levied a war-tax on the normal army of £500,000. The khedive has received advice that Arabi Pasha is well supplied with provisions and ammunition but that his forces are not increasing.
