MOUNT JOY MATTERS.

Slight Fire at the Woolen Mills-A Runa way Horse—Basebail—the Berough Budget. Mount Joy Correspondence.

An-alarm of fire about 10 o'clock on Sunday morning called out a lot of our citizens, when it was found that the mittee of three, to have the arrangement woolen mill, recently built at the eastern of all political meetings to be held during terminus of East Donegal street, was the campaign. The resolution was adopted on fire. The fire was in the coal house and the chair named T. B. Cochran, A. C. adjoining the boiler room and must have been smouldering there for some time, as the large quantity of coal stored was well heated. The coal house is separated from the boiler room by a partition of brick, through which the heat was conducted to the board work of the coal house, setting it on fire. The roof was torn off, and through a hose attached to a spigot in the dyeing room, water was cast on the fire and extinguished. The loss is slight, but would certainly have been much more if the fire would have broken out at night.

A Game of Baseball. The Millersville baseball club played a match game of ball with the Dauntless of this place on Saturday afternoon, and were power in the premises. defeated by a score of 14 to 8. The game was exciting and well played up to the eighth inning, the Millersvillians being in the lead. In the sixth inning Wissler, the catcher, was struck in the eye by a foul tip and D. Miller filled that position. Mitter caught nicely, but the change didn't better their playing. In the ting, the home club, having got used to Byerly's curve pitching and assisted by demoralization among visitors, the Mount Joy club made nine runs. That settled it, as will be seen by the appended result : Innines. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

LANDISVILLE CAMPMEETING.

The Attendance Yesterday Affected by There were many new arrivals at the Landisville camp ground on Saturday. At 10 o'clock in the morning the sermon was preached by Rev. Lockard, of Mt. Joy, from John xvii, 20-23, and Gal. iii, 26 28. At 2 in the afternoon the children's meeting was held by Mr. Samuel Knisely, of Orstown, Franklin county. At 3 o'clock Rev. Carlton Price, of Harrisburg, preached from Hebrews vi, 12. In the evening services were held in the tabernacle, Rev. H. E. Reever, of Mt.

"Christian Perfection." The number of arrivals yesterday was were run from this city by both roads, but did not haul 50 people all told. The crowd of permanent people at the camp was large, and scr-vices were held in the tabernacle, which was crowded at the morning service. Rev. like Tennyson's brook go on smoothly for-D. A. L. Laverty, of Harrisburg preached from Cor. ii., 10: "The fullness which the believer has in Christ." At 1:30 the children's meeting was held and it consisted of addresses, singing, &c. The speakers were Mr Wm. Jones, of Brooklyn; Elder B. F. Beck, of Harrisburg; J. H. Martin, and Steve J. Owens, of Lancaster, and Elder D. A. L Laverty, The musical and song service which was to have taken place at 2 o'clock, p. m., was postponed until next Sanday on account of the bad weather. The regular afternoon sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Getz, of Baiu-

STALWARTS IN SESSION. THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE

Vacancies Pilled—A New Kicker in the Camp -Reinoehl and Brosius Woolug the "Erring Brother." The Republican county committee met in G. A. R. hall at 11 o'clock this morning. The meeting was not very well attended, more than twenty districts being unrepresented. T. B. Coebran offered a resolution for the appointment by the chair of a com Welchans and E. A. Shaub, all of the city, as said committee.

B. F. W. Urban, from the committee appointed at last meeting to select suitale persons to fill the vacancies occasioned by the expulsion of certain Independent kickers, announced that the committee had made the following appointments: Bart Township-Aaron Hartman.

Eden-S. A. Keene. Silver Springs-H. S. Weaver. Sporting Hill-D. S. Miller.

An attempt was made to have the coun ty committee endorse the above appoint ments, but the chair ruled that it was unnecessary as the sub-committee had full Poll books and circulars calling on the faithful to organize were distributed to nembers. The chair appointed W. T. Brown, Geo.

A. Lane and E. P. Shirk, esqs, a com mittee on naturalization.

Major A.C. Reinochl and Marriott Bro sius, esqs., were introduced and received eighth inning, by a streak of heavy bat- with applause. Major Reinoehl informed the committee that the party was about engaging in a terrible battle; the bridges had been burned behind it and there was no means of retreat; the duty of the party is to march boldly forward, meet the enemy and carry the banner of Beaver and Brosius to victory. For the first time in the history of the party, the state convention has honored Lancaster county by naming one of her citizens for a place on the ticket-Marriott Brosius the Quaker boy of the Octoraro — Who, though belonging to a sect that was op posed to fighting, and despite his early training entered the Union army and went to meet the enemies of his country, and how well he fought his shattered shoulder attests. That great dissatisfaction exists haustive efforts made to bring about an proposed for a union of the party. But though many good Republicans are dissatisfied with the management of the party, he could not believe they would altogether turn their backs upon it. There was often dissatisfaction in the army; incompetent and drunken generals were sometimes placed in command, and negleeted to do their duty, but the army never thought of disbanding on this account. On the contrary the renewed efforts were made and victory crowned their labors. To the gentlemen of the committee he would say that each of them by kind words and friendly appeals might win back some of the erring Independents. Kind words will do a great deal more good than anger. A pound of sugar will do Oct. 12th. Better walt for Barnum and Jumbo. more good than a barrel of vinegar. Give them plenty of sugar and taffy and strive to win them back. Candidate Brosins Speaks. Mr. Brosius, on being introduced, said that members of the committee might think that his interest in the success of the party in the present campaign is enhanced by the accident which placed him on the ticket. He wished to disabuse their mind on that point. This accidental relation has given him no additional interest in the party's success. He claimed no credit for being a Quaker boy and having been born on the banks of the Octoraro. A Presbyterian boy, born on the banks of the Conestogo, is just as good. In political contests men are not to be considered further than as they represent principles. It is for the maintenance of these principles that he contends, because he believes if they are not maintained the people and the nation will suffer. These principles have been applied to our govfew days in town with his parents of this place.—Samuel Clair, of Middletown, noble, true and righteous, and they have led the country up to its present high place among the nations of the world. They deserve to be perpetuated and the Republican who forsakes them now because of his dislike for certain men at the head of the party is no patriot. The men can be shaken off as easily as a dew drop from the lion's mane, but the principles are eternal. They had their origin in the Mayflower. The passengers of the Maytlower before they landed went down into the cabin and there, before God and cach other pledged themselves to obey the will of the majority. Shall we not now maintain the same princi ples? In all parties there is what is known as "the machine;" there necessarily must be; it is in the churches and societies of m2-ty all kinds as well as in political parties. It is the organization through which the nec:ssary work is done. This committee is the machine of the Lancaster county Republicans, and to it is committed York county, preaching on the party management. There can be no objection to the machine, be no objection to the machine, but the great problem is how can small, owing to the heavy rain. Trains a political machine be so well adjusted in all its parts that there shall be no friction of faction to weaken it-no meddling hand to touch it-no ambitious men to misdirect it from its proper uses to serve their private ends—but that it may ever? To accomplish these ends is the problem of the age, and if this committee can solve it they shall deserve a niche in the temple of fame. The Almighty who made the world from nothing might make good work out of bad material; but we cannot. We have no material to work with except 50,000,000 of erring men, and all we can do is to endeavor to make them better than they are; to give our reasonable service towards elevating their morals and showing them an example of strict honor and integrity on our part. We are now on the eve of a great political battle. Existing discontent will require greater effort and more constant diligence than ever before to prevent dis aster from overtaking us; and disaster now will entail disaster to the federal government in 1884. Let each man gird on Thes, v. 10, "The intense love and desire of Christ."

The prospects for a large attendance at the camp are good if the weather is not so very bad.

The prospects for a large attendance at the camp are good if the weather is not so very bad.

The intense love and desire this armor and prepare for battle. "Once more into the breach," &c. "In time of peace there's nothing so becomes a man," &c., &c. "The "Old Guard never surrenders," &c., &c. "Charge for your renders," &c., &c. "Charge for your altars," &c., &c, and in the language of Col. to say about it. Mr. Streiling was a little slow in coming to time, but got on his feet at last and said that he had told certain persons that he was going to support the Independent will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say candidates, but whether he would or not that it has done me more good than all the was another thing. He denied that he had said he would rather vote for a Democrat than for Beaver. He claimed to be a good Republican and would do all he could to get out the full Republican vote, and when they came to the polls it was none of his concern whether they voted for Beaver or somebody else.

Mr. Streiling's equivocal position caused some amusement among the Stalwarts, some of whom wanted to have him bounced, but the more shrewd members poured oil on troubled waters, feeling, no doubt, that it would not be safe to stir up the Independent element known to exist in the committee.

The show appears in Strasburg to-day, and as they have but a short drive to this city, they will arrive early and the street parade will be made by 10 o'clock. Features of the street parade will be the fine brass band and a living lion loose. Among the famous people to be seen in the ring are Miss Annie Carroll, female equestrian, Chas. H. Lowry and John Saunders, bareback riders, Cordello and La Rose, acrobats, Sam McFlyn, clown, a band of real indians, and many others. In the menagerie can be found the only nondescript ever captured alive. This is a curious animal, and is believed to be part horse, ox, walrus, hippopotamus, erocodile. anterope, hog and sea Hon. Columbia and Victoria, a fine pair of performing elephants, a pair of sacred baby camels, a lot of beautiful Arabian stallions and many other rare attractions. THIRD EDITION.

MONDAY EVENING, AUG. 28, 1882 WORKMEN IN COUNCIL TRADE AND LABOR CONVENTION. feeting of the Workingmen in Philade!

Denouncing McCture.

Trade and Labor convention, after waiting some time for the arrival of delegates, was called to order at 10:30 this morning by Chairman Bisbing of the Philadelphia Trade and Labor council. Mr. Bisbing in the course of his remarks earnestly refuted the charge of double dealing and selling out politically, which he said had been made by a portion of the press of the state. A Crankin, master workman in district

No. 3, Knights of Labor, was unanimously chosen as temporary chairman; and upon taking his seat made a brief speech, in which he spoke of the importance of having the conspiracy laws repealed, so that workmen could maintain organizations for their own protection.

C. L. Dodd, of the carpenter's union, No. 8, of Philadelphia, was made temporary secretary and various committees were selected.

Several motions were voted down, and a resolution offered by John Welsh, of Schuylkill county, denouncing the editor of the Philadelphia Times for publishing alleged false points concerning labor organization in Schuylkill county, and demanding their retraction, gave rise to long discussion, after which it was ordered to be referred to the proper committee when appointed.

John Jarrett, president of the Amalgamated association of iron and steel workers, was elected permanent chairman. and after the appointment of a committee on resolutions, in the selection of which considerable feeling was displayed, a recess until 4 p. m. was taken.
