HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.

Horse, Buggy and Harness Recove red. This morning between 9 and 10 o'clock a man giving his name as Oliver Rosenberger, was arrested by Officer Steinwondel on a charge of stealing a horse, buggy and harness. The thief is a well-dressed young man 27 years of age, about 5 feet 5 inches in height, and wears a black mustache. A short time before his arrest he drove up to Nolty's carriage shop in rear of the Merrimac house, North Prince street, and offered for sale a good Dexter trotting buggy, newly lined, made by Sanders & Co., New Oxford, Pa. He offered the buggy for $50, and afterwards came down to $40, but said he could not sell the horse. Mr. Nolty told him to come around again in about an hour, and he thought he could find a customer. Nolty believing the team to have been stolen, went to the police station and no-tified the officers. Dr. Fitzpatrick and Officer Gill went to Nolty's and Resenberger soon afterwards drove up. The horse was siezed and the man took to his heels and ran through the Merrimac yard to Prince down Prince to Orange and up Orange to Market, where he was caught by Officer Steinwandel and taken to the lockup. Rosenberger says he is a Philadelphian. has been out of work for some six months hired a sorrel horse and buggy in Harrisburg and drove to Mount Joy where he swopped the sorrel for the bay which he had when arrested. Officer Steinwandel and Mr. Noity have gone to Mount Joy, and expect to recover the sorrel horse hired or stolen by Rosenberger, against whom complaint has been entered by Mr. Steinwandel before Alderman McConomy. A telegram was sent to the Harrisburg information to all classes of business and pre-authorities, notifying them of the arrest. This afternoon Officer Abe Rote, of that city, accompanied by Wm. Lauer, a liveryman, arrived in this city, and at once ntified Rosenberger as the man who bad hired a team from Lauer's livery stable on Thursday morning, stating that he wanted to drive out to his father's, who churches, schools libraries and societies lolived about seven miles out of town. Vitlating Well Water. John W. Hollinger, residing on North Queen street, this city, has made complaint against George Bennett, Victoria Bennett and Mrs. McDonald, next door neighbors, charging them with vitiating and rendering unwholesome his well water. by throwing into the well dishwater, chamber slops and other filth. He lays his damages at $1,000, against each of the defendants. A capias for their arrest was issued this morning.

Deputy Sheriff Strine arrested the deendants and they gave bail in $1,000.

Fatal Railroad Casualty. This afternoon about 3 o'clock as extra freight engine No. 395 with train was moving east on the Penusylvania railroad near Hope's tower, cast of Pomeroy, it struck and killed a middle aged man who was walking on the track. The alarm signal was loudly blown by the engineer as be approached the man, but he paid no attention to it. He is unknown by all who have seen him and is supposed to be a stranger to the neighborhood.

The Public Schools. The public schools of this city re-opene this morning. There was a large atten dance at all of them, and the city superin tendent, superintending committee and teachers were kept busy making the necessary preliminary arrangements for the fall and winter campaign. Discharged on a Writ, RESCUED FROM DEATH. The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says : "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the sum-mer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disap peared and I shall soon be able to go to work. iold byH. B. Cochran, 187 Forth Queen street A permanent restoration of exhausted and
