20.—The tariff commission gave a hearing to-day to C. M. Bones, jr., a William Henry Arnoux, of New York, represent ing the interest of the dealers in foreign newspapers, magazines and periodicals. They represented that busi-ness is unjustly discriminated against by the fact that these forgign newspapers and magazines come free through the mails under the postal union treaty when addressed directly to subscribers in the country, while coming in bulk to the dealers here they have to pay an ad valorem duty of 25 per cent. They ask that newspapers, unbound magazines and unbound periodicals shall be put upon the free list. There being no other persons asking for a hearing to day, the commis sion adjourned until Monday.
