in default of two thousand donars ban, was committed to jail. The shooting took place at East Texas. It is claimed by Zimmerman's friends that he got lost on Violent Deaths. The body of an unknown man was dis-covered yesterday morning entangled in the wheel of an excursion boat stopping at Sixth street dock, Hoboken, N. Y. The man was dressed in laborer's clothes and appeared to be about thirty-five years of the fore was heady hereised as thomeh the way to the house of a friend, and that while stopping at the Schoymer hoase to inquire the way, the young man, without provocation or warning, shot four times at Zimmerman. The first shot lodged in the old man's back, inflicting,'a wound from age. The face was badly bruised, as though the head had been struck by the wheel. The remains were removed to Crane's morgue, Hoboken, where they are await-John Boyle, aged 21 years, shot himself the old man's back, inflicting, a wound from which he is now very dangerously sick and confined in the poorhouse. Schmoyer and his family allege that Zimmerman walked around the house and refused to reply when asked what he wanted, and that supposing him to be a thief the young Sunday afternoon while in a barn in the Second Mountain, near Scotch Plains, N. J., and died in half an hour. His man shot at him, not so much to hit him, weapon was an old pistol, which he found loaded in the barn. The day previous he had quarreled with his parents, with whom as to scare him off. The affair causes a great deal of excitement. Another account says that Zimmerman stopped at he lived, at Scotch Plains, and it is supposed that this caused him to commit sui-count says that Zimmerman stopped at Schmoyer's house, and seeing a light in the lower story aroused one of the lady members of the family, who asked him what he wanted. He was about telling her that he was lost, when an upper win-dow was raised and several shots were quickly fired. Zimmerman recled and staggered back, crying out that he was shot. Recovering, he walked away and was followed by Schmoyer's son, who kept up the firing, thinking the man was a robber. Zimmerman was badly wounded At Shenandoah last evening Thomas Robertson, a miner employed at the William Penn colliery, was sufficiented to death by gas in the colliery. The de-ceased was 40 years of age and leaves a wife and five children at Frackville, where he resided.
