REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE

Events Along the Susquehanna-Items Interest in and Around the Borough Picked Up by the Intelligencer's Reporter.

A new grocery store has been started of North Front street by Mr. W. T. Conner. Mr Harvey Cobie has removed to Philadelphia. He leaves behind him a host of friends who regret his departure. William Mullen's horse ran away on Locust street last evening. His career was stopped before he did any damage. Owing to the exceedingly low stage of the water in the river, canal boats which are ran's drug store, 177 North Queen street, Lan loaded at the R & C. railroad coal shutes, have to be taken out of the basin by means of a windlass. A train from Port Deposit, loaded with peaches, went from Columbia to Harrisburg this morning, in 50 minutes. This is pretty quick time, the distance being 28

There has just arrived at the Shawner furnaces another narrow-guage engine. It will be used for shifting cars used at the furnaces and in transporting cinders away from the casting houses.

Four promotions of firemen to engineers were made last Saturday on the Pennsylvania railroad. The fortunate men are, Messrs, John Detz. William Armstrong, George Murr and Wm. Glosser. The pro motions are good ones and well deserved. The heating apparatus of the opera house is being put in order, so that a fire can be started as soon as there is a demand for it. If this sort of weather continues much longer the demand will not bo a long time coming. Officer Dysinger found a drunken colored man, a stranger, lying in a gutter last night. He assisted the man to the lockup where he could have time enough to be able to take a trip to the "castle" i i Lancaster. A rowing party took advantage of the beauty of last evening to have moonlight excurson. Wrightsville was resorted to for ice cream. This same programme is carried out about every evening by different parties. While F. Snyder's wagon was being un loaded of two barrels of sugar at his store this morning, the wagon was tipped in the air by being backed into a gutter against the curbstone. The sugar was thrown out on the pavement, breaking the tailgate of the wagon as it fell. Local Personals.

Miss Mamie Rentz, of Philadelphia, i visiting friends on Walnut street. Mr. Will Galbraith returned from Philadelphia last evening, after a pleasant visit to old friends.

Mrs. A. Jessel, who has been absent on a three weeks' visit to friends, returned home last evening.

A Young Hero. While several boys were playing along the river yesterday one of them fell into the water and was rescued in a gallant manner by Charlie Wilson, a son of the superintendent of the Reading & Columbia railroad. Charlie is quite a young hero amongst his associates now, as indeed he should be, for his bravery saved a human lite.

The Biverside Home's Annual Picnic. On Wednesday, August 23d, the tenth ne of Riverside Home. No. 27 II. C. (H. F.) of Pa., will be held in in Heise's woods. The tickets will be 50 cents. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Ironville orchestra, Mesers. A. Rosenthal, B. Beitler and L. Yontz, the executive committee.

Fell and Broke His Arm. While working at the stove works, yesterday, afternoon, George Christy, an apprenticed carpenter, fell from the girders of the moulding house, a distance of 20 feet, and broke one of his arms. A heavy plank at which he was working tilted and fell to the ground, striking him in its descent and causing the accident. He also sustained some bruises about the body. Obituary.

Mrs. Elizabeth Berntheisel, of Mountville, mother of Dr. Berntheisel, of this place, died on Monday morning at 5 o'clock, of cholera morbus, at her late residence, at the age of 62 years and 6 months. She will be buried to-morrow at 10 a. m., in Mountville.

Michael Sourbeer, a brother of Joshua Sourbeer of this place, died near East Germantown, Indiana, last Friday, at the age of 74 years. He will be interred at the above place. Deceased removed West about 20 years ago. Another Campmeeting,

A campmeating will be held near Creswell station, on the Port Deposit railroad, by the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, of Columbia, commencing Aug. 24, and continuing over two Sundays. The church of this congregation will be the scene of a grand concert, which will be held there this evening. Prof. Dungees, of Baltimore, assisted by several tine soprano and alto singers, will conduct it. Those who enjoy fine vocalism should not miss this The Last of the Season.

A grand excursion to Atlantic City, the last of the season, will be given by Hav erstick & Clark, of Lancaster, on the 25th of August. Tickets from Columbia will be only $3. They can be secured at Allison's book store. Persons desiring to do so can go through to the seashore, remain a day there, and then return to Philadel phia for a day's pleasure or business; or they can stop at Philadelphia for a day first, and then go to Atlantic City. The tickets are good for two days and can be used on all trains returning. As the last excursion given by these gentlemen was such a success, this doubtless will be the allitd Barlow & Wilson to Open the Season.-Ox Friday evening the famous minstrel troup ot Barlow & Wi'son will open the season a Fulton opera house. The company has been entirely reorganized since its tast appearance in this city, and is now undoubtedly one of the best organizations in minstrelsy-com prising forty-five members, and including many of the old time tavorites, Milt Barlow Geo. Wilson, Luke Schooleratt, Geo. H. Coes, Happy Cal Wagner, and a host of additional got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surjolly good fellows. The Wilkesburre Record, speaking of the recent appearance of the com-pany in that city, says their performance has, throughout, the great excellence of originality. Their jokes and sallies are entirely fresh, and their combinations and specialties all bear evidence of taste and genius. The airs in the first part were exceptionally well rendered while the choruses, castanet and tambouring effects were happily chosen and executed with ekill.

in of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says : "In the fall of 1876 I was taker with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and fiesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital While there the doctors said I had a hole in my lett lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23rd, 1882, my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I prise and gratification, I comme setter. My hope, once dead, began to revive and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

The Owner of a House and His Two Hired Men Found Dead and the House Ransacked, CINCAGO, Aug. 22 .- Additional partieulars of the murder of McMahon and his two hired men show conclusively that it was planned with the most deliberate pur pose and executed with the most fiendish determination. The house was ransacked, $2,000 taken and the household goeds broken up. The coroner's jury decided that the murders were committed by unknown persons, but the whole country is ablaze and alert. Lynch law will be inevitable if the murderers can be secured Suspicion rests upon a man who worked for the farmer some mouths ago, and wbo was seen on the farm last Thursday. Footprints, as of two men walking single file, were discovered and followed two miles across lots until the trail was lost in the main road. There are no other clues. The assassins had watered and retary of State Carr, in which he holds fed their horses, and taken other precautions to prevent the discovery of the crime. They were not novices in the dreadful work. ANTLORNELL DELEGATES.

Three Assembly Districts That are "Agin" ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 22.-Delegates to the Republican state convention in the 1st. 2d and 3d Assembly districts, were elected to day. They are not instructed, but are understood to be anti-Cornell. In 2d district a resolution indorsing the presdent's administration was adopted, and one indorsing Governor Cornell was defeated by a large majority. In the 3d district a resolution was adopted approving the president's veto of the river and barbor bill, and condemning the representatives who voted to pass it over the veto.

An Important Decision. ALBANY, Aug. 23.-Attorney General Russell has forwarded an opinion to Sethat the votes for representatives in Congress for the state at large should be upon the ticket headed "Congress," and not upon the state ticket, as some have maintained.
