ARAB'S BATTLE GROUND

SIR GARNET WOLSELEY'S CONTEST.

Recounting how he took possession of the Dam Between Magtar and Mahuta.

The British occupying Magtar.

General Sir Garnet Wolseley recounts an engagement at Magtar on Thursday, in which he held his ground the whole day against ten thousand Egyptians. His forces numbered about two thousand men. In his details Gen. Wolseley says: "I advanced this morning before daybreak, with the Household Cavalry, two horse artillery guns, thirty mounted infantry, one thousand men from the York and Lancaster Regiment and the marines. After some skirmishing I took possession of the dam which the enemy had constructed across the canal between the villages of Magtar and Mahuta. During the operations two squadrons of the Household Cavalry charged the enemy's broken infantry very gallantly. I soon found that the enemy were being largely reinforced from Tel-el-Khabir, and some trains arriving. I thought it inconsistent with traditions for the queen's army to retire before any number of Egyptian troops, and so decided to hold the ground until reinforcements arrived. All day long I have had an Egyptian force of ten thousand men, with ten guns, on my front and on my right flank. The precision of the enemy's artillery was very good, but fortunately they fired common shell nearly all day, and when they did fire shrapnel their fuses were badly adjusted. The enemy had several regiments in line. Our horses, having been recently on board ship, were not in condition to gallop much. The two horse artillery guns were served with pluck and ability. Our casualties have been slight. Captain Hatterell was wounded through the leg. Lord Meldund received a wound through the hand. Captain Parr's mounted infantry distinguished itself. All the troops engaged did well. To-morrow (Friday) I shall attack the enemy's position at Hokeki and hope to take possession of the dam which they constructed there this morning."

ASSESSING THE WOMEN.

Chairman Cooper sends his Circular to the Female Clerks from Pennsylvania.

The taxation has begun of female employees in the departments who claim Pennsylvania as their legal residence. Several cases were reported where circulars were received from Chairman Cooper requesting the shewing of war to enable the grand jury to determine as to wages a successful contest against its Democratic adversary. One case in particular deserves special mention. An elderly lady, who receives a salary of nine hundred dollars, out of which she supports herself and two others, received one of these circulars. She stated that already she had been assessed eighteen dollars by the national committee and had paid it, although she could ill afford to do so. Now came the demand from Cooper, and she was in a quandary, as she feared that refusal might result in the loss of her position. She was advised to pay no attention to the letter of the state committee, and, if necessary, to lay her case before the secretary of her department. So urgent has become the demand for funds by the national committee that the departments are again being carefully looked over, and such as refuse to put up the amount assessed "not paid." One argument used to prevent a backward contributor is that there are many of applicants who will gladly take their place and esteem it a privilege to be assessed for the good of the cause.

The circular sent to the Pennsylvania employees is dated July 15th. It is addressed to the Pennsylvania state committee, 315 North Second St., and is headed by the name of Cooper and his secretaries. It reads as follows: "To Miss —: The Republican state committee desires to make complete preparation for what may prove a great battle with the Democratic party. It must prepare, print and circulate suitable documents touching the issue involved and to do all things for success which may be legitimately done. The struggle involves not only the administrative and legislative control of the state, but that representation in Congress which will determine its political standing. In such a battle we believe that you will esteem it both a privilege and a pleasure to make to its beneficiaries that which is hoped, may not be less than $18. The committee is authorized to state that such voluntary contribution from persons employed in the service of the state or of the United States will not be objected to in any official quarter. Please make prompt and favorable response by bank check, draft or postal money order, payable to the order of the chairman of the Republican state committee. Direct as indicated in the heading of this letter."
 THOMAS V. COOPER,
 Chairman.

SCHNATTERLY AND PATTON.

Second Failure to Nominatc a Democratic Senatorial Candidate in the Fortieth.

The Democratic conferees of the Fortieth senatorial district held their second conference at Pottsville, Pa. Fifteen ballots had been taken at a previous conference, at Rice's Landing, and fourteen more were taken, without result. The Greene county people offered a resolution providing that the dispute should be thrown back to the county committee, which should appoint sub-committees of five. The Fayette people objected to shifting the responsibility, and said Senator Schnatterly would appear before the Fayette committee to ask instructions. Patton claimed that the people of Fayette were not for Schnatterly, and that latter said if his county committee said so he would telegraph the nomination to Patton. The Greene conferees objected to this, and about 6 o'clock unceremoniously withdrew from the conference. Mr. Schnatterly himself renewed the proposition of his conferees to Messrs. Hays and Lugrum, not knowing they had left the conference. Schnatterly and Secretary Mahon will attend the Fayette committee meeting and ask for instructions. The senator says he will make his fight with Dr. Patton before the people, unless the county committee decrees otherwise, but that in no event should the district be endangered. If the Republicans nominate a candidate he will withdraw and give Patton a clear field, because he cannot afford to have the district go to the Republicans. He says he has served formal notice to this effect on the Republican managers in his county. He does not know what the committee will do, but he will report the facts to them for consideration.

A GLEEK AND A COWHIDE.

Vigorously Applying the Lash to Avenger an Insult to His Wife.

The spectacle of an able-bodied man vigorously applying a cowhide to the shoulders of another stalwart individual created a lively sensation in front of the postoffice department in Washington. The parties were both government clerks, named Johnson and Kennedy respectively. The former is a crack shot with the rifle

THE TRI-STATE PICNIC.

End of the Real Business of the Exhibition, Senator Stewart Present.

Notwithstanding the immense number of people attracted to the grounds of the tri-state picnic Thursday, all were returned to their homes in safety. Friday brought some ten thousand spectators to replace the crowd. Senator John Stewart, the candidate of the Independent Republicans, came to the picnic from the very complimentary reception accorded him by the Independents of Mechanicsburg, and, though unheralded by a formal reception, was during his stay constantly surrounded by friends. Being called upon by the crowd for a speech, he announced that he was present on any political mission and perhaps was not so well prepared to discuss agriculture as many of his auditors, yet his acquaintance with farmers convinced him that their patriotic interest invariably placed its influence on the side of the right in all political contests. Frederick Watts, late commissioner of agriculture; M. C. Herman, Professor Heiges, principal of the state normal school at Shippensburg; Charles H. Mullin, president of the Cumberland county agricultural society; President Hubbard, of the Washington county, Md., agricultural society, and many other eminent gentlemen were on the grounds during the day. The authorities of the national grange patrons of Hubbsburg held a meeting in the new hall and formally received the building from Colonel R. H. Thomas, chairman of the executive committee, and dedicated it to the uses of the national grange and subordinated granges with the usual impressive ceremonies.

THE GALLOWS.

Execution of a Man Who Wanted to Assist in Erecting the Scaffold.

Robert Parker, who killed his wife by poisoning her with strychnine on the 3rd of last December, was executed at Aiken, S. C. The evidence leading to his conviction was entirely circumstantial but conclusive. He was lately defended in the trial last June, but the jury after an absence of only a few minutes returned a verdict of guilty. Efforts were made to induce the governor to commute the sentence, but without avail. Parker grew sullen in his demeanor during his imprisonment and declined to talk about the crime. When the work of constructing the gallows was begun he asked for permission to assist in its erection, which was, of course, refused. His object, it was supposed, was to assault the jailer and if possible effect his escape. He slept well the last night. The parting with his mother and other relatives just prior to the execution was very affecting. He maintained his innocence to the last. He was perfectly calm and collected until the under the nose, standing firmly. The drop fell at 1:30 and in thirteen minutes he was pronounced dead. He died without a struggle.

NEARLY A MIRACLE.

E. Asenith Hall, Binghamton, N. Y. writes: "I suffered for several months with a dull pain through the left lung and shoulder. I lost my spirits, appetite and color, and could with difficulty keep up my daily work. My mother presented some Burdock Blood Bitters; I took them as directed, and have felt no pain since first week after using them, and am now quite well." Price $1. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster.

THE COMMODORE.

John L. Foote, the Commodore, Elgin, Ill., says: "I cured my Bilious Colic, biliousness, flatulency with one application, thoroughly applied. It also cured him of a severe cold and cough. He thinks it is a very valuable remedy, and will never be without it. For sale at H. B. Cochran's drug store, 137 North Queen street, Lancaster."

It is the height of folly to wait until you are in bed with disease that may last months when you can be cured by a timely use of Parker's Ginger Tonic. We have known sickly families made the healthiest by its use.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.

MALARIA

Malaria is an almost indescribable malady which not even the most talented physicians are able to fathom. Its cause is most frequently ascribed to local surroundings, and there is very little question, but this opinion is substantiated by facts. Malaria does not necessarily mean chills and fever while those troubles usually accompany it. It often afflicts the sufferer with general lassitude, accompanied by loss of appetite, sleeplessness, a tired feeling and a high fever the person afflicted growing weaker and weaker, loses flesh day after day, until he becomes a mere skeleton, a shadow of his former self.

Malaria once having laid its hold upon the human frame, the door of the system is thrown open to nervous diseases. The body weak and enfeebled absorbs no nourishment, but subsisting upon itself, the digestive organs no longer perform their functions; the liver becomes torpid, and other organs failing to do their routine work speedily become disordered, and dissolution and death are apt to ensue.

In addition to being a certain cure for malaria and chills and fever, BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is highly recommended for all diseases requiring a certain and efficient tonic; especially indigestion, dyspepsia, intermittent fevers, want of appetite, loss of strength, lack of energy, etc. Enriches the blood, strengthens the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. Acts like a charm on the digestive organs. It is for sale by all respectable medicine dealers, price, $1 per bottle.

Be sure and get the genuine BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. Take no other.
