EXTRAVAGANCE IN GOVERNMENT.

The Supreme Issue In Pennsylvania. The New York Sun, the ablest, most influential and widely circulated of the Inde-pendent journals of the country, in a recent

"The reckless profligacy and prodigality of this Congress exceed all experience.

out any honest attempt to reduce the burdens that weigh down industry and enter-

"If the Democrats are at all wise in their nominations, and in presenting the issue of retrenchment and reform, as they did in 1874, history will be apt to repeat itself in the experience of the coming

The present campaign in Pennsylvania is a State campaign, waged for the redemption of the commonwealth and the purification of its politics. While the candidates of the Democracy are Democrats, nominated in a Demo cratic State convention, their record and the platform on which they stand "invite the co-operation of all honest citizens who desire the re-establishment of honest government." That is the sole issue of the contest. The Democracy aim at the overthrow of boss rule, of the spoils system, of legislative corruption, of administrative abuses and of pardon board infamies. They present the most effective means to do it by offering for election a stainless ticket of men known to the State, whose integrity is above reproach and whose courage is unchallenged. No honest man seeking to secure honest government need fear to vote for Pattison, Black, Africa, Clark and Elliott.

Because they are Reformers and honest and intelligent men. They have the brains to know the right and the courage to fight

Mr. Pattison is a young man who has achieved a national reputation because of his courageous and successful efforts for municipal reform. For years the tongue and pen of Mr. Black have been engaged in the exposure and correction of governmental abuses. Messrs. Clark and Elliott were tall tigures in the constitutional convention which accomplished such reforms for Pennsylvania; while Mr. Africa as chief clerk in the office for which he is now the nominee, proved himself so efficient and popular that in 1878 he ran 10,000 votes ahead of his ticket. When Pattison entered upon the duties of his office as controller he official extravagance and municipal maladministration prevailing to a remarkable degree in Philadelphia. The permanent debt, the department expenses and tax rate were all increasing yearly. From the very outset Pattison turned the tide. He not only checked the constant increase. He has effected a steady decrease. Instead of an average yearly addition of $3.622,406 to the city debt there is now a steady reduction of $1,246,737 per annum: the department expenses have gone down from $8,184, 961.20 to $6,883,326.92, a reduction per annum of 81,301.634.28; and the tax levy is reduced from $2.25 to $1.90, a reduction of the annual burden on property of 35 cents on every $100 of valuation,

The Philadelphia Record, whose proprie tor was a delegate to the State convention and voted against Mr. Pattison, said of

"It must be conceded that in the office of controller of Philadelphia he has given proofs of firmness, integrity and executive ability of a high order—qualities that are eminently requisite for the proper discharge of the duties of the chief magis tracy of Pennsylvania. In his management of the financial affairs of the city h has brought order and simplicity out of chaos, and has introduced an accountability in municipal trusts which has saved large sums of money to the taxpayer. He has permitted neither party nor personal considerations to swerve him from the courageous discharge of his official duties. There are many abuses in the State gov-ernment, many and deep-seated, which await a strong hand of this kind for their eradication. Partly by design and partly by neglect, important provisions of the constitution have failed of enforcement and the election of Pattison would afford a guarantee that the constitution had at last been brought under the guardianship of

The New York Sun thus points out what would result from Pattison's election: "The election of Pattison to be governor would mean only in the State what his election to be comptroller meant in Philadelphia, a pure administration, the scatter-ing of the rings, the baffling of the thieves, and an honest and decent State government for the term of four years. This may be a prospect full of terrors to the bosses, but it has no terrors whatever for the taxpayers of any party."

George Alfred Townsend, a bitter Republican partisan, in writing of Pattison,

"He obtained the very responsible place of comptroller, or watch-dog, of the city treasury, and there it was astonishing how one man, educated in honor and the fear of God, could be distinguished in a peculating and thieving age. He positively did not know how to steal, though he had been always poor. This made him eminent in Philadelphia politics, and very unfash-ionable. But it pleased the taxpayers, who hardly knew what was theirs unless they sat on it. And finally, at the age of thirty-two, this little boy, born at the old town of Snow Hill, which is older than Annapolis, verifies the text I once heard his father preach a sermon from: "Thou hast been faithful over a few things; lo, I will make thee ruler over many."

"TO THEIR SATISFACTION."

Golden Words From the People's Candidate

Doylestown Democrat. In his letter of acceptance, Robert E. Pattison, Democratic candidate for governor, makes use of these words: accept the nomination for governor, and, if chosen for the office by the people, I will strive to perform its duties to their

He will perform the duties of his office to the satisfaction of the people. These are golden words. How long has it been since a candidate for governor, of either party, made use of them in accepting his nomination? So long ago, in fact, that we do not remember to have ever read them before. Letters of acceptance are generally drawn up in the regulation style, and couched in language to suit the party leaders. It is the rule, and the exception are "few and far between," that public officers of all grades, from president down to tide waiter, are administered in the interest of the man who holds it for the time being, of the bosses who nominated him, or in the interest of the party he represents. Of late years, the Republican leaders have taught the people that offices are no longer places of public trust, but a reward for party services, and the more idea that the people at large, the tax-payers who pay the malary, have an interest in the way the office is administered is considered a ridiculous fiction. But Mr. Pattison's letter of acceptance cuunciates a new doctrine. It distinctly recognizes the power of the people, that the offices belong to them, and, in case of his elec-tion, he pledges himself to administer his high trust to their satisfaction, and in their interest. This is coming down to what may be termed political hard-pan, and an-sounces the great principle that in this country the government must be "a gov-ernment of the people, for the people, and by the people."

by the people.' What a magnificent declaration this is to start out with in a political campaign! There never was a clearer recognition of the source of all political power. When Governor Pattison is approached by a of this Congress exceed an eap.

"The farmers, the mechanics, the laborers, and the plain people, as Mr. Lincoln called them, who pay the great body of the taxes by the sweat of their brows, have cried aloud for relief; and they have cried aloud for relief; and they have cried aloud for relief; and they have cried administer the government to the people's satisfaction. Well done, Pattison! You have a clear idea of the true inwardness of the people can trust have a clear idea of the true inwardness of the people can trust office holding, and the people can trust you with political power. If Beaver have any idea on office holding, above administering it to the satisfaction of the bosses, let him stand up and answer.
