Picked Up by the Intelligencer's Reporter. There is much complaint regarding the intolerable dirty condition o: Front street, and particularly that part of it between Walnut and Chestnut streets. The dust or mud, if the weather is clear or raining, is about three inches deep. When it is windy clouds of dust are swept into the houses, even covering the food on the table with a coating of grit and sand. The road committee of councils has been complained to, and the street may be cleared now. If it is not a petition to council may remedy matters.

Sufferers from Victorice. The horse which was killed at the St Charles' furnace, last week, was replaced this morning by a fine new animal.

A fight occurred on Saturday night, at Corney Bitner's beer saloon, between Ben Duck and Jake Heiselman. No one was hurt, and no arrests made.

John Smith, a lad residing in this place, was struck during the storm of Saturday afternoon by lightning. The flash hit his head, and ran along his arm to the hand A knife which he held had the blade torn out of the handle, and stuck into a tree which was near. The lad was very slightly injured by the lightning, strange as it may seem.

Railroad Wreck. At 2 o'clock this morning a wreck of car of a freight train was caused by a broken rail. A cabin car was knocked off the track and considerably broken this morning by a shifting train running into

The third of the series of this morning's accidents occurred about 8:45 at the crossings of the Reading and Columbia, and Port Deposit railroads. A passenger train of the latter road came along at the same time that an R. & C. coal train was about going out to the coal shutes. The flagman at the crossing says he flagged the passenger train, but no heed was taken of t. One of the coaches of this train was struck and badly broken at one end. The coal car was also broken. There were but four passengers on board at the time of the collision, fortunately no one was injured. The engineer of the Port train denies that he was flagged. There will be an investigation of the matter by tle Pennsylvania railroad officers here. Personal Points.

He marched his prisoners to Alderman Barr's office and turned them over to the tender mercies of that distinguished magistrate. The alderman knew very well that Kline was not an officer and had no authority to make the arrests but he didn't like the idea of losing a job so he had the prisoners held and tele phoned for a police officer. Officer Lewers was the first to put in an appearance. whereupon the alderman made out com mitments and sent the men arrested by Kline to jail-one of them for ten days and the other for thirty days. The severity of the sentence in the one case was because

RESCUED FROM DEATH. The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says : "In the tall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the sum-mer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my lett lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case is curable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years. "I writethis hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 North Queen street.

GREAT FIRE.

BECKER'S FLOUR MILLS BUKNING 500 Employees Ficeing for Their Lives. New York, July 31.-Hecker's flour

NEW YORK, July 31 .- A fire broke flour mills. The mill extends from Cherry to Water streets on the east side of Pike street. The flames made extraordinary headway, and a general alarm was sent thought that they all escaped from the buildings, though some of the employees believe that a few became so excited that they probably were caught up in the flames which spread with alarming rapidity. The firemen did their utmost to confine the flames to the old building in which it originated and which is eight stories high, but without success. A strong northerly breeze drove the flames from the Water street to the Cherry street side of the building and they burned through until the whole of the buildings, including the one on the southwest corner of Cherry and Pike streets, which was a substantial one, erected only a few years ago, were in flames, when it became an absolute certainty that the mills would be totally destroyed. The firemen directed their efforts toward saving the rookeries opposite the burning building, two which were three-story shanties, with wooden roofs. The heat from the fire was PHILADELPHIA, July 31 .- Flour sluggish, but so intense that they were again baffled in Rye flour at $3 75@4 00.

Adjoining the mill on Water street is the spice ware house of Fisher & Co., which will probably be burned. About 40 engines are at work on the burning buildings. The flour mill was ten stories in height While the firemen worked inside the old mill was seen to totter and sway. They were ordered out of the building and shortly afterwards the roof and walls fell in. The fireman had a very narrow escape for their lives. One fireman was struck by some bricks and had his leg broken by
