

The Lancaster Intelligencer.

Volume XIX - No 9

LANCASTER, PA., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1882.

Price Two Cents.

JOHN S. GIVLER & CO.

CARPET DEPARTMENT.

Our trade in this department has already commenced. Some of our New Patterns have been selling rapidly, but we will continue to add something new to our stock in this department every week.

THE AURORA CARPET SWEEPER

Still continues in great favor among housekeepers. We are Sole Agents for it for Lancaster City and County. We also have exclusive sale of

The Celebrated OPAQUE FELT Window Shading.

It has a superiority over other Shadings for the following reasons:

- 1st. It is strong and perfectly opaque
- 2d. Its texture is rubber-like,
- 3d. It is soft and pliable.
- 4th. It will not crack, crease or break.
- 5th. It will not ravel at the edges.
- 6th. It is noiseless in operation.

- 7th. It will not wrinkle or curl.
- 8th. It can be sewed the same as cloth.
- 9th. Its appearance when contrasted with the best cloth curtains is always in its favor.
- 10th. It is cheaper and more durable.

Parties needing Curtains goods should not fail to examine these goods before purchasing. We carry a full line and shall be pleased to show them at any time.

JOHN S. GIVLER & CO.,

NO. 25 EAST KING STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

THE PEOPLES STORE.

BOWERS & HURST,

129-131 NORTH QUEEN STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

MEN'S SHIRTS, - MEN'S HOSIERY.

We are now offering great drives in SHIRTS and HOSIERY.

WHITE DRESS SHIRTS, 25 cents.
WHITE DRESS SHIRTS, 50 cents.

WHITE DRESS SHIRTS, 75 Cents.
WHITE DRESS SHIRTS, $1.00.

MEN'S ENGLISH HOSE 12 1/2c., a Great Bargain. MEN'S FANCY SEAMLESS HOSE 18c., a pair or 6 pairs for $1.00, the Greatest Bargain in HOSIERY ever offered. MEN'S MERINO UNDERSHIRTS, 37c., full length 50 cents.

We also offer many other Bargains in GENT'S NECKWEAR, COLLARS, CUFFS, SUSPENDERS, etc. Also an immense lot of CALICOES, BROCADES and SATINES in the New Fall Styles. BLANKETS and FLANNELS, an immense Stock now on hand and Selling Fast at Away Down Prices.

BOWERS & HURST,

No. 129-131 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa.

CLOTHING.

MYERS & RATHFON.

Well-Made Garments.

In the manufacture of READY-MADE CLOTHING we observe three points:

1. The Selection of Stylish and Serviceable Material with the Best Wearing Qualities.
2. The Selection of Good, Strong and Serviceable Trimmings, Linings, etc.
3. First-class Workmanship, Good, Strong Thread and Careful Sewing.

In our CLOTHING you will find no machine-made button holes, but good, strong, regular hand-made buttonholes. Our Cutters are the most skilled. Our Patterns are the best.

MYERS & RATHFON,

NO. 12 EAST KING STREET.

CLOTHING, &c.

A. C. YATES & CO.

AUTUMN CLOTHING.

Just before Heavy Goods become a necessity you will find it quite expedient to use a

FALL OVERCOAT.

Our preparations for such a want have been extensive, and we can supply every grade, quality and price, to suit the taste of every mind.

A. C. YATES & CO.,

LEDGER BUILDING, CHESTNUT AND SIXTH STS., PHILADELPHIA.

DRY GOODS.

HAGER & BROTHER.

HAGER & BROTHER.

DEALERS IN CARPETS.

Moquettes,

Body Brussels,

Tapestry Brussels,

Ingrains.

Full Line of Oil Cloths and Lenoleums.

25 WEST KING STREET.

NEXT DOOR TO THE

COURT HOUSE,

FAHNESTOCK'S.

Blue Black Cashmeres,

Jet Black Cashmeres,

MEDIUM BLACK CASHMERES,

LUPINS FRENCH CASHMERES,

From the Lowest to the Finest Goods Imported,

Now Open Direct From Importers.

We invite attention to our BLACK SILKS at 90 Cents; Also to our BLACK SILKS at $1.00 as being the Best Silks ever offered for the money.

NEW GOODS OPENED DAILY.

R. E. FAHNESTOCK.

NEXT DOOR TO COURT HOUSE, LANCASTER, PA.

FLUMBER SUPPLIES.

WHOLESALE DEPOT FOR

Water Closets and Bath Tubs,

Iron and Wooden Hydrants,

Plumbers' Earthenware,

Gas and Steam Fitters' Supplies,

Gas Fixtures at Reduced Prices,

Plumbers' Supplies, Tinner's Supplies.

SLATE ROOFING.

SLATE ROOFING.

No. 11, 13 & 15 EAST ORANGE STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

JOHN L. ARNOLD.

NEWS MISCELLANY.

THE CREAM OF THE SUNDAY PAPERS.

The Dire Yellow Fever—Terrible Condition of Affairs in Pensacola, Fla., Appearing for Aid.

The board of health at Pensacola declares the yellow fever epidemic. It says: We have had twenty-four hours sixteen new cases and three deaths. A terrific storm prevails, having continued for a night and a day, which threatens fatal results. One of the greatest burdens inflicted by the epidemic is the inability of merchants to collect their accounts. All country places having been quarantined, necessitating a general suspension of business. A large number of those best able to pay cannot be reached, while those who remain are holding on to their dollars, not knowing what the next two months may bring forth, nor what they will have to endure before frost. From these sources collections are being almost entirely suspended and business men are greatly embarrassed.

The new phase of the fever in the past forty-eight hours, with a constant increased sick rate and death rate, has rendered necessary the appeal which has been made to the generosity of the country. Unless aid shall speedily come the greatest we must prevail. Contributions should be transmitted by telegraph when possible, as there is imperative need of funds. The large proportion here of Northern and unacclimated men render us singularly accessible to the ravages of the disease, while the number of sick and sickening is greatly disproportionate to the number of trained nurses. The local physicians are behaving valiantly and benevolently.

The relief branch of the Young Men's Christian association has been furnishing volunteer nurses, but they are nearly all broken down. An outlook predicts the need of professional nurses. To furnish them is impossible without aid from abroad.

Mr. Scullian is out of danger. Three of the sisters in the convent are very sick. One has been given up by the physicians. At Haverhill the fever is very much on the decrease. There were two deaths in the last twenty-four hours. Fourteen thousand dollars is the total amount sent by subscription. The river continues at a very high stage. The weather is clear, with a light northerly wind.

A Discreet Young Lady on Her Travels.

Chicago Tribune. "Shall you miss me, sweetheart?" George W. Simpson was going away, far away to the trackless solitudes of St. Louis, and when he had told Daphne McCarthy of his intended journey the girl had spoken not a word, but lain her head gently on his shoulder and wept as if her heart was breaking.

"But then she had her the question which this chapter opens the little head, with its coronal of fluffy brown hair, had risen slowly, and the pensive-brown eyes of the girl had looked into his and gleamed with the holy light of a love that could never die.

"Shall I miss you?" she cried, despairingly. "Ah, yes, sorely enough. But you cannot understand this. No man can feel the loss of kisses and love words as a woman can, nor hate the slow creeping wakened night, and the gray dawns that come with no promise of strong arms and a loving heart, and words of courage, and the windy sunsets that die away on a day that has held no beauty or brightness. No man can feel the deadly hunger in time of famine that a woman feels when love that always beckons and allures is out of reach of her longing hands and loving lips."

"But I shall not be gone so very long, darling," whispered George. "and I have told the candy man to let you have whatever you want on my account."

"You have done this?" asks the girl, putting her dimpled arms around his neck.

"Yes," was the reply. "Then," said Daphne, the wistful look gone from her face, "you cannot start to soon."

A Discreet Young Lady on Her Travels. Chicago Herald. "May I open the window for you, miss?" politely inquired a gentleman of a young lady on the Northern road, as he saw her tugging at a sash that had not recovered from the preceding winter.

She looked at him a moment and gave a reluctant consent. "Folks can't be too careful who they speak to or accept favors from," she remarked, after a long pause.

"That's very true," replied the gentleman, quietly. "Are you a Boston drummer?" she inquired.

"No, I am not," he answered. "A hotel clerk?" "No, not a hotel clerk."

"I am glad of that," said she. "I never like a drummer or a hotel clerk speak to me. Maybe you're an actor?" "No, not an actor."

"That's first class," she exclaimed, showing her dimples and becoming more and more confidential. "If an actor should speak to me I'd die. What is your business?"

"I'm a barkeeper, and I'm traveling West to get a territorial divorce from my wife," explained the gentleman.

"Oh, I'm so glad," giggled the girl. "Reach down my satchel and get a bottle of whisky and a pack of cards in it. I'll play you an odd game of California Jack for $5 a corner. I like to meet gentlemen, and I know 'em when I meet 'em. Ask that bald-headed chap across there if he's got a cork screw, will you?"

Hubbell Very Unpopular. The Opinion Formed about the Assessment Collector in the Treasury Department. The failure of Jay Hubbell to be brought out as a candidate for Congress continues to occasion a good deal of comment particularly in departmental quarters. The story that he declined to run for the nomination because he did not want the place is generally credited. He was not popular in his district, and finding that he could not be renominated he withdrew as gracefully as he could from the canvass. An officer of the treasury department said that employees generally regarded this defeat of Hubbell as good news. He was virtually out of political life, for his enemies against Senator Ferry would never amount to anything. Hubbell does not make friends and he has persecuted the poor clerks with such persistence and in such a manner that he has signally failed in numerous instances in securing political contributions. Other men acting as chairmen of the Republican congressional committee would have collected five dollars where Hubbell has collected one. Hubbell lacks personal magnetism and the disposition to make himself popular. He has done the Republican more harm than good. Since he has been chairman of the congressional committee he has been in a constant controversy in regard to his methods of conducting the affairs of the committee, and these controversies have been injurious both to him and the party. This is the way other officers and clerks in the departments talk without a single exception.

The Land League Phalanx. What Colonel Barr and Mr. O'Byrne, of Pittsburg have to say on the subject. Col. James P. Barr, of the Pittsburg Phalanx says that there is no doubt of the truth of the charges made in regard to the attempted purchase of the Land League vote. Colonel Barr says he knows Delaney well and knows that he has always been ready to go into just such schemes. He has been a hanger-on to the Republic at Haverburg for years, and has learned how to take advantage of the hot-headed Irish, who are willing to do almost anything if they think it will benefit Ireland. Mr. A. O'Byrne, formerly president of the Central branch of the Land League and a leading Irishman says that he believes the attempt to purchase votes was made. He knows beyond doubt that Delaney sold out the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the Hartman campaign, when Hartman promised to pardon Kehoe. Mr. O'Byrne knows that there is no doubt of the fact that he sold out to the Irish vote in Scranton and a leading Irishman there was anxious to make the sale, but the plan was discovered. He says he does not know of any attempt having been made to control the Land League vote here, but believes that some men in the society who would sell the bulk of it.

A Notorious Robber Arrested. John Solomon has been arrested on suspicion of having committed a series of burglaries in Allentown. The female college has been robbed twice in several months and the residence of the Rev. Hifford, president of the institution, was burglarized in August, while the family was at the seashore. The officers found a lot of silverware, clothing, linen, etc., which has been identified as the property of the college and Mr. Hifford. Solomon is an old offender and some time back served a three years term for burglary. Other charges are pending against him and he is charged for six or eight years in prison.

Schuykill County Abuses.

Special Dispatch to the Times.

The grand jury of Schuykill county, in making their report, called attention to the abuses at the almshouse, particularly in the matter of out-door relief, which in the last ten years has increased from $10,000 to $50,000. The almshouse expenses now amount to $60,000 annually, which is more than half the entire tax levy. The report calls upon all good citizens to report to the poor directors persons whom they know are receiving relief unworthily and demands a stricter accountability from the directors. They say that the latter have been too careless in issuing orders for the relief of indigent people throughout the county and that the directors are receiving charity who are unworthy, who have families able to support them, and who have real estate, out of which the county may be reimbursed. The orders are all issued to storekeepers, many at the request of the latter and without the proper investigation having first been made.

Disinterested Love.

Chicago Tribune. "Shall you miss me, sweetheart?" George W. Simpson was going away, far away to the trackless solitudes of St. Louis, and when he had told Daphne McCarthy of his intended journey the girl had spoken not a word, but lain her head gently on his shoulder and wept as if her heart was breaking.

"But then she had her the question which this chapter opens the little head, with its coronal of fluffy brown hair, had risen slowly, and the pensive-brown eyes of the girl had looked into his and gleamed with the holy light of a love that could never die.

"Shall I miss you?" she cried, despairingly. "Ah, yes, sorely enough. But you cannot understand this. No man can feel the loss of kisses and love words as a woman can, nor hate the slow creeping wakened night, and the gray dawns that come with no promise of strong arms and a loving heart, and words of courage, and the windy sunsets that die away on a day that has held no beauty or brightness. No man can feel the deadly hunger in time of famine that a woman feels when love that always beckons and allures is out of reach of her longing hands and loving lips."

"But I shall not be gone so very long, darling," whispered George. "and I have told the candy man to let you have whatever you want on my account."

"You have done this?" asks the girl, putting her dimpled arms around his neck.

"Yes," was the reply. "Then," said Daphne, the wistful look gone from her face, "you cannot start to soon."

A Discreet Young Lady on Her Travels. Chicago Herald. "May I open the window for you, miss?" politely inquired a gentleman of a young lady on the Northern road, as he saw her tugging at a sash that had not recovered from the preceding winter.

She looked at him a moment and gave a reluctant consent. "Folks can't be too careful who they speak to or accept favors from," she remarked, after a long pause.

"That's very true," replied the gentleman, quietly. "Are you a Boston drummer?" she inquired.

"No, I am not," he answered. "A hotel clerk?" "No, not a hotel clerk."

"I am glad of that," said she. "I never like a drummer or a hotel clerk speak to me. Maybe you're an actor?" "No, not an actor."

"That's first class," she exclaimed, showing her dimples and becoming more and more confidential. "If an actor should speak to me I'd die. What is your business?"

"I'm a barkeeper, and I'm traveling West to get a territorial divorce from my wife," explained the gentleman.

"Oh, I'm so glad," giggled the girl. "Reach down my satchel and get a bottle of whisky and a pack of cards in it. I'll play you an odd game of California Jack for $5 a corner. I like to meet gentlemen, and I know 'em when I meet 'em. Ask that bald-headed chap across there if he's got a cork screw, will you?"

Hubbell Very Unpopular. The Opinion Formed about the Assessment Collector in the Treasury Department. The failure of Jay Hubbell to be brought out as a candidate for Congress continues to occasion a good deal of comment particularly in departmental quarters. The story that he declined to run for the nomination because he did not want the place is generally credited. He was not popular in his district, and finding that he could not be renominated he withdrew as gracefully as he could from the canvass. An officer of the treasury department said that employees generally regarded this defeat of Hubbell as good news. He was virtually out of political life, for his enemies against Senator Ferry would never amount to anything. Hubbell does not make friends and he has persecuted the poor clerks with such persistence and in such a manner that he has signally failed in numerous instances in securing political contributions. Other men acting as chairmen of the Republican congressional committee would have collected five dollars where Hubbell has collected one. Hubbell lacks personal magnetism and the disposition to make himself popular. He has done the Republican more harm than good. Since he has been chairman of the congressional committee he has been in a constant controversy in regard to his methods of conducting the affairs of the committee, and these controversies have been injurious both to him and the party. This is the way other officers and clerks in the departments talk without a single exception.

The Land League Phalanx. What Colonel Barr and Mr. O'Byrne, of Pittsburg have to say on the subject. Col. James P. Barr, of the Pittsburg Phalanx says that there is no doubt of the truth of the charges made in regard to the attempted purchase of the Land League vote. Colonel Barr says he knows Delaney well and knows that he has always been ready to go into just such schemes. He has been a hanger-on to the Republic at Haverburg for years, and has learned how to take advantage of the hot-headed Irish, who are willing to do almost anything if they think it will benefit Ireland. Mr. A. O'Byrne, formerly president of the Central branch of the Land League and a leading Irishman says that he believes the attempt to purchase votes was made. He knows beyond doubt that Delaney sold out the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the Hartman campaign, when Hartman promised to pardon Kehoe. Mr. O'Byrne knows that there is no doubt of the fact that he sold out to the Irish vote in Scranton and a leading Irishman there was anxious to make the sale, but the plan was discovered. He says he does not know of any attempt having been made to control the Land League vote here, but believes that some men in the society who would sell the bulk of it.

A Notorious Robber Arrested. John Solomon has been arrested on suspicion of having committed a series of burglaries in Allentown. The female college has been robbed twice in several months and the residence of the Rev. Hifford, president of the institution, was burglarized in August, while the family was at the seashore. The officers found a lot of silverware, clothing, linen, etc., which has been identified as the property of the college and Mr. Hifford. Solomon is an old offender and some time back served a three years term for burglary. Other charges are pending against him and he is charged for six or eight years in prison.

MALARIA

Malaria is an almost indescribable malady which not even the most talented physicians are able to fathom. Its cause is most frequently ascribed to local surroundings, and there is very little question, but this opinion is substantiated by facts. Malaria does not necessarily mean chills and fever while these troubles usually accompany it. It often affects the sufferer with general lassitude, accompanied by loss of appetite, sleeplessness, a tired feeling and a high fever the person afflicted growing weaker and weaker, loses flesh day after day, until he becomes a mere skeleton, a shadow of his former self.

Malaria once having laid its hold upon the human frame, the door of the system is thrown open to nervous diseases. The body weak and enfeebled absorbs no nourishment, but subsisting upon itself, the digestive organs no longer perform their functions; the liver becomes torpid, and other organs failing to do their routine work, speedily become disordered, and dissolution and death are apt to ensue.

In addition to being a certain cure for malaria and chills and fever, BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is highly recommended for all diseases requiring a certain and efficient tonic; especially indigestion, dyspepsia, intermittent fevers, want of appetite, loss of strength, lack of energy, etc. Enriches the blood, strengthens the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. Acts like a charm on the digestive organs. It is for sale by all respectable medicine dealers, price, $1 per bottle.

Be sure and get the genuine BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. Take no other.

For sale wholesale and retail by H. B. COCHRAN, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa.

BOOKS AND STATIONERY.

SCHOOL BOOKS. ALL SCHOOL BOOKS AND SCHOOL SUPPLIES AT THE LOWEST RATES.

L. M. FLYNN'S, NO. 42 WEST KING STREET, LANCASTER.

SCHOOL BOOKS

FOR SALE AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

John Baer's Sons, NOS. 15-17 NORTH QUEEN ST.

WALL PAPERS

Within the last week, consisting of every description of PAPER HANGINGS, and among them some of the choicest styles in the Best Grade of Goods. These will be sold for an order to make speedy sales.

LACE CURTAINS

White and Cream, Bed-Room, Pillow Shams, Ties, Lambrequins, &c.

Phares W. Fry,

57 NORTH QUEEN STREET.

CLOTHING &c.

FOR NECKTIES, COLLARS, SHIRTS, SUSPENDERS, AT ERISMAN'S.

66 NORTH QUEEN STREET.

58th Semi-Annual Sale!

is now under full headway and will continue to blaze away with unnumbered fury till

IMMENSE STOCK

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING

Great Bargains!

Never Saw Clothing Sold So Cheap!

Hirsh & Brother,

Penn Hall Clothing House, 2 and 4 North Queen Street and 6 and 8 Penn Square.

CLOTHING!

D. B. HOSTETTER & SON, No. 24 Centre Square.

D. B. Hostetter & Son,

24 CENTRE SQUARE, LANCASTER, PA.

High & Martin

15 EAST KING STREET, LANCASTER, PA.

M. V. B. COHO, 330 NORTH WATER ST., Lancaster, Pa.