FRANK FARRELL'S CASE. Letter From Mrs. Farrell—She Contradicts the Superintendent and Hospital Physicians.

Mrs. Mary Farrell, the widow of Frank

Farrell, the circumstances of whose sufferings and death have been narrated in these olumns, communicates the following : EDS. INTELLIGENCER: My attention has been called to the proceedings of an irterview had by the newspaper rporters with the poor directors, hospital superirtendent and physicians, wherein it is said by Superintendent Spurrier and Dr. Bole nius that after my husband had been taken from the hospital by me and returned to that institution a week later, he was in much worse condition than he was when I removed him. This statement is not true. When I returned him to the hospital because of my inability to get a house in which to keep him, or to secure a proper nurse for him, his body was free from sores, and he could manage to walk up and down stairs. When I took him away from that hospital, six weeks later, he was perfectly helpless, covered with sores and filth, and the worst possible condition, as will be attested by Drs. Boyd and Me

As to my taking him delicacies which he had better not had, as the superintend ent said. I auswer that I took him food because I found him to be almost starved, that is one reason why, finally, I took him

Mr. Spurrier says my husband was never eaten unless Dick, the nurse, beat him. I know that he was beaten by Slater, the insane nurse, who was the last to have charge of him. I make these statements because the hospital officials have tried to make it appear that he was better cared for and was in botter condition while in their charge than while in mine. Very respectfully, MARY FARRELL.

Daugerous Street. The last city councils passed an ordinance compelling persons who dig trenches in the street to level the ground, restoring it to its former condition. Why this ordinance is not enforced is a mystery. On South Queen street treuches were dug for gas pipes several months ago. They were never leveled and the street is so rough persons who are compelled to drive over it do at the risk of breaking the vehicle and injuring their borses.

GREAT FIRE IN QUEBEC

FLAMES THREATENING DESTRUCTION. A Suburb of the City Ablaze, and the Flame Spreading With Terrible Kapidity-

Scenes That Beggar Descrip QUEBEC, Aug. 12.-Shortly after one o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in St. Sanvier, a suburb of this city. At 2:30 a. m., twenty houses had been de stroyed. There are no water works here, the supply of water being derived from cisterns, many of which have already given out. The wind is blowing in the given out. The wind is blowing in the direction of the city, and it is feared if the fire crosses into the suburbs of St. Sanvier a third of the city will be destroyed.

The fire originated in a stable attached to Dion's self-raising flour establishment and was caused by the careless handling of a candle. The fire had burned for a long time before an alarm was sounded. St. Sauvier has no water supply but that derived from cisterns and wells and some of them were quickly pumped dry. Old-fashioned hand engines were worked at the wells. Notwithstanding all their efforts the flames spread rapidly and defled for a time all efforts to restrain their fury. The situation of the starting point of the situation of the situation of the starting point of the situation of the substitution of the starting point of the situation of the substitution of the The situation of the starting point of the fire is about 200 yards from the city courts and a little in the rear of St. Valier street. Whatever wind was stirring blew in the direction of the fire.

This fire beggars description. On riving from the city visitors found the streets densely packed with people, thous-ands upon thousands crowding everywhere and impeding the movements of the firemen. The glare was such that at the distance of half a mile a newspaper could be distinctly read by the light all around. At the distance of several blocks from the fire people were hauling and throwing their household goods around in all directions and often in the most ludicrous manner. Cartmen plied a lucrative traffic, assisting in removing the property from the scene of danger. A number of mis-creants thronged the back streets, dishonestly profiting by the misfortunes of their neighbors and making away in the most barefaced fashion with everything they could lay their hands on. By 2:30 o'clock the following properties on Sauvier street had fallen prey to the flames: Mr. McHugh, laborer, loss 700; Blouia, butcher, $1,200; Dion self raising flour, loss $4,000; Lapointe, pilot, two houses, $3,000; Labrecher, milkman, $2,000. Most of the above properties were of workmen. The fire stopped on this street at Mr. Tanguay's residence. A few small houses are burned on Demars and Bagot streets. The fire quickly broke through from the heat of the street. through from the back of St. Valiere street, taking possession firstly of the carriage factory of Mr. Prosper Giroux.

riage factory of Mr. Prosper Giroux.

This was a wooden shop and factory which burned for a considerable length of time. On either side of it were two immense brick blocks, among the finest in St. Sauvier, which were destroyed. They were owned by P. Giroux, Journey and Mr. Leckline, shoemaker, and one other, the property of J. Plamond, dry goods merchant, was also burned. All of these properties are insured principally in the properties are insured, principally in the Royal, Queen end other English companies. Each block must have been worth

IN THE HANDS OF A MOB. A Fire Interrupts an Attempted Lynching. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 12.-In the early part of last evening at Taylorsville the belief prevailed that everything had quieted down and bail was being arranged for the three men, Clement, Pettis and MINUTE EVER SINCE with our Endroat Montgomery, who are charged with ravishing Miss Bond. At about midnight, however, a mob of 3,000 or 4,000 men overpowered the officers, took the prisoners from the jail and carried them out of town with the avowed intention of hanging them.

The mob tried in vain ta extort a confor the three men, Ciement, Pettis and

LANCASTER STATION. August 5, 18 2 5

I have carried for nearly TWO YEARS a Lancaster Watch of the "keystone" stemwind grade. It has given me perfect satisfaction in every respect, but especially as an accurate time-keeper—for it has kept WITHIN THE MINUTE with our Standard Railroad
Time during the entire past year! To all persons who are required to have correct time, but especially to RAILROAD MEN. I would confidently recommend the Lancaster Watch.

Passenger Agent.

2. "Keystone." During the past forty years I have carried a number of watches, but the Lancaster Watch of the "Keystone" stem-winding grade, is the best I have ever had for keeping time. I have had it now for nearly TWO I EARS. It runs "to the dot" always, and is as true as any Three-Hundred Dollar Watch I have ever seen. I don't believe there was ever a better time keeper, for ordinary use, turned out of any watch lactory in the world.
