

THE WORLD'S WAY.

SOME RECENT STRIKING CASES.
Cutaneous Calamities and Crises—Unusual and Deaths.
In Montreal, the crown of the head of the statue of Lord Nelson, some sixty feet from the ground, was sliced off by lightning.

While picking cherries on his employer's farm in Brandywine Hundred, Del., Jonathan Dyer, sixty years old, fell from a tree and broke his neck.
Near Danbury, N. C., a diamond valued at $7,000 was found in the bed of a creek by Mr. James Pepper. Several diamonds have already been found in the state.

Near Garden Station, Arkansas, Ellis McKnight, colored, who tried to outrage Miss Baker, a young lady in the neighborhood, but was prevented by a house dog coming to her rescue, was captured by a man and castrated.
In Greensburg, Pa., Edith Kelly went out with Thomas Biggart Saturday night. At 2 o'clock in the morning the family, hearing groans, went into the parlor and found the girl dying in her lover's arms. She died at 7. An inquest was held and a verdict of death from natural causes rendered.

Harrison Mellen, his wife and Mary and Joseph Smith, his brother-in-law, who was sailing in a small boat on the North river, at New York, were upset. Helen reached shore safely, but his wife was drowned. Smith was struck by the wheel of a steamer and received serious injuries.
William H. Reichert, nineteen years old, fought with his father at his home, 1024 North Third street, Philadelphia, Saturday night. William, in making a blow at his parent, thrust his right hand and arm through a pane of glass, cutting the main artery, and nearly died to death before a doctor arrived.
During a terrible rain storm about three miles from Loomis, Ill., Geo. Miller and Hiram W. Hartley were killed by lightning. One of the men was engaged in feeding horses in a barn and the other was pitching hay.

Miss Margaret Chestnut and a little daughter of Mrs. John Babbitt, while bathing in the river at St. John, N. B., got beyond their depth. Mrs. Babbitt rushed in to save them and succeeded in rescuing her child. She returned for Miss Chestnut, when she was drowned.
While Mr. H. M. Caldwell, Mr. J. Hargett and several children were standing at the foot of a large tree near Charlotte, N. C., which Mr. Caldwell was about to cut down, lightning struck the tree and severely injured seven of the party, including Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Hargett.
John Kingsbury, of Muhlenburg, a farmer, while attempting to cross to the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad near Shickshinny with a team and wagon-load of produce, was struck by the mail train, hurled into the air and instantly killed. Both horses were injured, and were shot to relieve them from their suffering.

While excavations were being made in a ballast pit at Smith's fall, on the line of the Canadian Pacific railway, a perfect vertebra and a portion of a rib of an immense whale was found 27 miles inland from the St. Lawrence river. The find will be on exhibition during the meeting of the American Science Association at Montreal.
During a thunder shower at Westley, Mass., a wood shed near the house of Patrick Casey, in which several women and children had taken shelter, was struck by lightning, and two of Casey's children, a boy and a girl, were killed. One other child was seriously injured, and fatally injured, and a fourth was slightly affected on one side.
About 3 o'clock Saturday morning a mob of about sixty-five mounted men approached Chatham, Va., with the intention of taking W. H. Yantis, a murderer confined in the jail here and lynching him. A reconnoitering party was sent ahead to ascertain whether the prison was well guarded and whether there was a chance of successfully executing their project. They reported that excellent were on duty and watchful. The would-be-butchers then dispersed.
Julian Boyd, a prominent young planter, was fatally shot on the highway, near Thomson, Ga., on Wednesday night. He was taken home and the assassins tried to shoot him again through the window. The assassins were tracked and three brothers named Martin were arrested. Boyd failed to marry Miss Georgia, a sister of the Martin boys. Boyd is reported dead.
In Stanburville, O., John Harter, of the St. Charles hotel, becoming enraged at Dr. Johnson, a boarder in the hotel, sought to attack him in his rooms. Harter's father endeavored to pacify him, whereupon John drew a revolver on his father, when the younger brother, named Ed, rushed in between them and received the bullet in the left breast, killing him instantly. Josiah Salmon, a bystander tried to take the pistol away from John and was shot in the left hand. John was finally arrested. The murdered man was under indictment for killing George Aldridge a few months ago.

Joseph Billing heard from.
Newport, R. I., Aug. 11, 1882.
Dear Bitter—An hour has passed in all the suit of the ocean, and having been a sufferer for months, I have been cured. I was induced to mix Hop Bitters with the sea water, and have found the cure. I have been cured by the Bitter, and am not at all to say so.
Yours without a struggle,
JOSEPH BILLINGS.

MEDICAL.
(Letter from Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.)
A LADY SAID,
"Those Horrid Pimples, No. I Cannot Go, Please Present My Excuses."
Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives. Then she would have instead of a disfigured and married countenance, one that would be handsome or at least good looking, for any one with a clear, pure skin, no matter what the cut of her features are, has a certain amount of good looks which attract everybody. As it is now, she imagines every one sees and talks about "those freckles," "those horrid pimples," "and other blemishes with which she is afflicted, and this is true of either sex.

To improve this appearance great risks are taken; arsenic, mercury, or high-sound titled named articles containing these deno-bating drugs, are taken in many cases, death is the result. No alleviation of the burning, itching, healing and inflammation is given. All troubled with skin diseases should be sure to get this and not some old remedy resuscitated on the success of Dr. Benson's and now advertised as "The Great Skin Cure." There is only one that bears the doctor's picture and is for sale by all druggists. $1 per package.

A LAST CHANCE TO BUY CHEAP HATS! CHEAP HATS!

A great many persons cannot be suited with a ready-made shirt, and therefore require SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER, and the trouble has always been that those desiring a shirt made to order have been compelled to pay prices far above the real worth of such a shirt, paying for traveling agents' expenses, etc. As we have no expenses of this kind, we can take your measure and manufacture best quality shirts, viz: 23 1/2 inch bosoms and buttons; guaranteed quality; guaranteed fit, etc. for $1.50. The best recommendation we can give for fit, quality and workmanship, is that since January, 1882, we have taken over 200 orders, and have as yet the first word of complaint to hear. The best Ready-made Shirt is the "PEARL SHIRT," which we have either in open or closed bosoms with or without eyelet holes in bosom, and in all sizes. Boys' sizes, 12 to 14 inches, 50c. finished. Men's " 14 to 18 " $1.00.
