COLUMBIA NEWS.

REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Events Along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and Around the Borough Picked Up by the Intelli-genera's Reporter. A little picnic was held on Chicques rock yesterday by a party of Columbians, It was a very pleasant affair. On Monday evening Sam Rich, a little boy residing in Shadtown, fell from the top of a fence and broke his arm. A pocket book containing a sum of money was lost yesterday by Mr. Bert Slade. Cards in it will identify the owner. A meeting of the sewing society of St. John's Lutheran church was held on Locust street last evening.

A game of baseball made things lively on the river dumps this afternoon. It was what is known as a "scrub" game. On the train that left for the Gettysburg encampment this morning were 228 persons from Marietta, and between 200 and 300 from this place. There were 21 cars on the train. Mr. C. F. Markel's new drug store at the Five Points has been opened for bus

Yesterday about 5 p. m., while several boys were playing at the corner of Fourth and Cherry streets, Frank Thomas, one of the party, received a severe cut in the knee, accidentally, from a knife in the hands of Charles Fink.

Personal Mention. Mr. M. Bachenheimer is spending a few days of pleasure at Atlantic City. Mr. Wm. Farley, of Chester county, visiting friends on Walnut street. Miss Mary Lannes is a guest of Mrs. Charles Williams on Cherry street. Messrs. Harry Hippey and Charles Strine, deputy sheriffs of Lancaster coun-ty, have returned from their visit to the Drank a Quart of Whisky. A man yesterday afternoon performed the feat of drinking a quart of whisky, at the Vigilant fire engine house. He did it to kill the toothache. It had the desired effect, but the wonder is that it did not kill him, bosides making him dead drunk.

The Disorderly Darkeys Two only, of the three colored men arrested for assaulting Mr. John Clark, on Monday, made their appearance at the hearing at 'Squire Grier's, last evening. The third, Bill Turney, did not turn up. As Ike Maple has a family that depends on him for support, he and Sol. Morris, the two that appeared, were discharged on payment of a fine and the costs. There is no doubt, but that the Maple's family could have gotten along very well without him for a few months.

Fancy Dress Ball. A large fancy dress ball was held in the armory last evening. Amongst the 70 or more who were present, were a number of ladies and gentlemen from adjacent towns. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. The dancing was continued until late in the night.

The party was given in honor Mrs. Donnelly's birthday. The boys were greatly pleased with their generous recep The party broke up about 12:30

The bakery team of Mr. Fred, Kuapf took fright on Locust street, this morning, and ran off up the street. In front of Reichard's grocery store the wagon struck a post, which broke the animal's headlong fright, and enabled the driver to gain control over him again.

Drunk and Disorderly. Officer Fisher escorted to the county jail this morning two men who were arrested yesterday for being drunk and

For creating a disturbance at A. Kruger's hotel, on Front street, on Saturday evening, Sam Read and Jacob Wanner were arrested and taken before 'Squire Frank last evening for a hearing. Both were ordered to pay a fine and the costs. Read settled his case, but Wanner says he will take his to court. The squire has given him until next Saturday evening to pay his costs; if he does not do it then he will be taken in charge again. A Boy's Leg cut Off.

John Gildersteeve, a lad of 12 years, had his left leg to badly mangled yesterday about 5 p. m., by having it caught be tween a car wheel and car axle box, while attempting to jump off of a P. R. R., freight train, that amputation was necessary. It was not performed until about half past ten o'clock, last night, when the limb-was taken off close to the body. The accident occurred between Union and Perry streets, on which latter the boy resides with his parents. He is lying in a very critical condition, his nervous system being greatly disturbed by the shock.

THE CAMPMEETING.

Children's Day-Large Crowds. This being children's day at the campmeeting the crowd is larger than upon any day before except Sunday. Sabbath school scholars are present from all neighboring towns and different parts of the county, and they are accomanied by their parents and friends, who swell the crowd considerably. Last evening's sermon at 7:30 o'clock was preached by Rev. W. J. Mills, formerly of Reading, but now in Philadelphia, whose text was "Why will ye die," from Ezekial xviii-31.

Rev. Mr. Oakes, of Tower City, Pa., who is a new arrival, was the leader of the prayer meeting this morning at 6, which was followed at 8:30 o'clock by similar meeting under charge of Rev. Mr. Yerkes, of Georgetown, this county. At 10 o'clock Rev. Dr. Murphy of Phenixville preached to a very large
