A BIG BUG.

Dr. Hathorn Explores the Animal, FAIRFIELD, July 31, 1882.

DEAR INTELLIGENCER: I send you herewith a bug, or something of the buggy nature, handed me by two of your readers—Messrs. Samuel Martin and Hiram Harvey, who would be pleased if you can persuade Dr. Hathorn to kindly classify it through your columns. It was found in Mr. Martin's tobacco patch, and the gentlemen are desirous of knowing the name of the "quar looking thing."

For myself, I am not much an admirer of "Great ugly things."

All legs and wings. With many long tails armed with nasty long strings. nor have any inclination to be "Poking and peeping After things creeping, Or crawling and thinking, And blinking and winking."

but one is forced to manifest an interest sometimes, and the learned doctor's previous kindness has spoiled us. Yours, very truly, W. F. M.

The insect referred to above is the Delastoma Americana, of naturalists, for which I know no common name other than the "American Helastoma."

It is a true "bug" and a "big-bug" at that—indeed, it is distinguished as being the largest species of bug that exists in North America.

It is amphibious in its character, and during the larval and pupal periods lives exclusively in the water; its curatorial or ambulatory abilities are very defective, but it is a great swimmer and diver, and when its wings are fully developed it is to a limited extent a good flyer.

Its systematic position in insect classification is in the order Hemiptera (Half-wings) because its elytra or wing-covers are not wholly coriaceous, or leathery, but on the contrary the apical portions are membranaceous.

MEDICAL.

A LADY SAID, (From Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.)

"These Horrid Pimples, No, I cannot Go, Please Remove My Name."

Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives.

To improve this appearance great risks are taken; arsenic, mercury, or high-sounding titled named articles containing these death-dealing drugs, are taken in hopes of getting rid of all these troubles.

A Sensation. HAS OFTEN BEEN MADE by the discovery of some new thing, but nothing has ever stood the test like Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills.

It makes the skin white, soft and smooth, removes tan and freckles, and is the best toilet dressing in the world. It is elegantly put up in two bottles in one package, containing both internal and external treatment.

It is entirely curative in its habits, and although destitute of mouth and teeth, it has a powerful secretory apparatus with which it pierces the bodies of other animals and absorbs their fluids.
