The families of Messrs, John Fendrich and S. S. Detweiler, have returned home from a trip to Asbury Park.

Miss Pattie Watson, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry Pfahler, left for home this morning. Seriously Injured in a Driving Accident. A runaway team was caught at Becker's rolling mill, Chicques, last evening, by Jacob McLain. A search for the driver was made, as he did not put in an appearance, and he was found in an insensible state, between the two bridges at Chiques, on the Marietta and Columbia turnpike,

Blood was flowing from his nose and ears, and there was a deep cut across his forehead. He was removed to a house near by and medical assistance summoned, but he was still unconscious this morning. He had been to Columbia on business, and was returning home. The name of the injured man is Jacob Dysinger. Homes for Stove Works Employees The block of ground belonging to the

Keely stove work's company, bounded east by Third street, north by Cedar street, west by Second street, and South by Linden street, has been divided into conveniently sized building lots, and is now offered for sale at the following prices:

Lots on 2nd and 3d streets, 120 feet deep, seven dollars per foot; lots on Cedar and Linden streets, 200 feet deep, ten dollars per foot. Purchasers must agree to build dwellings immediately, to be rented to employees of the company at a reasonable rentage. Here is a good investment for contractors, builders, and men of money. For fall information apply to the committee having charge of the sale of the ground, Messrs. W. B. Given, H. Wilson and S. S. Detwiler.

THE HAYES FIRE LADDER.

Isspected by the Committee of Councils. Chief Howell, of the fire department and the committee of councils who visited Philadelphia yesterday to inquire into the working of the Hayes fire ladder and truck, heretofore referred to in these coluums, returned to Lancaster last evening. They had an opportunity of seeing the ladder in actual service, having been kindly taken in charge by the assistant engineer of the second fire district who gave them a rapid ride of several squares on the truck, and placed the ladders in working order in the street in front of a six story building. A few men by means of a windlass can rapidly elevate the ladders either perpendicularly or at any given angle, and without moving the truck change the top of the ladder from one side of the street to the other or from one story of a building to the other, without the least difficulty. The ladders are made of a peculiar kind of wood grown in Oregan. and so tough is the wood and so strong are the ladders that three lines of hose and enough men to man them can be carried to a height of 85 feet, and at this dizzy height he used both for the purpose of playing streams of water into upper windows or rescuing porsons from burning buildings. The manufac-turer guarantees the ladder to support a man on every step of it from bottom to top, and yet the weight of the machine is no greater if as great as the old fashioned truck and hand ladders.

The committee, we are told, are greatly delighted with the operations shown them and will probably recommend the pur-chase of one for this city. The only drawback appears to be the cost. The truck and ladder viewed by them yesterday cost $3,700, but the manufacturer says he can build one less elaborately finished and of sufficient height to reach any roof in Lan-caster for $2,700 or $3,000. The old-fashioned hook and ladder truck costs from $1,600 to $1,800, and it would appear to be a matter of economy to pay the difference and then secure an article in every way superior. The saving of a single valuable property or the rescuing of a single life is of much more imortance to the city than the outlay of $1,000. We are told that the very first time the Philaput in service, it was the means of saving property greatly in excess of its cost.

The committee say they were very cor-dially received, and handsomely entertain-ed by the Philadelphia firemen.

Surprise Party. Last evening Miss Maggie Hart, residing at No. 553 Green street, having attained her 19th year, was pleasantly spent pleasantly and all seemed to enjoy themselves.

Twenty-First Birthday. Yesterday was the twenty-first birthday of Charles W. Bitner, son of C. A. Bitner. In the evening his fellow-members of the Union fire company, headed by the City band, marched to his father's residence, on the Marietta pike, where they gave him a serenade. Afterwards Mr. Bitner took the whole party to Eugene Bauer's Golden Horse hotel, where he gave them an excellent set out and all enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

The Grand Jury. At 10 o'clock this body went out to visit the county institutions. They met the county commissioners and board of building which was damaged by fire.

The Minstrels To-night .- It is perhaps scarcely necessary to remind our readers that the Fulton opera house season opens to night, which fact of itse!f should be enough to draw a large and brilliant audien: e; and when it is added that the special attraction is the celebrated Barlow-Wilson minstrel company there does not remain any reason to doubt they will be cordially received. The organization is so well and favorably known in this community that an introduction is not need ed, but Manager Mishler, who brings the company, says the performance now is better

Van Amburg's Show On Tuesday next the old reliable Van Amburg circus which is owned and managed by Hyatt Frost, the veteran showman, will appear in this city, exhibiting on the lot at Charlotte street and the Harrisburg pike. This dways has been a good show, and it is said to be better this season than ever. Connected with it is a very fine menagerie, and the ring performers include hosts of celebrated Euroocan and American stars. The show appears in Strasburg on Monday.

RESCUED PROM DEATH. ers. He says : "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the sum mer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and med icines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at poor directors and all took a look at the my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sick ness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. sold by H. B. Cochran, 187 North Queen street

NEW CASTLE, Del., Aug. 25.-James Redden, the negro hanged here to-day for rape on a 12-year-old white girl named Sallie Purse, near Odessa last February, passed a very restless night, praying and walking the floor until 3 o'clock this morning, when he fell asleep and rested for an hour and a half. Yesterday afternoon he was visited by two clergymen, who spent half an hour with him. His mother, who was to have visited him yesterday, failed to arrive. From 9 o'clock this morning up to the bour of his execution Redden was closeted in his cell with the Revs. Nicholas M. Brown, of New Castle, and Wesley J. Parker (colored), pastor of Ezion M. E. church, Wilmington. They prayed with him and he joined in a steady voice in singing "Salvation Free " and several other hymns, Gone to his Death.

Mr. Parker, Warden Hance, Sheriff Clark and his son George Clark, ascended the upon that day a reception will be given in scaffold with a firm step and took his place on the trap. Rev. Parker offered up a short praper, after which the noose was adjusted, the black cap drawn over the prisoner's face, his ankles pinioned, and without saying a word to those assembled he was launched into eternity at 10:17. He died easily of strangulation in 11 min utes.

The execution was witnessed only by the jail, two physicians, two clergymen, the jurors and press representatives, and one woman who manifested a strong disposition to see a man hung.
