Amusements. The Coming Circus.-On Tuesday next the great Van Amburg circus and menagerie will exhibit in this city. This show is one of the oldest in the world and always draws large crowds. The following notice is from the Unionist Gazette, of Somerville, N. J .: "On the 15th the above-named show visited Somerville The performance was a good one, considering the condition of the ring, and, barring the mire, the audience generally was pleased. The New Brunswick Fredonian says: 'Van Amburg, Frost & Stone's circus gave two exhibitions at the City Park, which were witnessed by thousands of people. The ring per formance was indeed of the best and the trupeze artists were from the best school Tumbling, horizontal bar, carpet acts and feats of strength were substituted for a large share of horse business, which has grown tire-some to the veteran visitor to the arena."

Six drunken roughs entered Peter pistol, sprang upon the front plat-form of a car, shoved his pistol in the face of the astonished driver, and seizing the reins, ordered him to stand back. The driver was taken by surprise and cowed into submission. Whipping up the horses, the ruffian ran them at a dead gallop to the corner of Houston street, the while covering the passengers in the car with his re-volver and threatening to shoot the first who stirred. At Houston street he sprang from the ear, and boarding a ferry boat that was just going out, he quitted the city for Brooklyn. The leader, Nixon, was dur-ing the afternoon, arrested in Williams-burg. He will be brought to New York to-day. James Stanley and George Smith, of the gang, were arested after a desperate resistance at Rivington and Goerck streets. Smith shot at an officer and missed him.
