Schoenberger, assault and battery, with Philip Weber, the prosecutor, for costs.

This morning the petition of Augustus Maisch, husband of Elizabeth E. Maisch, who at the April sessions was acquitted of murdering her mother-in-law and was sent to the insane asylum was presented to the court. It was accompanied by the affidavits of Drs. Belenius and Welchans and Superintendent Spurrier of the insane asylum and set forth that since the woman's confinement at the hospital her reason has been restored. The court directed an inquisition to be empanueled, which shall consist of one physician, one lawyer and one layman, to pass upon the mental condition of Mrs Maisch and report to the

The Upper District.

Philadelphia Evening Telegraph. Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

What are the Independent Republicans of the 14th district going to do about it? It is doubtless true, as stated, that a clear majority of the Republican voters in the district are opposed to Mr. Cameron's return to the Senate. Stehman's majority at the primaries, which was nothing to boast of, was the result of two things, viz.: Independent apathy and Stalwart trickery. As Kaufman put it, Cameron machine ploughed with his heifer—in other words, the Independent candidate other words, the Independent candidate was thoroughly deceived as to the plans of his opponents in certain Independent strongholds. Further, the Cameron candidate begged the issue, and pretended to be uncommitted in regard to the scente-rial succession. He should now be compelled to answer squarely, and show just where he stands. Even then, however, the Independents might be again deceived. They know Stehman is secretly pledged to Cameron, and their only course is to nominate and vote for a candidate whom they know they can trust. It is entirely within their power to prevent the ma-chine's expected triumph, and they will be derelict in a great public duty should they fail promptly and effectively to use

Bowdles Arrested. Last evening Edward Feagley and John Brimmer, (of Middle street), both of whom were intoxicated, went to Norbeck & Miley's coach works, where Feagley demanded that certain brushes, which he claimed to own, be given to him. Mr. Norbeck said they were locked up, and refused to give them to him, whereupon he fused to give them to him, whereupon he siezed a hammer and saying that he would have them if he had to break all the locks in the place, he and Brimmer went up stairs to put the threat into execution. They were bustled down stairs by Mr. Chambers and thence into the street by Mr. Norbeck. Feagley and Brimmer then picked up stones with which to bombard the building, the former throwing through the building, the former throwing through the doorway, but doing only slight damage. Mr. Norbeck made complaint against them and they were arrested and locked up for a hearing. Brimmer is a brother of Tid Brimmer, now in jail for setting Ranck's barn and other buildings

BURGLARY AND ROBBERY.

Last night burglars effected an entrance into the store of Amos Hershey & Bro., at Kinzer's station, by forcing the front door. They stole from the shelves and cases a lot of silk handkerchiefs, knives, shoes and other articles to the value of $150, and with gunpowder or other explosive blew open a Farrell & Herring safe and stole therefrom about $100 in money. The safe had a combination lock which the thieves could not open, but into which they worked the explosives by means of which they tore the whole safe to pieces Two stout men who were dark clothes and who were seen in the vicinity before the burglary are suspected, but no clue to their whereabouts has since been discov-

Atlantic City Over the Pennsylvania Rail On Friday next, August 25th, the last excursion of the season under the management of Haverstick & Clark will be run to Atlantic City. All who contemplate going should take advantage of this cheap trip. The tickets for the round trip are only $3 and good for two days. The bathing now is first class, the water being warm. Parties wishing to remain in Philadelphia can do so without going to Atlantic City. Tickets good to return on any train. Train leaves Pennsylvania railroad depot at 6 o'clock a. m. By all means go. Tickets for sale at all stations along the route.

A Beal Wedding.

At the Capstatter-Volksfest at Tell's Hain, on Monday, there was a sham marriage and baptism, the ceremony being performed to show the natives the manner of performing these rites in Suabia. Yesterday at the same place there was a real wedding, the groom being Mr. Au-dreas Schmoder and the bride Miss Autonette Huck. The marriage ceremony was performed by Wm. Roehm, notary pub-lic. The witnesses were Capt. E. Mc. Mellen and George Goll.

The Tobacco Crop Poor. A gentleman who just arrived in town to-day after having taken a trip through the northern part of Lancaster county and also through Dauphin and Lebanon coun-ties, reports that he finds the tobacco crop very poor almost everywhere, and in nine fields out of ten the crops will not be near what they should. There are some good fields, but very few. The corn crop will be heavy.

Presentation of a Gavel and Base. On Monday evening the members of Camp 13 P. O. S. of A., of Columbia, paid a visit to Washington camp, No. 27 of this city, and presented them with a fine mahogony gavel and marble base, inscribed: "Presented to Washington Camp No. 27 P. O. S. of A."

Larosay of a Boat. Wm. Kegley and Walter Marshbank were arrested last evening and locked up to answer the charge of stealing a boat from What Gien park. They will be given a hearing before Alderman Barr, who is to-day out of town.

Sale of Real Estate. Henry Shubert, auctioneer and real estate agent, sold at private sale, a one and a-half story brick dwelling belonging to Alexander Harris, esq., situated on the north side of North street, No. 424, to Mathias Steinwandel, for $900.

The fortieth birthday of Night Officer Henry Rodenhauser, well known as the vigilant and efficient night guardian of South Locust street, was celebrated at his residence on Sixth street last evening by an elegant banquet, which he gave to his friends. The supper was one to make an epicuro's mouth water. A number of handsome presents showed that absent friends had not forgotten him. A fine hunting case watch was among the gifts. After the supper came music and the presence of a good story teller added to the enjoyment of the guests, who will long remember the happy occasion.

Death by Apoplexy. Mr. Meyer Hanauer, brother of David Hauauer, of this place, died at the residence of the latter last evening, of apo-plexy, in his 58th year. Deceased was a resident of Pittsburgh, and has been spending the last three weeks at the seashore with his wife and two daughers for his health. They all arrived in Columbia last evening, intending to make a short visit to the brother of deceased. The latter had taken a bath immediately after his arrival, and being attacked with faintness while descending to the parlor, hurried into the latter room and sank on to a sofa. Medical assistance was immediately summoned, and the unfortunate man removed to a bedroom, where he expired in death has been a terrible shock to both his own and brother's family. Steers vs. Watermelons Joe Bear, the huckster, has now and has had for some time a large pile of water-melons lying on the pavement and street in front of his stand at the Orange street side of Shober's hotel. This morning a lot of heavy steers were being driven along the street, when they suddenly espied the pile of huge melons. They went at once to the fruit and in a few moments everal of them were tramping all over them. About fifteen melous were mashed and partially eaten before the animals could be driven off. The affair made the owner of the melons very angry, but Syracuse Iron Works Burned SYRACUSE, N. Y., August 28.-A fire broke out in the main building of the Syracuse iron works last night. The main mill was destroyed but the other buildings were saved intact. The loss on the buildings, machinery and stock is $200,000. Total insurance, $54,000. The fire originated in a freight car filled with straw standing on the track beside the mill. Two hundred and eighty operatives are thrown out of employment. The mill will be rebuilt at once.

CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL LIBEL. The Mayor of Jersey City Sues a Newspaper. JERSEY CITY, N. J., Aug. 23—Isaac W. Faussig, mayor of Jersey City, to day appe_red before Police Justice Laurence and procured a warrant for the arrest of Edward A. Ransom, editor of the Hudson County Ledger, on a charge of criminal libel. The complaint is made on an article published in that paper on the 19th inst., in which the mayor and six aldermen are alleged to have been bribed to pass an ordinance permitting the National Docks railway company to build an elevated railroad from their docks at Commimipaw to con nect with the Pennsylvania railroad at the Point of Rocks. Mr. Ransom has not yet been arrested. The penalty for the alleged offense under the laws of New Jersey is five years imprisonment in the state prison.

HUNTING DOWN MURDERESS.

The Triple Assassination on the McMahon who has been much reduced lately, and been working out. He knew McMahon well, being distantly related to him. His actions and record are suspicious. John S. Peltz and Oliver Hall, his brother, are also suspected. None of them are arrested but all are shadowed.
